A 60-MINUTE WAIT FOR HER FREEDOM

It took firemen more than 60 minutes this morning to free 22-year-old Barbara Dalton of Chicago from the wheels of this truck in an accident on a Chicago expressway. Firemen had to unload the truck to reduce weight and then jack it up. Driver of the truck told police the woman was thrown out of her car by the impact of the collision.

Time Holds Up Stiffer Auto Safety

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Federal auto safety officials said today that a lack of time, staff and technology resulted in modification of safety standards for 1968 cars.

Defending the efforts of the new traffic safety agency, they also revealed that auto makers had notified them of safety recall campaigns involving more than a million late model cars.

Dr. William Haddon Jr., administrator of the agency, and Lowell K. Bridwell, acting under secretary of commerce, outlined their problems in testimony to the Senate Commerce Committee.

TOP ENGINEER

The hearing was called after Haddon's former top engineering advisor, William I. Stieglitz resigned in protest earlier this year. Stieglitz charged that Haddon bowed to industry objections in watering down the standards.

Both Haddon and Bridwell denied they received any undue pressure from the auto industry. They contended that the agency did the best job possible and promised that future standards would be far superior to existing ones.

TECHNICAL INFORMATION

They said scientific and technical information was needed to permit the agency to set stringent standards.

"With only 8 borrowed engineers we couldn't go much beyond existing standards," Haddon said.

Bidwell said the agency also was strenthening its check n industry recall campaigns involving cars with potential safety hazards. Of defect warnings involving more than one million cars, Bridwell said 88,000 autos were made by foreign manufacturers.

Johnson Sidestepping Escalation In Talks With South Vietnamese

NIMITZ HILL, Guam (UPI) —President Johnson today held daylong conferences with South Vietnamese leaders who pressed for escalating the war against the Communists. Aides said Johnson avoided that topic and stuck to his plan of discussing chances of an "honorable settlement" of the Southeast Asian conflict.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk said South Vietnamese Premier Nguyen Cao Ky raised a number of military questions in the second of the lunch, afternoon and evening sessions. Rusk said the questions were not answered and the meeting stuck to Johnson's course of reviewing pacification programs and efforts to set peace negotiations in motion.

Johnson emphasized the peaceful purposes of the Guam meeting and the allies ended convinced the war has reached a turning point favorable to them.

But Ky raised his questions on escalation on the theory the North Vietnamese must be hit much harder before their Communist leaders will be willing to talk peace.

Ky clearly wanted heavier blows against Hanoi to convince his enemies, the Communists, cause is hopeless.

"Only then will Hanoi be ready to negotiate," he said

Rusk, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam, agreed that matters on tactics and specific future military moves such as increasing armed manpower did not figure in today's discussions.

Ky and other Saigon leaders were scheduled to return home tomorrow morning. Johnson planned to continue his talks with U.S. officials during part of tomorrow, leaving Guam late in the day.

On his arrival here Johnson said he would discuss military progress and future plans with the South Vietnamese.

"We will review our diplomatic initiatives and we will try to estimate the chances of bringing peace to Vietnam through honorable settlement."

As LBJ arrived, Hanoi said it would "reply with guns" to any new American move. Red China warned it would make "the highest national sacrifice" for North Vietnam and said the Guam meeting spelled "doomsday" for Johnson's administration.

The American and Vietnamese officials set up shop at the concrete two-story Navy headquarters on Nimitz Hill, named for Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, Pacific Fleet Commander in World War II.

Johnson praised the fact that South Vietnam has hammered out a new constitution providing for civilian rule and national elections. Ky brought a copy of the document with him.

Reds Pound Marine Camp With Heavy Mortar Output

SAIGON (UPI)—Communist troops opened a heavy mortar and rocket assault tonight on U.S. Marines below the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) in one of a series of Red offenses coinciding with President Johnson's Guam conference. The Marines fought back in an artillery duel that lit up the skies for several hours.

In another Communist attack a heavily outnumbered armored unit of the U.S. 9th Infantry Division covered itself with glory earlier today by smashing an attack by a Viet Cong regiment that drove to 15 yards of the American positions. The newly arrived "green" Americans killed 224 Communists and lost 5 men dead and 34 wounded. Another 9th Infantry unit ran the enemy death toll to 279.

With the war quickening in tempo, the Communists opened up tonight with 82 millimeter mortar fire near Gio Linh, where big U.S. howitzers—the 175 millimeter Long Toms of World War II—have been firing across the border into the southern part of North Vietnam. Then the Reds blended in their new, Chinese-made 102 millimeter rockets and turned the night a hellish red with explosions.

Early reports indicated the Americans suffered "very light" casualties despite the ferocity of the attack. There were no estimates of Communist dead.

Within the first hour more than 60 rounds of Communist fire had thundered into the American position just south of the DMZ and only a few miles from the South China seacoast.

The Americans struck back within minutes. Artillery and mortar rounds slammed into Communist positions, touching off several explosions. Some of the enemy positions appeared to be in the offlimits DMZ itself.

Jet planes roared in with bombing and strafing attacks carried out by the light of flares and were joined by C47 "dragonships" which licked the air with streaks of red from their rapidfiring Gatling guns.

Evidently the main Communist targets were the U.S. 175 millimeter howitzers which can send high explosive shells 20 miles across the zone into the North. They have been attacked frequently but have not been put out of action.

The air war increased in intensity and American planes bombed the big Thai Nguyen steel plant 36 miles north of Hanoi for the second time in two days, then returned and attacked the Viet Tri thermal power plant 29 miles northwest of Hanoi.

An American spokseman reported three more planes were shot down during the past three days with a loss of one pilot killed and three men missing. The Communists also destroyed or damaged 16 helicopters transporting troops to positions near the Cambodian border.

The three planes shot down brought to 653 the number of U.S. planes reported lost during the war—489 over North Vietnam and 164 over the South. Their total value is estimated between $1.4 billion and $1.9 billion.

Sidbeck Is Given Life; Crime Detail Revealed

Table Leg Used In Beating

By ROSS DAVIS

Robert Dean Sidbeck, 18, was sentenced to life in state prison today in Marin Superior Court for the bludgeoning murders of a North Marin dairy farm couple.

The handcuffed youth, pale from months in county jail since his October arrest, displayed no emotion when Judge Joseph G. Wilson pronounced judgment.

His mother, Alma Irene Sidbeck, was seated in the courtroom, but neither looked at the other during the court proceeding. She remained in her seat when Sidbeck was led back to jail.

OWN JUDGMENT

In giving Sidbeck life imprisonment instead of the death penalty for the Aug. 29-30 slayings of Mr. and Mrs. Everett F. Zimmerman, Judge Wilson noted that Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales, Deputy Probation Officer Thomas B. Estes and Public Defender Jerome Durham, who represents Sidbeck, all recommended prison.

"It is, however, necessary that I arrive at my own independent judgment," he said. He declared that the Zimmermans, friends and former employers of Sidbeck, had displayed "qualities of kindness and concern (to Sidbeck), and this makes the crime itself all the more shocking."

He said his decision was based mainly on Sidbeck's age and his lack of any previous criminal record.

PROBATION REPORT

Judge Wilson mentioned usual concern over the possibility that any person sentenced to life imprisonment is eligible for parole after seven years, but said, "I cannot take this into consideration" in pronouncing judgment.

A lengthy probation report by Estes made public for the first time that the murder weapon was a table leg, and that Sidbeck contends he killed the couple in their bedroom only after they threatened to gain court custody of his brother and two younger sisters.

Sidbeck claimed that prior to enlisting in the Marine Corps, he

Lodge To Be Troubleshooter

GUAM (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge is getting a new diplomatic post as ambassador at large.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk told newsmen today that President Johnson will nominate the outgoing ambassador to South Vietnam for what amounts to an assignment as a diplomatic troubleshooter.

Lodge thus will change places with Ambassador at Large Ellsworth Bunker, Lodge's successor in Saigon.

$275,000 Bond Is Sought For New School Buildings

Voters in Bolinas-Stinson School District will go to the polls tomorrow to decide the fate of a $275,000 bond measure proposed to finance district building needs for 10 years.

Polls at Bolinas and Stinson Beach schools will be open from 1 to 7 p.m. the district has 498 registered voters, Principal Keith Oveson reported.

The measure would add about 35 cents to the tax rate initially, Trustee Arthur E. Carpenter said, but the increase would decline to 12 cents by the end of the 20-year payment period. This year's tax rate was $1.20 per $100 assessed valuation.

Trustees hired San Francisco architect William M. Gillis in January to design improvements and additions to school buildings.

Trustees set the bond election after three classrooms were declared unsafe under the state Field Act. The board fears that unification of southern Marin school districts may leave the district "last in line" for new construction unless it has the funds available before unification, Carpenter said.

"Additional classrooms are urgently needed now," according to the argument submitted in favor of the measure. Signed by Mrs. Roberta Patterson and Capt. Dave Edwards, co-chairmen of the bond election committee, the argument noted there had been a 52 per cent increase in school attendance since 1963, and there was a projected growth of 86 per cent by 1980.

The measure, they argued, will provide "a school installation that will be adequate for a long time and the cost will be shared by future residents."

The measure, they said, would make possible purchase of four acres at Bolinas School, six new classrooms at Bolinas, repair of the old Bolinas building and more efficient teaching, administration, maintenance and operation of a single school site after Stinson Beach School is phased out.

No argument was submitted against the measure.

Isolation In Prison Stabbing

A 21-year-old San Quentin inmate was locked in an isolation cell at the prison today pending further investigation into the fatal stabbing of a fellow prisoner.

Herman D. Brown was chief suspect in the murder of Bill Gene Cook, 29, with a prison-made knife during a fight Saturday, said Associate Warden Homer J. Hastings.

Cook had been released from his cell in the south block with other prisoners for the afternoon meal when he was attacked at 2:35 p.m. He died in the prison hospital of chest wounds about half an hour later.

The victim was serving a six months to life term for first degree robbery in Sacramento County and a six months to five years term for destroying prison property in Monterey County. He had been at San Quentin since July 20, 1962.

Brown suffered minor stab wounds in the fight and was treated at the prison hospital. He had been at San Quentin since April 28, 1965, on a six months to 10 years sentence for assault with a deadly weapon in San Joaquin County.

Bizzare Weekend Of LSD 'Trips'

Two men who claimed they were on LSD "trips" gave Larkspur police a bizarre weekend.

One ran naked through the streets, his progress reported to police by a series of telephone calls from amazed residents.

The other battled mightily to escape from the police car after he was picked up.

Police arrested Rodney Davenport, 23, of San Francisco, yesterday at 5:30 p.m. when they found him standing naked at Magnolia and Onyx avenues, after a series of phone calls reported his progress through town.

Gary R. Orchard, 23, of 23 Midway Road, Larkspur, was arrested at 11:45 p.m. Saturday when police found him in an incoherent state at Garden Way and Heather Way.

Stanley C. Kerk of 223 Magnolia Avenue called police at 4:50 p.m. yesterday to report that a man had climbed a wall into his yard, told him "I am going to kill you," then hit him on the jaw, knocking off his glasses. Kerk said the man then jumped a fence and fled.

A few minutes later, Ingrid D. Diaz of 10 La Rosa Way called police to report that a man wearing only slacks had been kneeling, apparently praying, on the tennis courts of Larkspur-Corte Madera School, and that he had grabbed a young girl and held her up in his arms. Mrs. Diaz said she

Narcotics Raid Nets Arrest Of Marinites

Keith R. Goldsmith, 23-year-old son of U.S. Commissioner Richard S. Goldsmith of Mill Valley, was arrested on narcotics charges Saturday night that resulted from a warrant signed by his own father.

Young Goldsmith, who is known as Kit and lives at the family home at 21 Birch Avenue, Mill Valley, was one of eight persons — two from Sausalito — arrested in a raid on a San Francisco apartment by state narcotics agents.

They bore a federal warrant issued by Commissioner Goldsmith, sharging sale of LSD.

Goldsmith was arrested in the apartment of Darrow K. Erlin, 22, on Los Palmos Drive in San Francisco when state narcotics agents burst in and arrested everyone there.

Agents said they found LSD and other drugs in the apartment.

Besides Erlin and Goldsmith, also arrested were: Erlin's wife, Eloise, 21; Catlain H. Cisco, 25; Dona L. Humt, 25; of Sausalito; Robert B. Babon, 26, who lives with the Erlins; Donald A. Fredriksson, 40, of Sausalito and Roderick W. Miller, 24, of San Francisco.

Commissioner Goldsmith said today he was attending a wedding reception at midnight Saturday when his son called from jail.

His son told him he had been studying for his final examinations at Stanford University when a man he knew only as "Shawn" telephoned. The two had discussed lighting previously and Shawn offered to give young Goldsmith some literature on lighting, he said.

(Kid Goldsmith travelled to Europe in 1963 with a San Francisco theater group as a behind-the-scenes man on lighting.)

When young Goldsmith went to "Shawn's" apartment the narcotics agents arrived and arrested everyone, he told his father.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Powell's Pulpit–Steps Of Hotel

BIMINI, Bahamas (AP)—Adam Clayton Powell delivered his "victory speech" on Palm Sunday but not to his huge congregation at Harlem's Abyssinian Baptist Church.

Powell

Instead of a pulpit, Powell spoke from the white coral steps of the Bimini Hotel. The message was brotherly love.

Some 72 hours before he delivered the sermon, Powell announced he had "reluctantly" decided against returning to Harlem for Palm Sunday. He said he was staying on the island because he feared his possible arrest in New York would bring violence and rioting.

At the Harlem church about 10 members of a black nationalist group who call themselves "Mau Mau" stalked out when the associate pastor, David N. Licorish, warned of "extremist elements in our midst."

The Mau Mau members had distributed leaflets at the door proclaiming their readiness to "prevent Adam Clayton Powell's arrest."

Vote Deaths

DJIBOUTI, French Somaliland (AP)—At least three Africans were killed today as French troops and armored cars shot their way into Djibouti's Somali quarter to smash a demonstration protesting yesterday's vote to keep this territory linked to France.

Police reported leaders of the anti-French, Pro-independence Party Movement were arrested. A party spokesman said those arrested included the party's president, Moussa Idris, and 12 members of the territorial assembly.

Call Unlikely

NEW YORK (AP)—The director of the New York City Selective Service System said today that although actor George Hamilton had been reclassified 1A, it is "very unlikely" he would be called for active service because of his age, 27.

Folk Music In

Taking Rest

ST. JOHN, Virgin Islands (UPI)—Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson was half a world away from her husband today to relax in the lazy Caribbean sun. She was to rejoin the President at their Texas ranch next weekend.

Not Meningitis

FORT ORD (AP) — Pvt. Michkal Aus, 23, of Tacoma, Wash., died Saturday of meningococemit, a disease Fort Ord authorities said was not meningitis but which could lead to it.

Flood Toll

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP)—Thirty-three bodies have been found following floods and landslides in the city of Caraguatatuba and the toll may increase, Sao Paulo State's governor said last night.

A Jewish Gift

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Two bishops presented a Jewish congregation on Palm Sunday with the religious symbols that traditionally are fixed to the door posts by Jewish families as a sign of their faith.

Bishops of the state's Catholics and Episcopalians, clad in brilliant, identically colored purple robes, fastened sterling silver mezuzahs to the pillars of the modern new synagogue built by Beth Israel congregation, Jackson's only Jewish assembly.

A mezuzah is a container holding parchment inscribed with lines of verses from Deuteronomy.

Jackie Upset

ACAPULCO, Mexico (AP)—Mrs. John F. Kennedy was reported upset yesterday when a boatload of photographers cruised close to the private home where she is vacationing. The photographers reportedly appeared while Mrs. Kennedy was having breakfast beside the pool.

Girls Retract Saint's Message

SANTANDER, Spain (AP) — After a series of meetings with Roman Catholic Church officials, four teen-age farm girls have retracted their story that they talked regularly with the Virgin Mary and the archangel St. Michael.

Conchita Gonzalez, who spoke for the girls, told about 1,000 persons last June 18 she had received an important message from St. Michael. Then she led the crowd into a wooded area and had a 10-minute ecstasy during which, she said later, she saw and talked with the archangel.

Anti-Maoists Kill Farmers, Paper Says

HONG KONG (AP) — More than 200 farmers in Wei An, in Fukien Province, were killed when pro-Mao Tse-tung troops opened fire on anti-Maoists, the anti-Communist New Life Evening Post reported today.

Quoting arrivals from Foochow, the capital of Fukien, the paper said the anti-Maoist farmers stormed a commune in Wei An to steal grain.

In protest against "the Communist troop brutality," the paper said, farmers in Wei An refused to go to the fields for spring planting.

The newspaper report could not be confirmed by other sources here.

The Hong Kong Star reported a Communist gunboat had captured 40 anti-Maoists trying to flee from Canton to Hong Kong in a boat. The English language newspaper said the information came from wall posters in Canton.

The pro-Mao New China News Agencu claimed widespread support for a Maoist order for the Chinese army to intervene in China's industry.

The order was issued Sunday, accompanied by hints it was designed to oust anti-Maoists entrenched in the nation's major industries. The army was ordered earlier to take a similar role on farms to help sow the spring crop.

Manchester Declines JFK Report Offer From Warren

COMBINED AP & UPI

NEW YORK — Author William Manchester says he refused an invitation by chief Justice Earl Warren to declare that the findings of the Warren Commisison on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy were acceptable to the Kennedys because he felt 'it would be improper."

Manchester, writing in the goes on newsstands tomorrow, issue of Look magazine which gives his account of the story behind the controversy surrounding his book, "The Death of a President."

"Unknown to the press," Manchester writes, "the chief justice had given me security clearance and a desk in the commission's VFW Building offices. There, I had immediate access to all testimony, documents, exhibits and depositions.

"Rather cannily, I thought, the chief justice had also invited me to read a first draft of the report and declare, as a friend of the family, that its findings were acceptable to the Kennedys in every respect.

"Although I had cooperated with him in other ways, I demurred, explainign that I felt it would be improper. I was, after all, a private citizen, and my own inquiry had far to go.

"Unlike Mr. Mark Lane, I also declined an invitation to testify, giving the same reason. I refused to rush to judgment in 1964. More to the point, however, I was working a new and entirely different line."

Lane is the author of "Rush to Judgment," a book critical of the Warren Commission report.

Manchester has stated that he agrees with the main conclusion of the Warren Commission that Lee Harvey Oswald assassinated President Kennedy without accomplices.

In the same article, Manchester says that Mrs. John F. Kennedy at first believed the book, "The Death of a President," would be disregarded by the American public, bound in black and set aside to collect dust on dark library shelves.

She had little inkling the book she commissioned to tell the story of her husband's assassination and the turmoil of governmental change would create an international furor. When the tumult erupted, author William Manchester said "unbelievable charges were made, unforgiveable words spoken and treasured friendships ruptured."

He also accused the former First Lady of inciting Sen. Robert F. Kennedy into a "tigerlike" rage to a point where he demanded the project be abandoned. This in spite of the fact, Manchester said, that both Mrs. Kennedy and the senator had given him written assurances they would not try to censor the manuscript.

Manchester said Mrs. Kennedy "blazed high as a bonfire" before the recent court battle over deletions she demanded from the text. And the author said that was early as mid-1964, he found it "almost impossible to establish any satisfactory professional contact" with either the widow or the senator.

But Manchester retained his admiration and praise of Mrs. Kennedy.

Long after the controversy surrounding the book is forgotten, Manchester said, history would recall that "in our hour of disgrace and confusion, Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy, who had lost more than any of us, held us all together, remained true to the leader we had lost, and, in kindling that Arlington flame, rekindled our national pride."

Tougher Wedding Law In Russia

MOSCOW (AP) — To combat a rising divorce rate, the Soviet government is experimenting with making it tougher to get married.

The magazine Nedelya — Week — said the two-week waiting period between the application for marriage papers and the wedding will be extended to six months in the cities of Vilnius and Minsk.

The six-month period was tried out in one wedding palace in Vilnius, the magazine said, and 146 couples decided not to get married after all.

Red Terrorists Deaths Reported

Thanom told his weekly news conference that one government soldier was killed and two were wounded.

Meet Ollie Stafford
He sells insurance
He reads 2,616 words per minute
He is not skimming

"Last June, my back was against the wall," says Ollie.

"As a general agent selling insurance, I had to read and act upon a stack of detailed correspondence a foot high every Monday morning, keep up with 150 pages of technical bulletins on tax and law every week—and still spend eight hours a day in the field. I was swamped by my reading."

Now, Ollie breezes through his business reading in an hour a day, reads eight to ten news magazines from cover to cover every week, and has found time to take two professional courses in insurance underwriting—each equivalent to a full semester of college work.

There is nothing miraculous about this change in Ollie's reading ability. He is not a naturally fast reader or an unusually gifted person. Ollie was one of 20,000 Bay Area students of the Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics Institute.

When Ollie enrolled in Reading Dynamics last June, he was reading difficult material at 292 words per minute as measured by the nationally recognized Nelson-Denny standardized reading test. At the end of the eight-week course, the test showed that he could read 2,616 wpm on difficult material—over eight times faster than his starting speed! On novels and other light reading, his rate was far higher.

No Skimming

"More important than speed," says Ollie, "is that my comprehension of the written material is better than ever before. Not only do I finish my business reading in one eighth the time it used to take, I understand and remember much more, even on the most detailed technical material. The Reading Dynamics method is not a skimming technique."

Increased Enjoyment, Too

"My new reading ability means that I can catch up on my pleasure reading, too. Now, I read an average novel every noon in about thirty minutes—and I really enjoy the stories. I become so involved that I feel that I am almost there, witnessing the action."

Our Guarantee To You

Ollie Stafford was one of our better students. You may not learn to read quite as fast as Ollie (and then again you might!), but the Reading Dynamics Institute guarantees that you will at least triple your reading efficiency during the eight-week course—or receive a full tuition refund. Reading efficiency combines rate and comprehension, not speed alone.

Discovered By A Utah Schoolteacher

Evelyn Wood first observed dynamic reading 18 years ago when a university professor read her term paper at an amazing 6,000 words a minute.

Mrs. Wood's curiosity caused her to look for other exceptional readers, and over the next few years, she found 50 people who could read faster than 1,500 words a minute, with fine comprehension, outstanding recall, and great reading satisfaction. She was now sure it was possible to read faster than anyone had thought, but the question of how was not yet answered. It took eight years of toil and research, working with "natural" fast readers before she developed a technique whereby average people learn to read 3 to 10 times faster.

The first Reading Dynamics Institute was opened in Washington, D.C. in September, 1959. Since that time institutes have been opened in 67 cities throughout the country, and over 250,000 people have now taken the course.

Come To Our Free Demonstration

You will see a documented film that includes actual interviews with Washington Senators who have taken the course.

You will see a Reading Dynamics graduate read at amazing speeds from a book he has never seen before and then tell in detail what he has read.

You will learn how we can help you to faster reading, with improved comprehension, greater recall.

Five former fighter pilots, who flew propeller-driven aircraft for Britain in the early days of World War II, got a supersonic ride yesterday from Hamilton Air Force Base.

They were members of the American Eagle squadrons who flew with the British Royal Air Force during the Battle of Britain and later were transferred to the U. S. Army Air Corps.

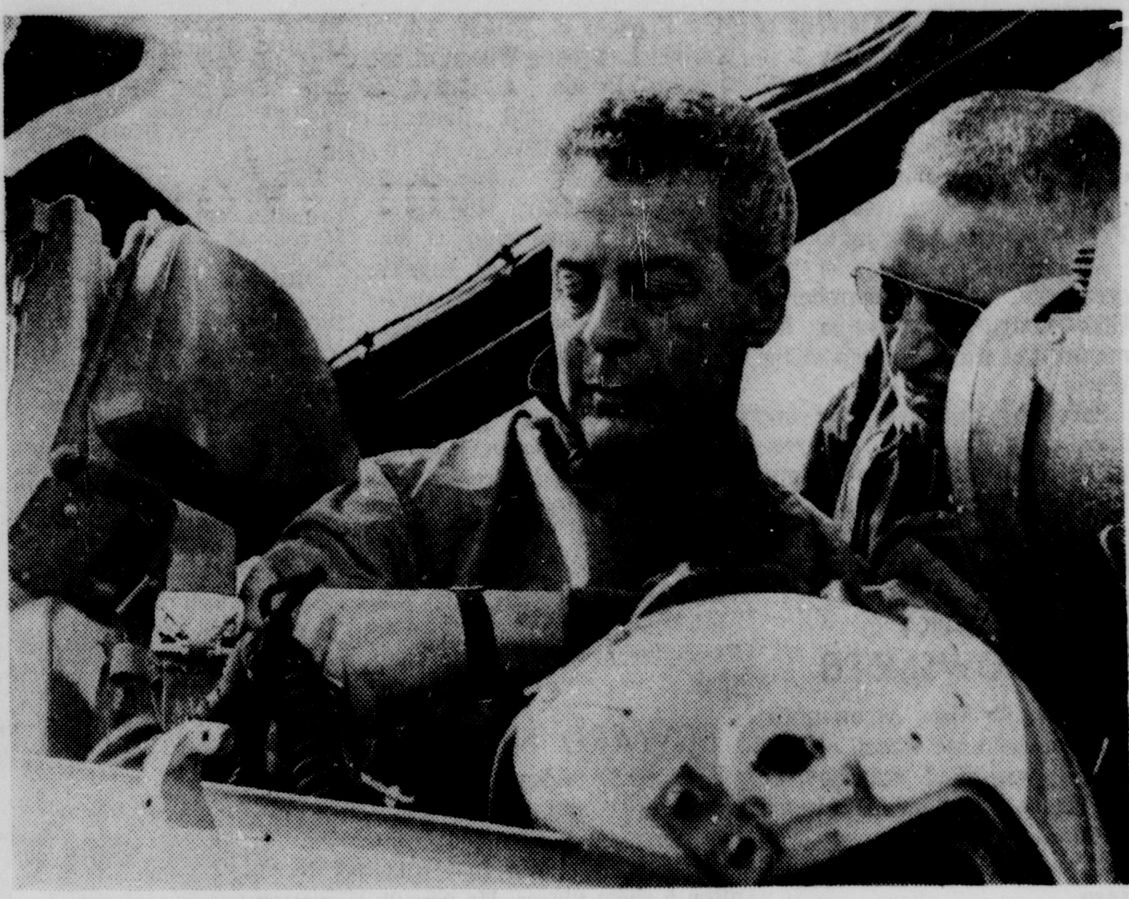
As a fitting close to a weekend reunion, five stalwarts went aloft as passengers in F-101s piloted by members of the 84th Fighter Interceptor Squadron, the operational fighter unit at the base.

Among them was Nathaniel Marans of 2312 Spanish Trail Road, Tiburon, who flew with Capt. Mike Williams, a veteran of 100 missions in North Vietnam.

A little greyer and a little heavier than they were in their flying days, the Eagles squeezed into parachute rigging, got fitted for helmets and oxygen masks, and were checked out on a flight simulator before taking off.

Then they zoomed down the runway at speeds unheard of in their flying days and soared out of sight.

Maj. Gen. Carroll W. McColpin, a former Eagle Squadron commander and now head of the Fourth Air Force, was host to the reunion.



READY FOR TAKEOFF—Nathaniel Marans of Tiburon, who flew British Spitfires before U.S. entry in World War II, gets final word from Capt. Stuart G. Hoyt of 84th Fighter Intercepor Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base before takeoff in F-101 jet fighter.

PEORIA, Ill. (UPI) —The fifth week of the trial of Richard Speck on charges of killing eight nurses began today with four jurors and two alternates needed to complete the panel.

Five men and three women have been seated as jurors and sequestered at Peoria's Hotel Pere Marquette.

Ripon Society Weighs Reagan's Ambitions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The suspicion is dawning on some moderate Republicans that conservative Gov. Ronald Reagan of California may be more than a favorite son candidate for the 1968 GOP presidential nomination.

Latest to acknowledge this is the Ripon Society, a mostly privately financed organization of young Republicans who class themselves as liberals.

'SERIOUS BID'

The Ripon group says in its current "Forum" publication that "signs of a serious presidential bid by California Gov. Ronald Reagan are multiplying quickly." It said he may become the favorite son of several Western states, in addition to entering presidential primaries.

Suggesting that Reagan might inherit Southern support if former Vice President Richard M. Nixon fails to make the nomination grade, the "Forum" added: "It is not unthinkable that a convention with more Southern delegates than the one which nominated Barry Goldwater would give its endorsement to the even more charismatic Reagan."

Reagan has said he will be a favorite son candidate in California but won't campaign outside the state. He will not, however, ask for removal of his name in states where there are free-for-all primaries, he has said.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower said when he met Reagan in Palm Springs, recently that the California governor is qualified for the nation's top job.

'I ADMIRE MOST'

"There are a number of men who would make fine presidents in our party," Eisenhower said. "Gov. Reagan is one of the men I admire most in the world."

Eisenhower went on to say that he and Reagan had discussed Vietnam. The governor has called for an all-out military effort.

Eisenhower's comment was: "I believe in winning wars or settling them as soon as we can on an honorable basis."

Bureacratic Error Leaves Faces Red

STUART, Fla. (AP) — The joy with which officials broke ground for a $48,000 Martin County Courthouse addition turned to chagrin recently when they found the county did not own the land.

"This," said County Engineer Fred L. Bell in a masterpiece of understatement, "sabotages the whole project from the ground floor up."

Hippies Join The Chalk-In

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Hippies from San Francisco's Haight - Ashbury District sprawled on the sidewalks yesterday at the city's invitation to a "chalk-in."

The Recreation and Park Department supplied the chalk, in colors, and invited hundreds of hippies to make a "carpet of color" out of the paved panhandle to Golden Gate Park. Each artist was assigned a four-foot square area.

One colorful design called for "flower power." Slogans were popular. A huge one-eyed bird in one panel carried a pink flower in its beak and said, "Understanding Stops Action." An abstract panel suggested, "Go Navy, Join Now."

This Ghostly Plant Turns Black At Touch

By SCIENCE SERVICE

Gleaming with an eerie translucent whiteness in the dim twilight of northern forests, the Indian pipe is one of nature's most fascinating plants.

The ghostly white plants, which cannot be picked or even handled without turning black, are members of the Wintergreen family and can be found throughout the United States and Canada.

Lacking the green chlorophyl that most other plants use to manufacture their food, Indian pipes derive their minerals and water directly from the living cells of a fungus.

Botanists are finding that this fungus is so closely wrapped around the root system of the Indian pipe that no part of the root comes in contact with the soil.

This makes the plant either a parasite, deriving its nourishment from a living organism, or a symbiotic plant, which gives as well as receives essentials of life from another plant.

By no means is it called a saprophyte, as people used to think, since it does not derive its nutrition from the dead or dying organisms of leaves.

The white succulent plant, Monotropa uniflora, grows from a mat of entangled fibrous rootlets that exist under the forest ground. Several stems push up through the twigs and leaves to a height of three to nine inches, each stem terminating with an inverted white or pale salmon-pink flower, its cup turned downward toward earth.

This resembles the fragile long-stemmed white clay pipes smoked by the colonialists in the early 17th century. As soon as the flower is fertilized, its cup turns straight up toward the sky.

The plants begins to turn brown and finally jet black as the numerous tiny seeds develop.

Indian pipes also turn black quickly and permanently if picked or if exposed to sunlight.

was "kicked out of my house because of an argument with my father." He said he stayed with the Zimmermans, but learned they were going to petition the court for custody of the children because they felt the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sidbeck of San Anselmo, were not treating them properly.

Sidbeck said he went to the dairy farm the morning of Aug. 29, and argued with Zimmerman in the barn over the petition.

That night he returned to the farm, he said, and argued again over the petition. He went out to a bridge and waited until "one or two o'clock" in the morning, he said, then entered the Zimmermans' bedroom.

The floor creaked, he related, and he picked up a table leg in a corner near the bedroom door. He said Zimmerman raised in bed, and asked, "Who's there?"

"I grabbed the table leg and hit him as he was getting up," Sidbeck's statement confirmed. "He slumped back onto the bed, and Margaret (Mrs. Zimmerman) said 'What? What?'

"I reached over Everett and hit her three or four times," Sidbeck continued. He said he took a flashlight hanging nearby and began a search for the petition. "Everett started to mumble or something," he said, "So I went back and hit him again. Then Margaret stirred, and I hit her again, too."

He said he failed to find the petition. He took Zimmerman's car, put the table leg and a stolen bicycle he had ridden to the ranch in it and drove to San Francisco. There he abandoned the car and bike after putting the table leg in a garbage can.

Estes said Sidbeck steadfastly denied robbing the Zimmermans, although it was established that wallets of both persons were missing.

The officer said there is no evidence that the Zimmermans sought to gain custody of the Sidbeck children.

"The motivation for a crime of this magnitude and gravity remains a mystery," he reported. He said the record shows the Zimmermans to be "warm and generous people with a genuine affection and concern for children."

Sidbeck was arrested at his Marine Corp base in Memphis, Tenn., after investigators connected him to the crime by a sweatshirt found on the farm and blood-stained pants left with a friend.

He pleaded innocent and innocent by reason of insanity, and was scheduled for trial when he changed his plea to guilty Feb. 27. He has been in jail without bail since Oct. 7. The murder weapon was never found.

Sedan Found

screamed at him and he put down the girl who was not identified.

At 5:24 p.m., John S. Jenkins of 16 Onyx Avenue called to report that a nude man had knocked at his door, then lay down screaming on his lawn. Jenkins said that as he was calling police the man was trying to steal his Volkswagen.

Police found Davenport standing naked in the Magnolia-Onyx avenues intersection, with his arms outstretched. According to the police report, Davenport was screamiing "that he was Jesus Christ" and "our salvation is at hand."

'The subject obviously had no identification," the police report noted, but he gave police his name. When they tried to cover him and put him in the patrol car, he became violent and had to be handcuffed, officers said.

As they started to put him in the car, he kicked Patrolman J. Scott Waterman in the groin and ran. Police caught him, took him to the county jail and then to Napa State Hospital for a 72-hour emergency committment. He told police this was his "39th acid trip and his worst one."

In the Saturday night incident, police found Orchard incoherent "but co-operative" at Garden and Heather ways, after his mother, Mrs. J. R. Orchard, called to say she thought he was on drugs.

He told police he was on an "LSD trip." "When officers asked him to get in the patrol car, he got into the back seat and closed the door. Police said he then unzipped his trousers and tried to get back out of the car. When he discovered he could not open the back door, he climbed into the front seat and tried to push out a window with his feet, police said.

He was then handcuffed, taken to the county jail, and then to Napa State Hospital, also on a 72-hour emergency committment.

NESTING TIME

Buzzards, Swallows Return

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, (AP) — The swallows are back at Mission San Jaun Capistrano for their 176th summer.

The birds arrived yesterday from their winter quarters in Argentina on the traditional day, St. Joseph Day, a Roman Catholic religious holiday.

Only once in 177 years did the swallows not appear, mission fathers say. About 60 years ago, they were two days late because of bad weather over the West Coast.

The swallows usually begin their flight back to their nesting quarters on Oct. 23.

HINCKLEY, Ohio (UPI) —No one knows if the buzzards first came to watch the people or if it was the other way around.

Anyway, the buzzards returned yesterday for the 150th year, to their summer home in the cliffs and caverns of old Whipp's Lodges near here.

The people were just as tenacious.

Between 20,000 and 30,000 drove aroud the area yesterday looking for the birds, according to Donald F. Maatz, president of the Hinckley Chamber of Commerce.

"Some came from New York, Illinois, and even California to look," he said.

Some 2,300 stayed long enough to partake of a pancake dinner in Hinckley. Maatz even gave up his prize recipe for feeding buzzard watchers.

"You take 1,300 pounds of sausage, 550 pounds of pancake flour, 70 gallons of syrup, 80 pounds of butter, 6,000 cups of coffee.

Phoenix Crew Given Warnings On Laws

HONG KONG (AP) — Seven American pacifists were officially warned today that they would be breaking U.S. laws if they sailed their yacht into North Vietnam's port of Haiphong with cargo of medical supplies.

Dr. Earle Reynolds, 59, owner of the yacht Phoenix and spokesman for the group, replied that the pacifist group would attempt the trip anyway "for humanitarian reasons."

Also sailing on the yacht is Philip Drath of San Rafael.

The warning, issued by U.S. consulate officials, also informed the group that their plan would take them into a hazardous area which they would enter at "your own responsibility and your own risk."

The Phoenix, Reynolds told newsmen, would carry about $10,000 worth of medical supplies contributed by American quakers to North Vietnamese victims of American bombing.

A U.S. consulate general official warned Reynolds and the others that:

Their passports were not valid for travel to or through North Vietnam or Communist China and that "penalties existed" for use of their passports in violation of that invalidity.

It is unlawful for any U.S. national to "engage in any unlicensed transactions with North Vietnam, including furnishing of any goods or services."

It is unlawful for any United States-documented ship to sail to North Vietnam or to take on cargo destined for North Vietnam.

In his reply to the warning, Reynolds said that a portion of the U.S. taxes paid by members of the group had been used to purchase bombs being dropped on North Vietnam by American war planes.

"Therefore," he said, "we consider it a humanitarian duty to deliver medical supplies for the aid of victims on those bombs."

Reynolds told newsmen the Phoenix expected to leave in mid-week for Haiphong. He said the voyage would take four or five days.

It's Rest, Relaxation For Conspiracy Figure

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Clay L. Shaw, destined for trial on a charge of conspiring to assassinate President John F. Kennedy, rested in a hospital bed today.

Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison, who contends that a conspiracy in NEW ORLEANS—145 graf 2 New Orleans lead to the murder of President Kennedy in Dallas, indicated he would file a bill of information this week.

The bill is but a technical step in the legal procedure toward bringing Shaw to trial.

No trial date has been set for Shaw, 54, a decorated World War II Army major and retired business leader. Shaw entered Southern Baptist Hospital here Saturday. His attorneys said it was solely "for rest and relaxation."

Garrison's case against Shaw came out last week in the preliminary hearing, when a dope addict and an insurance salesman placed Shaw with Lee Harvey Oswald weeks before the president's death.

Perry Russo, 25, a Baton Rouge insurance salesman, testified he attended a party at which he says he heard Shaw, who was introduced to him as "Clem Bertrand," plot with Oswald and David W. Ferrie to slay Kennedy.

Vernon Bundy Jr., 29, a stocky, paroled drug addict, told the court he was preparing a shot of heroin when he saw Shaw meet Oswald at the Lake Pontchartrain seawall and pass over "what looked like a wad of money."

Service Center Discussion Set

Novato Unified School District trustees will discuss construction of a district administration and service center in a meeting at 8 p.m. today in the administration building.

The board will be asked to call for bids for the Wilson Avenue Junior High School site development, and hear a report on mathematics and reading programs.

Office Hours Cut For Easter Holiday

The Terra Linda Recreation-Park District office at 670 Del Ganado Road will be open only from 10 a.m. to noon this week because of the Easter holiday.

MILK DUMPING PROTEST TO LOW PRICES

A Pennsylvania dairy farmer and his three sons dump out 155 gallons of milk in support of a 25-state drive to hold back milk from markets in an effort to drive up prices. This morning, as holding action entered its fifth day, officials halted trucks carrying milk to Detroit after an anonymous telephone call warned of possible poisoning. In other areas, milk trucks moved to market in armed convoys for protection against violence from sympathizers of the National Farmers Organization, leader of the protest. (AP Wirephoto)

Trio Injured In Collision Of Two Autos

Three persons were injured in a two-car collision on Highway 101, about one-half mile north of the Terra Linda overpass, at 12:30 a.m. yesterday.

California Highway Patrol officers reported that a car driven by Thomas Alan Lenhart, 29 of 103 First Street, San Rafael, traveling at high speed, hit the rear of a northbound car driven by Judith Genevieve Porter, 36, of 212 Hillside Drive, Fairfax.

Lenhart suffered a cut chin and possible concussion. He was in good condition today in Marin General Hospital.

Cynthia Johnson, 37, of 79 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael, who was riding with Lenhart, suffered facial cuts and was in fair condidion today in Marin General Hospital. Officers reported that she is the owner of the car Lenhart was driving.

Claude Beaver, 36, of Burge's Apartments, Ignacio, a passenger in the Porter car, was treated at the same hospital for cuts of the neck and scalp.

Rasnick Trial Set; No Venue Change

OAKLAND (UPI) —A change of venue was denied today for Ben Rasnick, Oakland, accused of the murder of Painters Union official Lloyd Green of Hayward.

Superior Judge Redmond C. Staats issued the denial and ordered Rasnick to face trial as scheduled April 3.

The jurist also ordered the district attorney's office to allow defense attorney Edward L. Merrill access to all evidence to prepare for the trial.

Merrill had asked for the change of venue on grounds a fair and impartial trial would be difficult in Alameda County because of prejudice caused by "inflammatory publicity in local newspapers."

Green was killed last year shortly after union leader Dow Wilson, San Francisco, was slain in gangland fashion. Rasnick, a regional union official, was charged with masterminding both slayings.

A jury failed to reach a verdict in Rasnick's trial in the Wilson slaying and he will face a retrial after the Green trial.

Clothing Taken

Clothing hanging on a rack over the rear seat of his vehicle, parked in front of 65 Fairfax Street, San Rafael, was stolen Saturday, owner Donald J. Staples of Mar Vista, Los Angeles County, told police. He estimated the loss at $285.

Humphrey Visit To Bonn Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey will visit West Germany and perhaps some other European countries later this month, informed sources said today.

The vice president will go to Bonn, the West German capital, to attend the March 28-31 conference of American ambassadors stationed in Western European countries.

He also will meet with top officials of the West German government, including Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger, sources said.

Kerr To Decide Soon On Offer

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Dr. Clark Kerr says he will decide "in the reasonably near future" on whether to accept a reported $30,000 a year professorship at the University of California's Berkeley campus.

Kerr, fired as president of the university last January, was honored at a private dinner last night by student leaders from U.C.'s nine campuses. The rousing welcome from the students brought tears to his eyes.

"I have some wonderful offers from around the country," he said. "People have been very generous. At the same time, I'm devoted to the University of California."

Judge Grants Execution Stay For Murderer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Convicted murderer Edmund Earl Reeves, 28, scheduled to die March 28 in the San Quentin gas chamber, was granted a stay of execution today by U.S. District Judge William T. Sweigert.

Judge Sweigert set May 1 for a hearing on Reeves' claim that he was denied a fair trial and was not adequately represented by his court-appointed attorney, James Meeks.

"An evidentiary hearing is not only justified, but required," Judge Sweigert said.

Reeves was convicted of the 1965 slaying of an oil field worker in Bakersfield.

The judge said that Reeves' story of the slaying was never presented to the court, except as a statement by his own attorney. Reeves had pleaded innocent by reason of insanity.

Judge Sweigert said that on Aug. 17, 1965 after Reeves had been placed on San Quentin's Death Row, he gave a written statement for purposes of his appeal in which he said he was jumped by the man he fatally shot and fired his gun because he feared for his life.

The only evidence considered by the trial judge at the sentencing hearing was the grand jury transcript of Paul Pugh's statement of the shooting. Pugh was a companion of the slain man.

Finally, at about 4:30 p.m., Tommy was seen from a tree by Doug Rice, 10, of 401 Hilary Drive, Tiburon. Doug was visiting the Vogelheims with his parents when Tommy was missed shortly after lunch.

Ruby's Pistol Is Offered To Archives

DETROIT, Mich. (UPI)—Jack Ruby's heirs have agreed to give the pistol with which he killed Lee Harvey Oswald to the National Archives in Washington, it was announced today.

Earl Ruby, brother of Jack and newly-named executor of the will, said the National Archives also would be offered the suit and hat Ruby wore when he shot Oswald, killer of President John F. Kennedy.

Alan Adelson, attorney for the estate, said Ruby's three brothers and three sisters had agreed to use Ruby's first will, written in 1950, and drop two later ones including one dictated from his death bed.

The latter will included a statement that Ruby acted alone in killing Oswald, did not know him and was not part of any conspiracy. Adelson said the first will was chosen instead because the latter two were of doubtful legal validity.

Adelson said Ruby's pistol, a snub-nosed colt revolver, "is worth maybe $50,000 to a collector." But he said the family had agreed to give it to the National Archives. Earl Ruby confirmed this.

Embarcadero Center Backed By Neighbor

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Developers of the proposed Embarcadero Center had the "green light" from their major neighbor today to proceed with construction.

After a weekend meeting with officials of the Golden Gateway Center they issued a joint statement which said:

"While all differences are not resolved the Golden Gateway partners felt that the advantages of getting the Embarcadero Center built outweighed the disadvantages presented by certain of its features."

One of the main differences was proposed amendments to the city's Redevelopment Plan that would lift the height restrictions of the Embarcadero Center's buildings and also permit building setback variances.

The Golden Gateway was restricted to 25 stories. However, the joint statement said Golden Gateway agreed to consent to amendments allowing Embarcadero Center buidlings to go as high as 60 stories.

The Embarcadero Center is headed by David Rockefeller and is envisioned as a "Rockefeller Plaza West."

Hoffa Aide Wins Eavesdropping Test

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Supreme Court today tossed out the conviction of a top Detroit aide to Teamster President James R. Hoffa because of admitted government eavesdropping.

With two justice dissenting, the Court held that eavesdropping tainted the trial of Charles (Chucky) O'Brien who was found guilty of charges of unlawfully removing merchandise from a bonded warehouse.

The majority ruling held that the Justice Department must either grant O'Brien a new trial or set him free. It was one of a number of cases in which the government has conceded eavesdropping on defendants in criminal cases.

OTHER ACTION

In other actions, the court:

Refused to consider an appeal by convicted draft evader David H. Mitchell III of Brooklyn who claimed he should have been allowed to try to show the United States was waging aggressive war in Vietnam. Justice William O. Douglas thought the case should have been heard.

Granted a hearing to Dennis M. Whitney, sentenced to death in Florida for a robbery-murder. Whitney's attorneys claimed that his controversial confession to six murders in Florida and Arizona were made in a television interview, prejudicing his trial.

Ruled that state prosecutors may not be compelled at preliminary hearings to give the name of a tipster who had led police to make an arrest.

O'BRIEN RULING

The ruling on the O'Brien case came two weeks after the Court turned down last-ditch appeals by Hoffa before he was sent to federal penitentiary to begin serving an eight year term for jury tampering.

Justices John M. Harlan and Potter Stewart dissented. They said it would be sufficient for a Detroit federal court to hold a hearing as to "the circumstances and effects" of the eavesdropping activities.

O'Brien and Thomas Parisi, a Detroit plumber, were convicted together. Parisi drew 18 months in jail and O'Brien a year and a day. They appealed when the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals affirmed the convictions on Aug. 30, 1966.

The Justice Department told the Supreme Court that neither man was the direct subject of electronic surveillance but that the FBI did install a microphone "by trespass" in a commercial establishment owned by an acquaintance of O'Brien. The acquaintance, the Department said, was "believed to be engaged in organized criminal activity."

Escalation Of War Seen

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A leading critic of U.S. Viet Nam policy predicts that President Johnson will escalate the conflict in hopes of amilitary victory before the 1968 national elections.

Hans J. Morgenthau, University of Chicago scholar, told a day-long seminar on Red China Saturday that President Johnson would probably lose the election "if the war continues at its present pace."

"Any respectable Republican candidate could campaign successfully on the statement that Johnson is incapable of winning the war or getting us out of it," said Morgenthau.

Hershey Sees No Trouble Installing Draft Lottery

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey said today a lottery system could be installed "with the greatest rapidity" into the Selective Service system for drafting 19-year-olds first.

Hershey, Selective Service director, testified at a Senate hearing that he anticipated no difficulties carrying out President Johnson's recommendations for revising draft rules. He noted that Johnson must first issue an executive order.

Appearing at the opening of draft hearings by a Senate Labor subcommittee, Hershey mentioned one possibility for incorporating a "random choice" selection—a lottery—into the system.

Under the concept he suggested, birth dates of 19-year-olds would be drawn, then names would be drawn alphabetically to provide priority within birth dates.

With respect to a lottery system, Hershey said, "There is nothing in the technique that will delay, materially, getting started." "When the quarterback calls the plays, that's the way I play it," said Hershey, in a clear reference to Johnson's planned changes in the system.

As to the concept of drafting the youngest eligibles first—19-year-olds before 25-year-olds—Hershey noted that it has been endorsed by the president, a presidential commission and a panel which made a draft study for the House Armed Services Committee.

Remember when you used to pay $33.00 to fly to Los Angeles?

Well, PSA changed all that. Now it's $11.43.

It's true. PSA pioneered low air fares. And what did it get us? Well, lots of passengers for one thing. Oh yes, and some competition from other airlines who were forced to lower their fares from time to time.

So what do we want—a medal? No, but it might be nice if you bought a ticket sometime. Especially since we still have the lowest air fares.

Electra Jets to Los Angeles, $11.43; San Diego $17.78. Fan Jets $13.50 and $19.85.

At last, a sports car for grown-ups—the Mercedes-Benz 230SL

At $6262, the Mercedes-Benz 230SL ranks among the world's great sports cars. Motor magazine describes roadholding as "uncanny." Yet the 230SL doesn't thunder, rattle, ride like an ox-cart or look like a rocket ship. It's a civilized two-seater built for normal adults, not acrobats. Read how the 230SL delivers all the pleasures of sports car driving—and none of the privations.

MANY driving enthusiasts feel the urge to own a sports car—but don't like to suffer their usual hardships and handicaps. A solution is at hand: the Mercedes-Benz 230SL. "In place of colossal maximum speed and breathtaking acceleration, the magic of this car lies instead in its refinement, comfort and superb road behavior," reports Autocar.

You can have your cake and eat it, too. The 230SL is supremely livable. And it runs rings around much of its sports car competition.

"There must be a limit, but on a dry road we never found it"

—Motor road test

The 230SL vaults from zero to 60 mph in 10 seconds. It reaches its peak only at 125 mph. But its most startling trait is its leechlike roadability.

Even a quick inspection shows why. The car stands a mere yard and a half high. Yet it straddles the road with a track five feet wide. Tires seem to bulge out from the body sides. Note: These aren't ordinary tires, but radial-ply design, specifically tailored to the car's speed, weight and handling traits.

All four wheels are linked to a fully independent suspension system, first proved on a world-championship Mercedes-Benz racing machine. This skillful engineering has eliminated any trace of a harsh "sports car ride" —as Autocar discovered: "When being really hurtled along, the 230SL sits down on the road beautifully, sweeping over bumps and undulations with the minimum of vertical movement and no sensation at all of wheels pattering up and down." No bone-jarring jolts; this is a civilized sports car—and with a wheelbase of less than 8 feet, an agile one. The 230SL nips and darts through dense city traffic like a whippet in a herd of buffalo.

No frazzled nerves

On the open road, the 230SL replaces the raucous bellow of most sports cars with a soothing hum. You can actually converse with your passenger in normal tones.

The major reason: a 6-cylinder, single overhead camshaft engine, with fuel injection replacing carburetors and hours of patient handwork to ensure running smoothness.

For example, pistons are machined to tolerances of .019 of a millimeter. Every engine is bench-tested for over an hour.

Superb stopping power

However vigorously you drive it, the 230SL cannot outrun its magnificent brakes.

Mercedes-Benz 230SL Roadster cockpit is designed for normal adults, not acrobats. Comfort is so complete that driver and passenger have separate heater and ventilation controls.

Up front are 9.9-inch disc brakes. Finned, 9.05-inch turbo-cooled drums act on the rear wheels. A gentle power assist transmits pedal pressure to these brakes—softly enough to avoid sudden lurching stops, strongly enough to deliver instant response.

A reassuring fact: Road & Track magazine has been testing all kinds of cars for almost 20 years. The 230SL holds the record for fast stopping times.

Strong and silent type

Many sports cars are intended as playthings—and built accordingly. The 230SL is meant to endure for years without showing its age.

Heavy gauge steel body panels are welded into a single, solid structure that can't rattle because it uses no nuts and bolts. After hand filing and buffing, this body is submerged in a 52-ton primer vat where every crevice gets a protective coating. After the primer coat is baked on, 24 pounds of permanent undercoating seals the underside. Engine, drive train and suspension are rubber cushioned to quell vibration. No wonder the car pounds over brutal surfaces without tremors, rattles or jolts.

In fact, the 230SL thrives on rough going. Competition driver Eugen Boehringer underscored the point. He slammed his 230SL over some of Europe's worst back roads in the Liége-Sofia-Liége Rally and he won.

Bring your wife

Take your wife on a test drive in the 230SL. She'll be hard put to find drawbacks.

For example, your passenger enjoys more forward legroom than in a Rolls-Royce. Seats are firmly upholstered, contoured chairs—not skimpy "buckets." You are sealed against wind gusts and cold with roll-up side windows and one of the tightest-fitting convertible tops ever devised.

Dual heater and ventilation controls let you select whatever interior climate you want, while your passenger does the same.

The 230SL even quashes that ancient complaint about sports car trunk space. A carpeted alcove behind the seats holds large parcels or small children. The trunk carries 12 cubic feet of luggage.

Note: Power steering and a 4-speed, automatic transmission are two of the few extra-cost options offered for the 230SL. Autocar sums them up succinctly: "We have never tried a more successful power steering, and the automatic transmission is also among the best in our experience."

Three cars in one

You can choose from three 230SL models: the soft-top Roadster, at $6262*; the hardtop Coupe, at $6420*; and the Roadster/Coupe, which gives you both tops, at $6665*.

"The detachable hardtop is so beautifully engineered that it doesn't look as though it should come off at all," comments Motor.

Other Mercedes-Benz motor cars: from $25,785 to $4,189*

Grand Mercedes 600	$25,785
300SE Coupe	11,916
250SE Convertible	10,004
250S Sedan	5,861
230S Sedan	5,018
230 Sedan	4,386
200 Diesel Sedan	4,418
200 Sedan	4,189

*West Coast port of entry, exclusive of options, state and local taxes if any.

A safe sports car

The 230SL's foremost safety feature is its incredible maneuverability. You can drive away from danger. But if trouble should occur, you are also well protected.

The car body itself is a patented safety feature. On violent impact, front and rear sections are designed to collapse to absorb shock. Inside, even the steering wheel hub is designed for safety. It is padded, not pointed. Lethal projections are absent. Door handles are recessed, control knobs are made of pliable materials, and the rearview mirror is spring mounted to snap off if struck.

The final proof

A small number of 230SL models are now available for immediate delivery. Come in soon and take a thorough test drive in the 230SL—the sports car for grown-ups.

Optional steel hardtop turns the 230SL into a snug, closed car.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson Hendricks of Garland, Tex.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white peau de lin and lace. The Empire lines of the gown accented the bateau neckline and short sleeves of lace.

Mrs. Robert C. Kelley, of North Plainfield, N.J., the bride's sister-in-law, was matron of honor and Jerry W. Putnam of Keene, Tex., served the bridegroom as best man.

The bridegroom was graduated from Union College in Lincoln, Neb.

Following a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, the couple will reside in San Rafael.

Steve Ervin of San Anselmo served the bridegroom as best man and ushering were Mark Dohrmann and Carl Sampson III of San Rafael, the bride's brothers.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Rafael Racquet Club. The bride was graduated from Los Altos High School and attended Foothill College. She is also the sister of Mark and Geof Dohrmann of San Rafael. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Claire Lynne of Tiburon and Mrs. Carl Sampson Sr. of Menlo Park.

Marinites Tour Bases, Installations

Three Marinites are among Bay Area women who returned Saturday from a five-day tour of military installations responsible for the aerospace defense of the United States.

They are Mrs. Henry D. Rothrock, a member of the executive committee and board of directors of the Marin County Chapter, American Red Cross; Mrs. Hazel Field Pauline of the San Rafael Toastmistress Club, both of Ross; and Mrs. Gregory A. Dunn of Sausalito, vocational counselor, George Washington High School.

The tour, called Operation Understanding, was sponsored by 6th Region, U. S. Army Air Defense Command headquartered at Fort Baker. It began Tuesday morning from Hamilton Air Force Base where the group was greeted by Maj. Gen. E. A. Chapman, commanding general 6th Region and Commander of Western North American Air Defense Command (NORAD).

The itinerary included visits to the Army Air Defense Center at Fort Bliss, Tex. and McGreggor Range in New Mexico for briefings and to witness the firing of the Army's Hawk and Nike Hercules missiles, and a tour of White Sands Missile Range.

From New Mexico, the party flew to Colorado Springs for briefings at ARADCOM headquarters, a visit to the NORAD combat operations center buried in the heart of Cheyenne Mountain, and a tour of the U. S. Air Force Academy.

For Finishing

When re-varnishing furniture, beware of dust, lint, and cold or humid air. These four culprits can sabotage a finishing job. Choose a warm, dry, well ventilated work area. Sand the furniture surface before each coat of varnish, removing all dust with clean, lint-free clothes.

FIRST PLACE winners in the Cotillion Competition for Northern California in San Mateo were Race Stowell and Cindy Pate of Novato. The young waltzers are students of Mrs. Bari Frohlich, director of the Junior Cotillion of Marin.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

'Told Everything' Mother May Have Sissy, Good Liar Or Diplomat Son

DEAR HELEN:

We were discussing the hazards of raising boys at our club the other day. One gal didn't make herself very popular with us by saying, "I have no problems—my son tells me everything."

Tell us, Helen, is she the world's best mother, (as she thinks), or is she getting a snow job?—SON-BURNED

DEAR SON-BURNED:

The woman who says, "My son tells me everything!" has raised either a 1) Mama's sissy-boy; 2) Good liar; or 3) Diplomat.

If number 3, he is simply omitting the items she's not quite ready for. She'll hear them bit-by-bit after he becomes a man and, man-like, starts reminiscing at family reunions.

. . .And she'll be so relieved she didn't know earlier!—H.

DEAR HELEN:

Your husband Bob and you deserve your well-known "ten lashes with your typewriter ribbon" for implying "Xmas" is a nickname.

The capital letter "X" stands for the first two letters in the name "Christ" from the Greek alphabet. It is usually coupled with "P" which is the Greek symbol of "r." The symbol "XP" is a very common emblem in ecclesiastical art. "Xmas," is an authentic abbreviation. It has been used since the days when Christianity (Xnity) was more than a social inconvenience. — SMARTER THAN YOU

DEAR STY:

Ten lashes duly delivered. But I still say even though the Greeks had a symbol for it, "Christ" should not be abbreviated either in writing or in our daily lives!—H.

DEAR HELEN:

I don't like to interfere, but our sweet, easygoing, kind hearted daughter seems so mixed up these days. She has been going with a boy who cuts her down at every opportunity.

In the year that they've been dating, he has:

1. Told her he wouldn't take her out to dinner on prom night because she's "too fat already." (She is about five pounds over normal weight.)

2. Stood her up repeatedly, always with some flimsy excuse.

3. Been late more than he's been early.

4. Never dressed in a suit or sport jacket, except on prom night—but always takes her out in the clothes he wears at school—a little on the wild side. (He has other clothes)

5. Eaten more meals from our refrigerator than he has treated her to elsewhere. In fact, he's never taken her out to eat—the reason always You're too fat."

6. Spent practically nothing on her—and he has the money.

7. Browbeaten her until she no longer has any self-confidence.

I don't know whether she really cares for him or is afraid of him. Should I just wait, or should I be a mean, tough mother and tell him, "Get lost"? —WORRIED MOM

DEAR MOM:

You should be a sympathetic, understanding mother, and let your daughter know she can talk it out with you until she straightens out her thinking. Sometimes in our eagerness not to interfere, we don't give our children enough support when they need it. I imagine she realizes she has a lemon but isn't sure how to get rid of him. Without being bossy—tell her! —H.

Could your readers please send cards and letters to a nine-year-old girl who will be in the hospital for another two months? She risked her life to save a friend. This friend ran across a busy highway, and Diane ran after her to stop her. She got the full impact of the car. Visits via mail would make the long days go faster for Diane Szadkowski, Room 486, Hackensack Hospital, Hackensack, New Jersey.

Thanks to everyone who will write. —HER SISTER

ORATORIO REVIEW

Christ's Passion Unfolds In Color

Colorful music and apparel for yesterday afternoon's performance of the oratorio "Christ Our Brother" in Angelico Hall provided a preview of how the Domincan College Chorale will look and sound Friday on the first color television program to originate in San Francisco.

The work is to be repeated at 1 p.m. as the Good Friday program of television station KPIX, Channel 5.

BAKER DIRECTOR

Directed by Winifred Baker, the chorale of 70 young women and seven soloists was joined by seven men from Miss Baker's own chorale and baritone Byron Jones.

Adding more color to piano accompaniments by Sharon Ravani, Mary Shymanski and Jean Stewart was an extraordinary guest instrumental group composed of Gene Stewart playing trumpet and guitar, 8-year-old Teresa Baune on the recorder, with Sister Mary Edward, O. P. in charge of tympani and other percussion.

The oratorio, dedicated to most Rev. Joseph T. McGucken, Archbishop of San Francisco, was written by Jolieta Ott Smith, choir director in a Los Angeles parish, with libretto by Gerard Cunningham, the parish priest. Yesterday's Palm Sunday performance marked the Northern California premiere of the second part of the oratorio dealing with the Passion of Christ.

JAZZ IDIOMS

Unlike any oratorio we have ever heard, this one ranged from jazz-like idioms to liturgical forms, but it was otherwise electric and derivative rather than original. It managed to sound modern without any dissonance, and there was some rtuly beautiful music and easily understood text that should make it popular. Its scope, however was too broad, starting with the creation of the world and ending with the resurrection.

In the generally excellent performance there was such good diction on the part of the chorus, soloists and narrator — Dominican College English professor and poet John Savant — that every word was understood, a rare experience for this kind of music.

Taking top bocal honors was Jones, whose voice was warm and resonant and imbued with deeply felt emotion, notably in "Herod's Decree," "Last Supper," and "The Crucifixion."

Other outstanding soloists were tenor John Gibb and sopranos Elizabeth Heffernan, Jacquelin Brown and Jacqueline McDonald. Jones, Gibb and bass Eugene Ramey formed a pleasing trio in "The Wise Men."

The chorus was particularly impressive in "The Mob Scene Before Pilate: Crucify Him!," the final "Alleluia," and some ethereal vocalizing is several passages.—M. P. S.

Rafferty Sees LSD As Problem

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Dealing with LSD will be the biggest problem in California education of the near-future, says the state superintendent of public instruction.

Dr. Max Rafferty told about 1,200 public school administrators yesterday that policies must be devised to combat the hallucinatory drug. He termed the problem "dry rot in the human soul."

Rafferty spoke at the opening session of the annual convention of the California Association of Secondary School Administrators.

CONCERT REVIEW

Nadas Gives Liszt Sonata Fine Reading

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Saturday night's program presented by virtuoso pianist Istvan Nadas in Angelico Hall, San Rafael, further advanced on its road to success the cultural arts project sponsored by the Council of Music and Arts.

The second in the series of concerts which opened last month with a fine recital by Marin operatic soprano Gwen Curatilo was attended by some 650 people, many of them children.

The purpose of the Council of Music and Arts, composed of representatives of the nine Dixie District schools, is to enrich the lives of children. This is done by devoting proceeds from the concert series to support cultural experiences for children.

In its choice of artists so far the council is indeed aiming high.

Nadas, who is an internationally acclaimed pianist, did not "play down" to his audience, for his program was, for the most part, a difficult one. It was chosen, with the exception of Beethoven, from the great romatics. It was, therefore, full of spell-binding melodies and technical brilliance, in works, of emotional depth and clarity of structure without the excesses of the romatic period.

Even the opening Beethoven Sonata in E Major, Opus 109, was from his last period, containing elements of romaticism in the best sense of the word. Nadas brought out its contemplative and songful qualities.

Ability to make the most of lyricism is one of Nadas' greatest gifts. His control of all harmonic components of a theme permits a single voice melody to sound almost like a vocal solo without words. This was especially marked in the langorous, dreamlike Schubert Impromptu in G Flat Major, Opus 90, No. 3.

For Chopin, too, this ability is essential, and his fantasy in F Minor, Opus 47, was very satisfying, though in a few measures, tempo seemed a trifle rushed.

In Liszt's monumental B Minor Sonata, Nadas re-created that composer's technical sorcery in a texture of such steely power and silken gossamer lightness that we believe Liszt himself must have sounded like this.

The children, with very few exceptions, were remarkably well behaved and the audience was ecstatic.

Nixon Advised To Read Marx

MOSCOW (AP)—A Red army major in Soviet central Asia told Richard M. Nixon today that instead of traveling around inquiring into political conditions he should stay home and read Karl Marx.

"You should get a textbook of Marxism and you'll find it has everything you need to know," the major, a member of an army theater group, said in a good-natured meeting at the airport in Samarkand.

Nixon, U.S. vice president under President Dwight D. Eisenhower, flew back to Moscow today from Samarkand, the medieval capital of Asian empires.

RFK, Fulbright Oregon Drive Set

NEW YORK (UPI) — Oregon has been added to the states where drives will be launched to draft Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York as the 1968 Democratic presidential candidate and Sen. J. William Fulbright of Arkansas as his running mate.

Former Oregon Rep. Charles O. Porter, now practicing law in Eugene, Ore., and F. Austin Colcord of Eugene, a former peace corpsman, have agreed to serve as co-chairmen of Citizens for Kennedy-Fulbright. The announcement was made yesterday by Dr. Martin Shepard, a Manhattan psychiatrist who is national coordinator of the drive.

DRAMA REVIEW

Shaw's Barbs Lost In ACT's Scissors

By KARL BARRON

SAN FRANCISCO — Hell, which George Bernard Shaw indicated in his "Man And Superman" is an infinitely preferable destination, must be resounding to his outraged howls over the American Conservatory Theater's presentation of his longest and most brilliant commentary on man — and woman.

Let me hasetn to say that William Ball's ebullient company at the Geary Theater has turned out a production with energy and sparkle. Under Jerome Kilty's direction, it seldom lags, although the acting is uneven. It is unquestionably good entertainment which holds up for three and a quarter hours, but much of the Shavian seed is plowed under in the furrows of ACTian earthines.s

I have no doubt that Kilty, Ball, whoever cut one-third of the five-hour script, did so with great reluctance, but in deference to audiences terrified at being asked to sit for such a long period. However, after welcome cuts of windy chaff in the first act, the "Don Juan In Hell" sequence is chopped to bits, with great portions of Lucifer's role deleted. This leaves us wondering at times what in Hell Don Juan is talking about.

Kilty allows most of his actors to play too broadly, so that Shaw's barbs anent the battle of the sexes — certainly not obscure in the text — are piledriven at the audience. The civilized urbanity of the man's insight into human shortcomings, his subtle craftsmanship in dramatic construction, his almost feral interchange between male and female are shattered by the hammer blows of ACT's interpretation.

Rumblings from Shaw buffs in the first night audience indicated other dissatisfactions with which I don't agree. I enjoyed the ridiculous paced-to-music changes of Stuart Wurtzel's joyous greeting card sets, Marianna Elliott's beautiful costumes, and the smoke and magnesium flashes in Hell. I feel Shaw would agree with these theatrically effective devices.

As for the actors, Ray Reinhardt's Roebuck Ramsden, irascible, pompous, blustering through his ineptitudes with taurine abandon, is most true to Shaw.

Rene Auberjonois as Jack Tanner, the superman who carries the burden of the play, plays the first act more as Coward than Shaw, but comes through in the Don Juan sequence as a magnificently dedicated and believable character. This is especially praiseworthy since we have noted that the cuts often leave him pontificating about we know not what.

As Mendoza-Lucifer, Ken Ruta is a "devil's addition," as Shakespeare has it, but not the old boy himself. His Mendoza is a rough-hewn, amusing character; his Lucifer is also rough-hewn, lacking the suavity required of the master of the nether regions.

DeAnn Mears plays a strained Ann Whitefield who generates no sympathy, Paul Shenar's Octavius is a disgusting ninny for whom we can feel no compassion, and Ruth Kobart is the only Britisher in the cast speading pure midwest American. Patrick Tovatt has the makings of a good character in Hector Malone Jr., but it is still in the caricature stage.

Judith Mihalyi's Violet is adorably pretty, but Shaw's description of her as "hard as nails" apparently has been taken too literally by the actress. In the minor role of Straker, James Ragan is debonairly right.

"Man And Superman" joins the ACT repertory now as the eighth of 16 scheduled productions. Half way through the list, it would indicate that Ball, the magician, must beware the fatal trap of the magic trade. He must not begin to believe that his prestidigitations can replace, rather than supplement the intent of great playwrights.

PG&E's water wonderland.

More than 100 lakes for electricity...also provide recreation, irrigation, other benefits

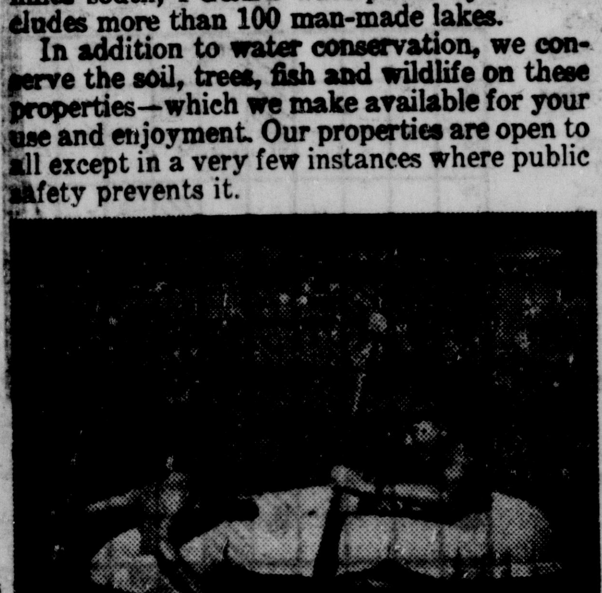
Each year, runoff in many Northern and Central California mountain streams is captured and stored behind PG&E dams—forming scenic lakes for fishing, boating, camping and swimming.

This water turns the generators that make a lot of your PG&E electricity. Then it flows on for use by you and others in countless ways. Stored water is one of California's most precious resources.

Conservation is a PG&E Policy

From the McCloud River in the Cascades to the Kings River in the Sierra Nevada 300 miles south, PG&E's waterpower system includes more than 100 man-made lakes.

In addition to water conservation, we conserve the soil, trees, fish and wildlife on these properties—which we make available for your use and enjoyment. Our properties are open to all except in a very few instances where public safety prevents it.



Campground and Picnic Areas

In many popular recreation areas we have provided campgrounds to encourage maximum use of PG&E lands for recreation. These facilities include tables, benches, stoves, refuse containers and restrooms. They're set up in areas that we care for like parks. And you're invited to use them.

To guide you to these campgrounds and picnic areas, we have published a free booklet with a map and descriptions of facilities at each location. It's called "Your 1967 Guide to PG&E Campgrounds and Picnic Areas." Ask any PG&E office for a copy.

PG&E Fishing Reports

Our releases of stored water for power generation help maintain stream flows throughout the summer. Many good fishing streams would be dry in summer and fall except for upstream storage for power generation.

Each week during trout season, our local hydro system employees provide a reliable report on stream conditions on dozens of watersheds as a free service to weekend anglers. This report is made available through more than 230 newspapers, radio and TV stations, outdoor publications and many sporting goods stores in Northern and Central California.

Biggest Family Bargain

Providing you with recreation facilities is a pleasant sideline to our main job of supplying you with high quality gas and electric service at the lowest possible rates.

You're probably using more appliances and conveniences than ever before, so your bill may be higher. But there have been five reductions in PG&E gas and electric rates since 1963, so PG&E energy is still the biggest bargain in your family budget.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Unusual Discard Outrages Old Kibitzer; He Leaves Too Early

"Certain people should never be allowed in the same room as a deck of cards," said The Old Kibitzer in a voice trembling with emotion. "I have watched bridge players for 60 years, and it isn't often that a play is bad enough to drive me away from the table."

Opening lead — ◇ A

The old gentleman had watched just two tricks of the hand shown today, and then he had walked out of the card room of his club to state his complaint.

We gave him something medicinal with a twist of lemon peel and he told us about the hand.

WHAT HAPPENED

West opened with the ace of diamonds and continued with the queen.

Declarer ruffed in dummy with the ace of spades, and East made the play that sent The Old Kibitzer out of the room talking to himself.

East threw away a trump!

Declarer led the jack of spades from dummy and continued with the 10 of spades, finessing through the queen and picking up all of the trumps.

Unfortunately for South, the clubs broke horribly and he eventually lost another trick.

Down one.

HARD TO IMPROVE

If you agree with The Old Kibitzer that East should be sent to prison for throwing away a trump, get yourself some medicine and some lemon peel and try to make a better play.

East cannot get a trump even if he saves all of his trumps.

Declarer will lead the jack of spades and then the 10 of spades through the queen and will capture four trumps just as easily as three.

If East discards a heart, dummy's nine of hearts will eventually be good for declarer's 12th trick.

And if East discards a club, declarer can eventually ruff one of dummy's clubs and take his 12th trick with the other low club.

East's unusual discard at the second trick allows him to defeat the contract by keeping as many hearts and clubs as the dummy at all times.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one club, and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ K 918 7 2
♥ 7 3
♦ 8 6 4 3
♣ 7 4

ANSWER: Pass.

Some experts strain a little harder to respond to an opening bid of one club than to any other opening bid, but it is very dangerous to respond with only 3 points in high cards and no particular distributional strength.

The best way to stay out of trouble when you have a really ghastly hand is to pass.

ALMANAC

Today is Monday, March 20, the 79th day of 1967 with 286 to follow.

The moon is between the first and full stage. The morning star is Mars. The evening stars are Jupiter and Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1852, Harriet Beecher Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was printed in book form. It eventually appeared in more than 20 languages.

In 1942, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Commander in Chief of Allied Forces in the Pacific, issued his famous "I shall return" statement. He returned to take the Philippines.

In 1951, Argentine dictator Juan Peron seized control of the opposition newspaper "La Prensa."

In 1963, a volcano on the island of Bali began erupting. The death toll rose to over 1,000.

A Thought for the Day — Scottish poet Robert Burns once said: "God knows, I'm not the thing I should be . . . not even am I the thing I could be."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Mr. Mahoney knows...

Canada Dry, producer of the country's largest-selling brand name mixers and flavored beverages, plans to keep it that way. No problem. David Mahoney knows how it is done: "Strong, regular newspaper advertising has done much to develop every segment of the Canada Dry line—mixers, flavors and low-calorie drinks—into fast-moving, large-volume items."

Aid To India Going Down The Rathole

ROME (AP) — Half the food produced in India is wasted by rats, rot, birds and insects, the U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization reports. It estimates the world average loss of food to pests is at least 20 per cent. The wastage is greatest in regions of Asia, Africa and Latin America where hunger already is the worst.

Even at 20 per cent the loss means this: where there should be enough food for five persons to eat, one will starve. Or, if the available food is divided equally, all five will be undernourished.

When the loss reaches 50 per cent the results become starkly tragic.

The estimate of India's loss was given to the FAO regional conference for the Far East by the Indian government.

Thunder, a pistol shot, even the crack of a whip can cause vibrations that will trigger a snow avalanche.

India Parliament Held Aiding In Defection

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The United States was accused in the Indian Parliament today of trying to influence India's national election last month, of attempting to undermine a local youth organization and of aiding the defection of Stalin's daughter Svetlana to the West.

Foreign Minister M.C. Chagla quieted the shouting opposition members temporarily with a promise to give a detailed statement tomorrow on Miss Stalina's flight from New Delhi to Rome March 7 after she sought asylum at the U.S. Embassy.

But he and Finance Minister Morarji Desai were then subjected to a series of questions about the activities of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency in use of the U.S. Embassy's huge rupee fund, acquired through the sale of food grains to India.

George Fernandes, a Socialist who defeated pro-American S.K. Patil in the Bombay parliamentary race, referred to disclosures in the U. S. press that CIA funds had been given to various U. S. and international organizations. One of the groups named was the International Youth Center in New Delhi.

Cut Chin Suffered In Cycle Accident

Judith Anne Leist, 22, of San Francisco, suffered a cut chin when she was thrown from her motorcycle on Shoreline Highway, two miles north of Bolinas, at 4:55 p.m. Sautrday.

California Highway Patrol officers reported that she failed to negotiate a curve. She was treated at Marin General Hospital.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY
THIRD SECTION SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA, MONDAY, MARCH 20, 1967 19

Numbering System Is Endorsed

The Marin County Planning Commission apparently resolved the debate over house numbers in Tamalpais and Homestead valleys today by generally endorsing the system desired by the Tamalpais Valley Fire Department.

The fire department, seeking a means of finding a home in a hurry, asked numbering by areas, with 100 covering a specific section, 200 another section and so on.

The planning commission said there could be exceptions for short streets, satisfying some who have protested a change.

The county ordinance on house numbers left room for considerable confusion, and the planning staff reported existing numbers were closer to the system wanted by the fire department than to the ordinance requirements.

In unanimously voting in favor of the fire department's plan, the commission directed that notification be required in future house number changes, with public hearings held.

Oregon is the Beaver State.

Lower Residential Density Favored In Tam Valley

The Marin County Planning Commission today voted in favor of lower residential density and reduction of commercial zoning around the intersection of Shoreline Highway and Pinehill Road in Tamalpais Valley.

The much-debated change will now go to the board of supervisors for further hearing.

The planning staff recommended changes in the area of about 12 blocks to bring zoning more in line with the 1959 Tamalpais Valley Master Plan and existing uses.

Some undeveloped apartment zones around the periphery would be changed to single family, while the multiple zone, allowing an apartment unit for every 1,000 square feet of ground space, would be changed to one unit for every 1,500 square feet.

Attorney Joseph E. Sheeks, representing Fred and Mary Bitz, with apartment zoning on Woodside Avenue and Sunset Way, argued that land values were being cut by the change and the planning staff was using "the old I'm here now so let's pull up the gangplank attitude."

The planning staff suggested that the Bitz property and some others next to single-family zone should be given even a lower density of one unit for every 3,500 square feet.

Mary Howell, with land on Pinehill Road, said this would cut the value of her land in half.

The planning department's recommendation, approved by the commission today, will also change the commercial zoning on the north side of Shoreline Highway to multiple residential.

Harry Johnson, owner of some of this property, said he would try to rush through a development before the zoning could take effect. He asked a three-year moratorium in any zone change so he could proceed in a more orderly manner with a development that would be nonconforming when the zoning took effect.

It was the third time the zone change had been debated before the commission. In addition the planning department held a noisy session with property owners and members of the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club last Monday night.

Disorderly Charges Faced By Couple

San Rafael police, called four times to a noisy party in an apartment at 1825 Lincoln Avenue early yesterday, arrested a man and his wife on disorderly charges.

Peter L. Regan, 28, of Apt. 115 at the Lincoln Avenue address, also was booked on a charge of assaulting the landlord, L. M. Malcolm. Regan and his wife, Barbara, 26, both cursed at Malcolm, police said.

Cyclist Hurt In Accident

A 36-year-old San Rafael man suffered a fractured leg yesterday when the motorcycle he was riding rammed a parked car on Front Street near Harbor Street, San Rafael.

John W. Grupe Jr. of 78 Novato Street was reported in good condition today in Marin General Hospital.

Grupe told police he was trying to brake the machine when it struck a parked car belonging to Pat Curran of 317 C Street, San Rafael.

Students Learn Science By Doing

By PAT PERRY

Pioneering a new approach to the teaching of physical science, Terra Linda High School has joined a few high schools in the nation in introducing a novel physical science course for freshmen.

The new approach, announced educators, "attempts to produce an attitude of inquiry; not an acceptance of teacher authority."

What is the new approach in this revolutionary science course?

It's letting ninth graders do experiments themselves; and if that sounds strangely like the general science classes of the last generation, remember that, fanfares and federal grants notwithstanding, educational theories are proving eomewhat cyclical.

Taught by Barney Keener, sixty freshmen take a physical science class daily, devoting most of the 45-minute period to laboratory experiments.

Equipment is simple, inexpensive and compact, based on a sheet of peg board supported by a heavy base on which smaller pieces of apparatus are held by bolted clips.

"The emphasis is on letting the students find out for themselves," explained Keener. "We'll start an experiment with a purpose, but don't even let them know what the purpose is, and certainly not the expected results."

Students have to discover things for themselves, he said. "We tell them as little as we can, give no warnings. For instance, if they're going to drop a rock into a test tube of water we don't caution that water might spill; they'll find that out immediately."

Basic aim of the course (a project of the Physical Science Study Committee of Educational Service, Inc., working with Massachusetts Institute of Technology) is to provide a sound foundation for physics, chemistry and biology courses students will take in high school, and also to give a good terminal course to those who will never take another science course.

"They're getting the feeling of what science is," predicted Keener, "and we expect more will be taking advanced science courses simply because they so enjoyed this one."

Terra Linda High School students are enthusiastic about the new course, which began three weeks ago.

"I think it's great, a lot more exciting than a regular old course," said Mike Kramer, 14. "There's more to it than listening to teachers and just doing busy work."

Last week, working independently, students found the density of chunks of obsidian with test tubes of water and simple equal-arm balances using inexpensive bead weights.

"It's easier to understand; you learn as you do the experiments," said Ed Laufer, almost 15. "You don't have to study for tests. You already know."

EQUIPMENT—A simple set-up of pegboard on a base to which equipment is clipped forms the basis for all experiments in Terra Linda High School's new physical science class. David Davis (left) and Randy Cole work on wood distillation.

Terra Lindan Fires At Prowler

A Terra Linda man fired at a prowler in the rear yard of his home early yesterday, but the shots missed and the culprit escaped.

Returning to his home at 140 Oleander Drive about 2:15 a.m., Louis A. Segale told Marin sheriff's deputies, he noticed a man climbing a rear fence into his yard. Segale said he got his gun, a .380 caliber automatic, and stepped into the yard, confronting the thief.

He fired several times at the prowler, he related, but the culprit leaped over the fence and disappeared.

Annual Bird Count Turns Up 185 Species

If you've never even heard of a 20 knots, or Cassin's finch, or least bittern, you may or may not be surprised to learn that they're all, in their rarity, flitting around Tomales Bay.

Marin Audubon Society's annual bird count turned up 185 species last week, coming in fourth in the nation-wide count. Cocoa, Fla., and San Diego tied for first, each with 206 species counted. Freeport, Tex., was third with 190 species.

There's obviously a feathered feud rampant. Lynn Stafford, a member of Marin Audubon Society and the count's co-leader, said: "Cocoa is where competitors say the counters carry rare birds around in their pockets and release them on count day."

More than 100 bird watchers counted birds in a circle roughly 15 miles in diameter centering at Marshall in West Marin, and counting birds from dawn to dusk.

Two common teal were spotted, and described, rather mysteriously, as "a very unusual vagrant from Europe."

Among other unusual birds were a least bittern, a rare summer visitor to Marin; Cassin's finch, a rare winter visitor, and Nuttall's woodpecker and 20 knots (a shorebird), both rare at any time.

More than 700 similar bird population censuses were taken throughout the nation last week.

Community Attitudes Tabulation Planned

Final tabulation of the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce community attitudes survey will probably start by the end of this week, according to Jack A. Witcomb, chairman of that committee.

The 1,500 questionnaires which were returned to the Jaycees were given to various members of the organization for tabulation. These were due back yesterday, but not all of them were ready, Whitecomb said.

Auto Stereo Reported Stolen

Theft of a $175 auto stereo was reported yesterday to Mill Valley police by William H. Baker, 49 Roque Moraes Drive. The stereo was stolen yesterday while his car was parked next to the "Welcome to Mill Valley" sign on East Blithedale Avenue.

Robert S. Roelfsen, 1518 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, reported Saturday to Mill Valley police that a bottle was thrown through the rear window of his car while it was parked on Molino Avenue near Old Mill Park.

William G. Feeney, 29 Bernard Street, Mill Valley, yesterday told police that he had recovered a home-made trailer stolen Nov. 6 from his home. He found it parked on Cascade Drive, he said.

Wine Taken

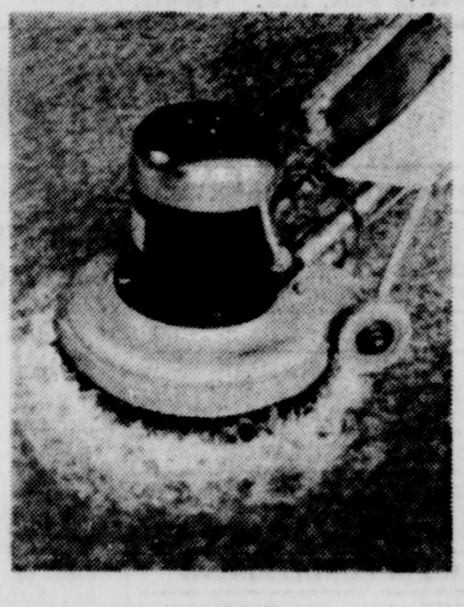
A 14-year-old Mill Valley boy was cited Saturday by police for shoplifting a 69-cent bottle of wine from Mill Valley Pharmacy, 418 Miller Avenue. He was released to the custody of his parents, police reported.

DEEP STEAM Wall to Wall Carpet Cleaning

This unique new process cleans deep and yet treats the finest carpet with loving care . . .

DEEP STEAM removes soil from both the pile of the carpet and the carpet backing. Since no brushes or scrubbing action are used, there is no distortion of the carpet pile. The powerful extraction action of the DEEP STEAM process lifts matted pile to "like new" appearance. The need of frequent professional cleaning is reduced because deeply embedded soil is removed and leaves no residue in the carpet fibers to collect dirt.

OLD



The old equipment with brushes, using liquid detergent or powder, scrubs the soil DEEPER into the fabric . . . and even with the help of a vacuum fails to remove soil or residue. The detergent or powder left in the fabric soon attracts more soil and it is not long before the soil works back to the surface. Soon your carpets appear more soiled than before!

THIS DEEP STEAM PROCESS IS GUARANTEED TO BE COMPLETELY SAFE ON ALL FABRICS UNDER ALL CONDITIONS!

The advantages of DEEP STEAM CLEANING are obvious!

What Do You Call A Perfect Home?

Must it have 4 bedrooms with least 3 baths upstairs? And a powder room off the entry hall — with a very formal dining room, and a breakfast room, and a really outstanding family-game room opening to a formal pool? Should the living room be huge with high ceilings, with a den tucked away for warmth & privacy — and should the style be something stunning and different yet with a motif strongly suggestive of the traditional? And should the site be heavily wooded with along, formal driveway leading to an absolutely private site which is level and drenched with sun, with an immense view, priced under $175,000?? Naturally! We have one listed for . . .

Deepstar Dives Aiding Science

By SCIENCE SERVICE

WASHINGTON — The San Pedro Basin is a 270-square-mile area of Pacific Ocean bottom that lies between Santa Catalina Island and the sunny southern California mainland.

Its largely level floor lies about 3,000 feet beneath the pleasure boats and sport fishermen that ply the surface of the San Pedro channel. Steep escarpments, rising from the floor to the north and south, mark the edges of the island and mainland. To the east and west, gentler rises complete the valley's isolation from the open sea floor.

Into this quiet oceanic backwater, on Dec. 4, 1966, came three Navy researchers in the tiny submarine Deepstar. They were there to measure heat flow through the ocean bottom and collect deep-sea water samples.

As they dropped through the water, they took pictures of the ocean life outside the portholes — but only down to 2,500 feet. From there on they found no life at all.

On the bottom, just north of Catalina Island, they found a layer of fine brown flocculent material. It covered the normal ocean sediments about a centimeter deep as far as they could see.

As they cruised along, occasional dead squid and fish came into view, lying in the brown material. Worm tubes dotted the basin floor, but not one worm appeared anywhere. Nothing moved outside the three-man sub.

On a second dive, a half mile away, the bottom 500 feet of water again proved to be an underwater dead sea.

Chemical analysis of the near-bottom water samples showed why. Less than one-tenth of a milliliter of oxygen was dissolved in each liter . . . too little to support any kind of life.

That is because of the very poor water circulation within the basin, believes Dr. Eugene C. LaFond, head of the Navy Electronics Laboratory's Environmental Division and one of the crew on the dive.

Observations from the Deepstar showed a current speed of only one-half centimeter per second — insufficient even to stir up the aparently decomposed material on the bottom.

Dr. LaFond points out that he dived in the San Pedro Basin on only one day of the year. At other times, he suggests, ocean currents may sweep through the area, flushing it out.

An ominous challenge to his explanation has been voiced by Dr. Bruce W. Halstead, a marine biotoxicologist and director of the World Life Reserach Institute.

"I think a lot of this is due to contamination," Dr. Halstead asserts. " . . . chemical agents have been dumped in there by government and industry.

"I do know a whole list of cyanides that have been dumped," he says.

"I can't believe these fish unconsciously swam into an anaerobic area and died. I believe it (their death) is due to toxic agents.

"Our government knows about San Pedro Basin," he says, "and is pushing hard to do something." The problem is that no one apparently knows for sure what effects any particular contaminant may have on ocean life — or on the people who get their food from the sea.

It is perfectly possible, Dr. Halstead points out, that a contaminant, dumped into the sea in relatively small amounts, might affect the marine food chain enough to make normal food fish temporarily poisonous to humans.

Just such a poison killed a number of Japanese living around Minamata Bay in southwestern Kyushu between 1953 and 1960, he notes. The strange disease, which damaged the brains of those not killed outright, was finally traced to shellfish growing in the bay. The shellfish though apparently healthy, had absorbed mercury compounds dumped in the bay by a factory, concentrating the deadly compounds in their bodies.

"I think this points up a very deadly example of what can happen in contamination of the marine environment," Dr. Halstead warns.

It is not, however, the most likely explanation of the lifeless waters of the San Pedro Basin, according to Dr. LaFond.

More information on the San Pedro Basin may become available this fall, however, when he returns for more dives in the Deepstar. Dives will also be made in the adjoining Santa Monica and Santa Barbara Basins.

Chamber Asks Aid To Jobless

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The California state Chamber of Commerce has called upon its more than 6,000 business, agricultural and industrial firms to attempt to find new jobs for state employees who will be leaving government service through the plan to cut 3,000 to 4,000 positions from several agencies.

Gov. Ronald Reagan's staff announced the cuts last week, most of them from the department of mental hygiene. Philip N. Battaglia, executive secretary, said the caseload in the hospitals had declined from 33,000 to 20,000 in several years and many employees were unneeded.

Dr. Arnold O. Beckman, state chamber president, said business should "do everything possible to help in the situation which has been brought about by a business-like action by state government to eliminate unnecessary costs."

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Children Have Sixth Sense When It Comes To Illness

VAN DELLEN

Children have a sixth sense when it comes to illness. They remain quiet when sick but never hesitate to get up when they feel better. It is difficult to keep them in bed and parents are disturbed when the tyke fails to follow doctor's orders.

The 7-year-old daughter of a British physician had her appendix out and wanted to go home on the fourth day after the operation. The surgeon refused permission on the basis that bed rest was needed for proper healing of the scar. On the same evening, Dr. Hugh Jolly entered the ward and found his daughter had just won first place for bouncing up highest off the bed.

DR. JOLLY decided to investigate the need for enforced bed rest after his child's experience but failed to find scientific evidence for this practice. He then analyzed the surgical records of 734 children treated as day-patients who were not confined to bed against their wishes. Many had a hernia repaired and the parents were told to bring them back to the hospital on the fifth day after surgery. There were no complications and three-quarters of the youngsters had removed their own sutures.

He then studied two groups of children with respiratory infections. There was no difference in the duration of fever or of the illness between those kept in bed and those allowed to be up. The same results were obtained in tykes with rheumatic fever provided early ambulation was carefully supervised.

IN SOME conditions bed rest is essential. A boy with a certain type of transitory arthritis of the hip is an example. In contrast, parents should not interfere when the child feels ill enough to go to bed. The youngster who remains in bed when he could be up is the exception to the rule.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the Independent-Journal.)

STOMACH IN REVERSE

K. P. A. writes: What causes my stomach to back up on me at night?

REPLY

If your stomach goes into reverse early in the evening you can blame something you ate or a poorly functioning gall bladder. Distress in the early hours of the morning, when the stomach is empty, suggests ulcer. If discomfort is related to change in posture only, a diaphragmatic hernia may be responsible. May I suggest X-rays?

CARBON MONOXIDE

G. F. E. writes: How does carbon monoxide poisoning damage the brain?

REPLY

Carbon monoxide replaces oxygen in the blood. Because the brain is extremely sensitive to lack of oxygen, it suffers most. Dizziness, headaches, and loss of consciousness are the early manifestations. Prolonged exposure to carbon monoxide may cause permanent damage.

EMPHYSEMA

W. G. writes: Does asthma cause emphysema?

REPLY

Asthma is one of several causes of emphysema, a condition in which the air sacs in the lungs enlarge due to bronchial obstruction. The abnormality is common in various chronic lung disorders and now and then develops in the elderly as part of the wear and tear process.

SLOW TALKER

Mrs. G. A. writes: If a child has not begun talking by 18 months, does this mean he is backward?

REPLY

As a rule, speech comes by the 16th month. If the child cannot talk by the 30th month, the condition ought to be investigated.

Scientists Produce Violin Royal Family

By SCIENCE SERVICE

NEW YORK—The notion that scientists are taking on the violin — as they might some bug or physical particle — might produce aesthetic shudders among some music lovers. But just such a match has now taken the queen of instruments and produced an entire royal family in its place, ranging from a tiny 16-inch treble violin to a huge contrabass seven-footer.

So what else is new? Didn't those scientists ever hear of the viola, or the cello, or the string bass?

The difference, says Mrs. Carleen Maley Hutchins, a former science teacher and developer of the new family, is that all the new instruments have the same dynamics, "expressive qualities" and overall power that are characteristic of the violin itself.

In addition, the new string family has eight members, instead of four. By contrast, each member of the traditional family has its own characteristic sound — and overtones — apart from the difference in range.

Mrs. Hutchins didn't do all this by herself. Her chief colleague was the late Prof. Frederick A. Saunders, former chairman of the Harvard physics department and past president of the Acoustical Society of America, who three decades ago first located the position of the main body resonance and main cavity resonance in several fine violins.

The main body resonance is the lowest fundamental resonance of the wood structure of the violin; the cavity resonance is that of the air inside it.

Once this was known, it took almost a quarter of a century to learn how to place these resonances where they were wanted in the instrument while still maintaining the tone quality of the violin.

In the course of all this research, Prof. Saunders and Mrs. Hutchins came to the "sobering conclusion" that despite all their fancy techniques and odd-looking experimental models, the best sounding violins still came from conventional construction methods, developed by trial and error by early violin makers centuries ago.

Finally, composer Henry Brant and cellist Sterling Hunkins suggested the eight-violin family, designed to cover the entire pitch range of written music. Eight years later, reports Mrs. Hutchins in Physics Today (Feb.), the idea bore fruit, when all eight instruments were used in a concert at Harvard, dedicated to Prof. Saunders.

"For the first time," she writes, "we have a whole family of instruments made according to a consistent acoustical theory. Beyond a doubt they are musically successful."

Heroin Haul Made By Police

NORTH LAS VEGAS (UPI)—Officers from three law enforcement agencies arrested an alleged heroin pusher, 11 suspected users and confiscated $300 worth of heroin yesterday at a North Las Vegas motel.

The suspected seller was identified as Melvin Tellis, 30, of Las Vegas, who investigators said had been sought for two years.

Officers entered the room with a search warrant and arrested Tellis and three other suspects. Eight other persons who later came to the motel, allegedly for narcotics, also were taken into custody.

Firemen Free Trapped Boy

A nine-year-old San Rafael boy was playing under a foot bridge leading to Glenwood School Saturday afternoon when his leg was caught between two large water pipes.

The boy, Dan W. Chesnuts of 7 Rollingwood Drive, was unable to extricate himself.

Police, alerted by nearby residents, tried but were unable to free the boy. Firemen, using a large crowbar, got him loose quickly. He was unhurt.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Marshall McLuhan Is Rare Happening

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —NBC-TV yesterday afternoon gave us an hour of Marshall McLuhan, the communications theorist, and the first thing to say about his impact is that he is a remarkable television personality.

It is my personal opinion that if he were given a weekly half-hour of prime time to expound his explosive contemporary views, he would be a national television sensation.

AN EXPLORER

Whether one disagrees generally with his theories, or is critical of his periods of seeming illogic, is wholly beside the point. As he himself says, "I don't necessarily agree with everything I say" —which of course is part put-on but also a rather logical statement for a man who is essentially an explorer of new ideas rather than a cut-and-dried advocate of a precise piece of research.

The important thing is that McLuhan fulfills magnificently the essential purpose of an educator to stimulate the young of all ages to thought so that there is excitement and involvement in learning and in keeping one's mind open. On television, no less than in his writings, he is a one-man happening, a living proof that one man can indeed make a difference. He is altogether with it.

McLuhan appeared on the series entitled "NBC Experiment in Television," and since he is regarded as the dominant philosopher of the electronic age ("the medium is the message"), it is perhaps not surprising that he is so effective on the home tube. If his message Sunday was only medium in its persuasion ratio, his sense of wholeness regarding the electronic age was illuminating.

SPEECH PROBLEM

It matters not that he often appears to be structuring loosely what others regard as merely natural developments, or that he sometimes seems to be philosophizing what is just obvious about the past, present and future, or that his theories give the impression of being hippie-treated derivative views. The concept is all —the sense of unity and wholeness about scatter-shot modern life.

The NBC-TV program let us experience McLuhan rather than trying to clarify him, which was perhaps just as well, for if this noted theorist of communications has one problem, it is the inability to communicate precisely what he means at all times.

Thus Ernest Pintoff's guidance of the broadcast, which involved numerous attempts to pictorialize McLuhan's views in electronic and abstract forms, was ideal. For the literalism of isolated facts is secondary —in effect if not desirability —to the total experience in the television age, if one accepts the premise that the medium is indeed the message.

GLOBAL VILLAGE

"The global village is not created by the motor car —or even by the airplane. It's created by instant electronic information movement,' McLuhan said at one point in his on-camera appearance. At another point, his reference to television as a "cool" medium was part of one of his tantalizing thoughts: "Vietnam was the fisrt TV war, and you can see it isn't going down very well, it's too hot. TV is a cool medium and the war is a real hot event."

Large Area Hit By Power Halt

Failure of a power line in Almonte yesterday blacked out Almonte, Homestead and Tamalpais Valleys, Marin City, Northern Sausalito, Muir Beach, Stinson Beach and part of Bolinas from 9:40 p.m. to 10:50 p.m.

Six customers near the break, on Almonte Boulevard at Rosemont Avenue, remained without service until 4:30 a.m. today.

Cause of the failure was not known, according to Leonard R. Whipple, district electric superintendent for Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

Alameda Woman Leaps Off Span

A woman identified as Shirley Ann Obermiller, 34, of Alameda, jumped from the Golden Gate Bridge Saturday, the California Highway Patrol reported today.

Coast Guard cutter began a search of the area immediately after the jump was reported at 8:40 p.m. but without success. The body had not been recovered today.

Mrs. Flora Mancebo of San Rafael told the highway patrol she saw a woman stop her car and leap over the railing.

Point Reyes Plans Slow, Says Clausen

WASHINGTON — The need for orderly acquisition and development of Point Reyes National Seashore is being overshadowed by the interest in the creation of a Redwood National Park, Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-First District, Calif., declared today.

In a letter to National Park Service Director George Hartzog, Clausen said the Point Reyes project seems to have been "temporarily set aside" uncompleted.

The seashore project was authorized at $14 million in 1962 and increased to $19.35 million last year. Total cost of acquiring the 53,000 acre seashore is placed at between $44.5 million and $57 million.

"The 90th Congress must take up the issue as soon as possible and it is incumbent upon the Park Service to take the lead by furnishing its recommendations to the congress without delay," said Clausen.

Hub Trustees To Hear Report

San Anselmo School District trustees will hear a report on the findings of a citizens finance committee tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. at Red Hill Intermediate School.

John Holm of the citiziens committee will report enrollment projections, probable building and facility needs, and revenue sources.

A progress report will be given on district salary discussions, and on plans to improve the social science program. The board may consider student transportation policy.

Urban Beautification Plans To Be Viewed

Corte Madera Town Mgr. Ronald L. Usher will present the town's urban beautification program for fiscal 1968 at the town council meeting at 7:30 p.m. today, and the council may approve an application for $15,630.89 in federal beautification funds.

Larkspur Recreation Director Robert C. Bundy will describe the recreation programs planned for Corte Madera and Larkspur.

Two members of the council will be appointed to a joint Larkspur-Corte Madera Library Study Committee.

A public hearing on annexation of the Sanford property to Corte Madera is set for 8:30 p.m., and the council will consider zoning for areas being annexed from Larkspur to Corte Madera—on Christmas Tree Hill, on Williams Avenue, the Berkeley Co-operative property on Tamal Vista Boulevard, and the Department of Motor Vehicles property.

The council may set an election for 31 registered voters on the Corte Madera portion of Elm Avenue on annexation from Corte Madera to Larkspur.

Mrs. J. W. McClintock has asked for a study of traffic problems at Tamal Vista Boulevard and Fifer Avenue.

In Fair Condition

Margo Darling, 45, of 186 Butterfield Road, San Anselmo, was in fair condition today in the heart unit of Marin General Hospital. San Anselmo firemen were called to her home at 2:10 a.m. today to administer resuscitation when she developed trouble breathing, and she was taken by ambulance to the hospital.

Reagan Sees Greater State Role In Federal Programs

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Ronald Reagan returned last night from Washington where he attended a White House governors' conference.

Reagan, before leaving the nation's capital, told newsmen he believed Johnson administration officials were "looking more kindly" toward giving states greater freedom in administering federal porgrams.

The weekend White House visit was Reagan's first as governor.

The Republican chief executive also said he was convinced the U.S. position in Vietnam had been strengthened and that victory was "inevitable."

Regan said he had joined in calling for "tax sharing" between the federal and state governments but said administration officials gave "no answer" to governors who advocated it during the conference.

There was an indication, Reagan said, that federal officials were looking toward elimination of red tape to give states "more autonomy."

In urging tax sharing, Reagan said more of the available money would reach beneficiaries if programs were handled on the local level and thus subject to fewer administrative costs.

Asked whether the necessity for passing federal funds through state machinery would not add to the costs, Reagan said this would be true if "elaborate machinery" were needed. But he suggested a part of the federal tax money collected in the states be left here to eliminate the need for sending money to Washington and back again.

Meg, Snowdon End Vacation

LONDON (AP) — Princess Margaret and Lord Snowdon returned today from a 10-day holiday in the Bahamas that set at rest rumors of a rift in their marriage.

The royal couple traveled on a regular British Overseas Airways Corp. flight from Nassau by way of New York. Aboard were 14 other first-class and 60 economy-class passengers.

They posed for photographers but had nothing to say to newsmen at London Airport.

Hometown Boy Sikes Makes Good

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Dan Sikes has convinced his hometown friends that he is the city's best golfer, and now he would like to show officials of the prestige-packed Masters that he belongs in that tournament.

The 36-year-old Jacksonville lawyer bolstered his bid for an invitation to the Masters by winning the Jacksonville Open yesterday, and now ranks fourth among the contenders for two vacancies at the Augusta, Ga., tournament.

Sikes, $20,000 richer after winning the third tournament in his seven-year career as a pro, hopes to nail down a bid with top finishes in the Pensacola, Fla., and Greensboro, N.C., tournaments.

"My putting has really been good," Sikes said after taking the Jacksonville title by a stroke over 38-year-old Bill Collins, club pro at Purchase, N.Y.

"I've never putted better, although I have played better," Sikes said. One of his most spectacular putts nailed down the championship on his home Deerwood course in the final round.

"When I made that 40-foot birdie putt on the 16th hole I knew I had won," Sikes said. That gave him a three-stroke edge and he cautiously coasted in, three-putting the last two holes which he bogeyed.

"I couldn't have cared less," Sikes said. "My mind was a million miles away atfer that putt on the 16th. I knew I couldn't lose, and all I wanted to do was get it over."

Sikes, whose finishing 73 gave him a 72-hole total of 279, said he was a little surprised that he finished on top because he had led all the way.

"That's the toughest way there is to win a tournament, " the former University of Florida golf star said. "You usually feel like a blithering idiot trying to stay on top that long."

Collins and Kansas City rookie Jim Colbert also were elated after the tournament.

Collins, 38-year-old ex-Marine trying to make a comeback on the tour, won $12,000 for his second-place 280 after a closing 67, five-under par.

"That's the most I ever won," said Collins, whose previous best payoff was $9,000 for winning the 1962 Buick Open.

Colbert, in only his second season on the tour, collected $6,250 for his third-place tie at 281 with Gay Brewer Jr. That was more than he had ever won before.

Colbert shot a finishing 69, with Brewer closing with a 72. Chuck Courtney and Gob Goalby tied for fifth at 282 and won $4,050 each. Courtney, who pulled within a stroke of Sikes on the 12th hole, faded to a 72, matched by Goalby.

Julius Boros took seventh at 283 after his 70, and his $3,400 payoff boosted his 1967 PGA winnings to $46,687, most won this year. Jack Nicklaus finished at 292, Gary Player had a 285 total and defending champion Doug Sanders finished at 286.

Big Ten Power: Coaches Resign

Independent-Journal Sports

FOURTH SECTION Mon., March 20, 1967 29

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — Illinois' three scandal-involved coaches reluctantly resigned yesterday, 24 hours after the Big Ten issued an ultimatum that they be fired or the university face indefinite suspension from the conference.

The action by football Coach Pete Elliott, basketball Coach Harry Combes and assistant Howie Braun ended a three-month ordeal stemming from a $21,000 athletic slush fund.

Dr. David D. Henry, university president who revealed the existence of the fund to the Big Ten and fought to the end to save the jobs of the coaches, accepted the resignations.

"Under the mandate of the intercollegiate conference of faculty representatives, the case is considered closed inasmuch as the three coaches relinquished all duties with the Athletic Association as of this date," Dr. Henry said.

On Saturday, Dr. Henry lost his final round in an attempt to show cause why the coaches should not be fired. The faculty representatives told Illinois to fire the coaches by Tuesday or face indefinite suspension from the conference.

The scandal broke in December when assistant athletic director Mel Brewer, bypassed for the athletic directorship which had opened with the Dec. 1 resignation of Doug Mills, revealed to Dr. Henry the existence of the fund.

Dr. Henry took the matter to the Big Ten and the athletic directors met and decided Illinois must fire the three or show cause why its membership should not be suspended or terminated.

Illinois appealed on March 3 to the faculty representatives who came to the same decision as that of the athletic directors. Illinois' "show cause" appeal Saturday also failed and the faculty group issued its Tuesday-or-else mandate.

In accepting the resignations, Dr. Henry said: "The Board of Directors of the Athletic Association have recommended and I have approved the honoring of existing contracts with the coaches which will terminate Aug. 31, 1967. Their faculty status in the College of Physical Education part time assignments is not affected."

Elliott, 42, has been at Illinois seven years. Combes, 51, concluded his 20th season at Illinois, and Braun, 50, has been Combes' assistant for 18 years.

The three coaches issued a joint statement yesterday in which they charged the "Big Ten fired us."

"It is apparent to everyone that the Commissioner, Athletic Directors and Faculty Representatives of the Western Conference (Big Ten) have 'fired us'.

"We are therefore reluctantly stepping down from our respective coaching responsibilities at this time rather than to allow the conference to unjustly force the University of Illinois to act on an impossible situation.

"We emphatically believe that the final decision in this matter must be made by the conference rather than the University and consider the announcement of March 18, 1967, as the final decision.

"We have contemplated the future of the athletics at Illinois in the light of the various possibilities available.

"We believe that the NCAA would necessarily support any conference action which would mean at some future date, if the NCAA suspended or expelled Illinois from membership there would be nonathletic programs at Illinois.

"We do not believe that we should jeopardize Illinois or intercollegiate athletics to this extent and that Illinois should be forced to make a choice which might lead to such a result."

Super Willie Likes Our 'Tipalpais' Mountain

QUOTE UNQUOTE: "Marin County is really where I would like to live, man, but it is so far from the airport and sleep is so important to me I think I will be better off living on the peninsula. But I sure like that mountain you got over there—that Tipalpais or whatever you call it."

WILLIE MAYS

Marin realtors who'd like to lure Willie Mays to our Bounty County might advise the Giants' great captain that (1) we have helicopter service to the airport, (2) our supermarkets are well-stocked with Saxon Apple Juice and (3) on a clear day you can see Tipalpais from anywhere in the county.

TIMBER-R-R! — If that silly proposal of a Cassius Clay - Walt Chamberlain title fight in San Francisco materializes, Wilt says he would like to train in San Rafael. Well, he could spar with our redwoods. Or Tipalpais.

Shriners Will Follow 49ers

THE BIG MOVE — When the 49ers announce they'll quit Kezar and move permanently to Candlestick Park starting in the 1968 season—and they will, as I told you last year—look for the Shrine East-West Game to follow. A couple of bigwig Shriners (big fez?) told one of my agents they'll definitely move their annual classic to the Giants' ballyard when the 49ers do so.

HOW'S THAT?—Cute line in the I-J sports section last Tuesday: "Superior depth carried the Marin Swim Club . . . to a stunning team victory in the Northern California Class A swim meet at Sacramento last weekend."

When those kids learn how to swim on TOP of the water they'll be great

AND SPEAKING of such, I hope you catch the dry humor in the fact that Frank Wetmore is swimming coach at Vallejo High School.

Warmed Our Underdog Hearts

REAL TIGERS — If moral victories counted, University of Pacific Tigers would be Western Regional NCAA basketball champions today. Their gutty performance against the vastly superior UCLA Bruins Saturday night warmed the hearts of us underdog fans.

In fact, remove Lew-Lew Alcindor from the UCLA lineup and Pacific would have whipped the Bruins.

INDOOR SPORTS—Sausalito resident Don Cappa, who owns the Marina Ski Shop in San Francisco, has invented what he calls "Bar Skis."

They are a broken pair of slats designed for indoor sports who like to go to the mountains but abhor the thought of anything more strenuous than elbow bending.

According to Cappa, "When someone suggests heading for the slopes, our indoor sports merely point to their broken skis, shrug their shoulders and head for the nearest gin mill."

Giant Roster Gets Smaller

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (UPI)—The San Francisco Giants have made their first cut-down of the spring.

They Sunday sent five players to their minor league complex at Casa Grande, Ariz., yesterday for reassignment. The quintet includes infielders Alan Gallagher, Bruce Hix, and DeGold Francis; outfielder Bob Bonds; and pitcher Ken Fila.

Meanwhile, the varsity turned in its best spring showing to date yesterday with an 8-5 romp over Chicago at Phoenix. The two teams clash again today at Scottsdale.

Yesterday's score should have been much worse as the Giants built up a 7-0 lead and then coasted home. Cesar Gutierrez' big error and some hefty Cub belting off rookie Rich Robertson were the only chinks in the Giants' armor.

But varsity hurler Bob Bolin tossed five brilliant innings to pick up the win and relief ace Frank Linzy bailed Robertson out of a jam with a stunning two innings of hitless relief. The hitters meanwhile bombed 15 safeties with Willie Mays getting two to move his spring average to an unbelievable .519. Jay Alou got two to make his average .484; Jim Davenport collected a double and triple to wind up at .375 and Hal Lanier tripled and singled to hit .355.

About the only guy with problems is Willie McCovey. He fanned three times to watch his average dwindle to .241.

Saturday, the Giants bounced California 6-4 at Phoenix with Alou whacking four hits. Frank Johnson broke out of a slump to deliver a key single in the eighth. Ron Herbel and Joe Gibbon each gave up two runs in four innings and Bill Henry tossed a scoreless frame to grab the win.

The Giants are 6-4 for the spring.

Woolfson, Borowiak Win Doubles Title

Hayward veteran Joe Woolfson and Lafayette youngster Jeff Borowiak teamed up to win the Pacific Coast Senior-Junior Doubles Indoor Championship yesterday at the Pacific Coast Indoor Tennis Club San Rafael.

They downed Don Jacobus of Berkeley and Erik Van Dillen of San Mateo, 6-3, 6-4 in the finals.

Wildcat Hurler Fans 16

The Burch boys, former Marin Catholic pitching aces Frank and Ben, may be gone, but oh that Brian King.

The Marin Catholic southpaw stuffed Cardinal Newman's batting lineup in his back pocket Saturday with a stupendous mound performance as both the Wildcats and Redwood jumped into the semi-finals of the Healdsburg Lions Club Invitational Tournament on shutout pitching.

Marin Catholic meets Healdsburg at 8 tomorrow night while Redwood was to meet Analy at 5 tomorrow afternoon.

King mowed down 16 Newman batters on strikeouts and accounted for all but one of the outs as Marin Catholic walked to a 4-0 opening round victory in a real slugfest that saw a total of three hits marked up.

The Giants made the semifinals as Mike Terry another southpaw, hurled tw hit ball in a 4-0 Redwood win on the strength of a big three-run first inning.

In other games, Terra Linda split a doubleheader with Petaluma losing the first, 8-1, and winning the second, 4-3, on a three run seventh inning.

King was amazing. He allowed just two hits, one a bunt, for Cardinal Newman's only base runners. He picked both of them off and made two infield putouts. On the mound, he twice struck out six in a row and struck out the side three times.

The Wildcats did not exactly burn the barn down at the plate, coming up with just one hit, a two-run triple by Rich Denning in a three-run sixth inning. They got their other two runs on an assortment of walks, and wild pitches.

Wet Title To UC Santa Barbara

CITY OF COMMERCE, (AP)—University of California at Santa Barbara is the new NCAA College Division swimming and diving champion.

With 255½ points, Santa Barbara edged out University of California at Irvine, which had 246 points in the three-day competition which ended Saturday.

Two meet records were set the final night. Doug Russell of Arlington State swam the 100-yard butterfly in 51.8, bettering the former mark of 52.1.

Playoffs: Warriors Will Host Lakers

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAN FRANCISCO — The Los Angeles Lakers and San Francisco's pennant winning Warriors start National Basketball Association Western Division playoffs tomorrow in the Oakland Sports Arena.

Rick Barry threw in 39 points yesterday while leading the Warriors to a 135-127 triumph over the Detroit Pistons in the regular season's final game.

Barry, averaging 35.5 points a game, led the league with a total of 2,775. He displaced Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain as league leader for the first time since Chamberlain entered the NBA eight seasons ago.

The Warriors were tied with the Pistons, last in the division, at 120-120 with two minutes to go when forward Fred Hetzel hit two baskets and center Nate Thurmond scored on a three-point play.

San Francisco finished the year with a 44-37 mark, but were 36-24 when Nate Thurmond broke his hand six weeks ago. Thurmond had 22 points yesterday, but missed 14 games because of the injury. Thurmond still obviously is bothered by the cast on his hand.

Tom Meschery and Al Attles did not even make the final road trip because of injuries and are expected to be ready for limited duty only in the playoffs.

What would help pick up the slack for the Warriors would be if somebody else got hot. A couple of candidates emerged yesterday when Jim Kink hooped 27 and Hetzel got 19, including the key buckets at the end of the contest.

Saturday, coach Bill Sharman played his reserves most of the way at Cincinnati and the Royals waltzed 127-112.

Bruins Face Houston In NCAA Semi-Finals

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP) — The UCLA Bruins, who came out of the NSAA Western Regional basketball playoffs bruised but undefeated in 28 games this season, prepare for another physical battle Friday at Louisville.

The Bruins took the Western Regional 80-64 over the University of Pacific Saturday night.

They will play strong and tall Houston, an 83-75 winner over Southern Methodist, in the NCAA semifinals.

Texas Western, the defending NCAA champion and the only independent team in the Western tournament, edged Wyoming 69-67 for third.

Lew Alcindor, UCLA's unstoppable 7-foot-1⅜ inch All-American, scored 38 points. He had 14 rebounds, but had a rough time getting them.

He was fouled repeatedly and was knocked to the floor four times. On one occasion he came up pushing back.

"Alcindor has not been pushed around that hard this season," said UCLA Coach John Wooden. "I think I might have lost my composure, too.

"It was one of our toughest physically," Wooden said of the game. "Pacific played us real well. It has as tough a man to man defense as we've faced this season."

Pacific excited the crowd of 8,600 by tying the game 21-21 with 6:09 left in the first half on two free throws by David Fox, who led Pacific with 17 points.

A stuff by Alcindor made it 23-21 and the Bruins shot away to a 10-point lead. Pacific closed to within seven points midway through the second half but fell back after 6-7 Keith Swagerty was taken out when he drew his fourth foul.

"The pleasing thing is we always pulled away when the Tigers came close to us," said Wooden. "It's pleasing because Pacific has to be a pretty good club, with 21 straight wins and the ability to win close ones."

Pacific, winner of the West Coast Athletic Conference, finished the season with a 24-4 record.

"A team must have a bigger man than we do to defeat UCLA, said Pacific Coach Dick

Cassius Schedules Secret Workout For Title Fight

NEW YORK (AP) — Cassius Clay says he will have a secret workout today to wind up his training for his title defense against Zora Folley at Madison Square Garden Wednesday night.

According to the announcement from Clay's camp, the unbeaten champion wants another drill to further prepare for Folley's left hooks to the body.

Clay, a 5-1 favorite, needs a secret workout as much as a $ billion loan.

The 25-year-old king of the heavyweights has age, weight, height and speed going for him against the methodical, plodding, cautious 34-year-old challenger from Chandler, Ariz.

For a change the champion hasn't predicted the round he expects to end the scheduled 15-rounder. But Angelo Dundee, his astute trainer, says "it will take a few rounds for the champ to get his jabs working on Folley and then it should be over somewhere between the seventh and 11th rounds."

Folley finished his training yesterday with a two-round workout against gangling Wendell Newton and then said he was "fit and ready" to dethrone the champion.

"I feel confident I can beat him either by decision or knockout," Folley said.

He looked sluggish and may have been a bit stale after 105 rounds of boxing preparations for Clay. Newton, simulating Clay's moving, stabbing style, was able to spear Folley with left jabs.

Folley, however, landed a series of punches to the body in both rounds. He hopes to be able to slow up Clay with left hooks to the liver and rights to the head.

"If I hit him with a good right, he's liable to go," said Folley. "I've got 40 knockouts to my credit so I must be able to punch."

Clay finished his public boxing drills Saturday. He did not work yesterday.

Clay will be making his seventh title defense within a year and his ninth in all.

While he hasn't been predicting, there is a good possibility he is planning a spectacular finish. Folley shapes up as a perfect foil.

French Skiers Have Great Time At Vail

VAIL, Colo. (AP) — The men and women skiers of France will leave here this week wreathed in victory as predicted, but they will be looking over their shoulders at the Austrians as they head for Jackson Hole, Wyo., and the Wild West Classic March 24-26.

France defeated Austria by only three points, 231-228, in the American International team races that ended here Saturday, thanks mainly to the brilliant racing of Jean-Claude Killy.

Killy picked up 60 points in the team races by winning all three events—slalom, giant slalom and downhill—and capped his performance with a victory in the Vail Trophy giant slalom race yesterday.

The Sunday race, run in heavy snow and fog over an icy, rutted course, gave Killy the maximum possible 225 points for the World Cup of Skiing, which will be awarded at Jackson Hole this week. Killy will finish more than 100 points ahead of his nearest challenger, teammate Guy Perillat.

The Women's World Cup will almost certainly go to Marielle Goitschel of France, who has 169 points. French skier Annie Famose is second with 153 points, and Nancy Greene of Canada is third with 151.

The United States, sparked by Jim Heuga and Rick Caffee, was third in the team races with 148 points.

Switzerland made a last-minute recovery by placing five racers in the first 10 positions in Saturday's men's downhill to wind up with 123 points and fourth place. Canada was last with 80 points, despite a sparkling performance by Miss Greene.

Killy, who had to ski a fantastic run to defeat Heuga in Thursday's slalom, did it again yesterday in the giant slalom.

Huega covered the one-mile, 47-gate course through blinding snow in 1:44.65, the best time of the day and about 1½ seconds ahead of the next best racer, Heini Messner of Austria.

But then Killy flew down the course to whip the Tahoe City, Calif., skier with a fantastic 1:42.83. Messner was third in 1:46.06.

Miss Greene, who had won the women's giant slalom in the team races Friday, did it again yesterday as the snow which had hampered the men races vanished suddenly, leaving brilliant sunshine for the women's race.

Miss Greene covered the mile-long, 48-gate women's course in 1:16.14, followed by Erika Schinegger of Austria in 1:16.68 and Miss Famose in 1:17.9o.

Low point for the Americans came Saturday, when Suzanne Chaffee of Rutland, Vt., took a high-speed spill in the women's downhill and dislocated at hip. The injury knocked her out of competition indefinitely.

Retzlaff Retires From Pro Football

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Pete Retzlaff, described by the Philadelphia Eagles as "the greatest pass receiver in the club's history," today announced his retirement after 11 National Football League seasons.

The 34-year-old Retzlaff was the Eagles' biggest bargain. He was acquired in 1956 for $100, and converted from fullback to become one of the NFL's top offensive ends—a fantastic pass receiver who seemed to have glue on his fingertips.

Retzlaff informed Joe Kuharich, Eagle general manager-coach, that he was retiring because "the added pressure of my varied business endeavors make it impossible for me to devote the time and energy so necessary to continue to patricipate on the high competitive level" of the NFL.

Retzlaff said he is retiring "with some misgiving" because he feels the Eagles have the personnel to win the Eastern Division title next season.

Kuharich said Retzlaff's departure "will create a void in the offense which will not be easy to fill."

Retzlaff is active in Philadelphia as a radio and television sports announcer.

Also, Retzlaff is one of the leading candidates under consideration by President Johnson for the national physical fitness director's job recently vacated by Stan Musial, when the former baseball star became general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Lions selected the 6 foot, 1 inch Retzlaff 22nd in the 1953 NFL draft as a fullback. He then entered the service and when he reported to the Lions three years later they were loaded with runners. Considered expendable he was dealt to Philadelphia.

Known as The Baron because of his German ancestry, Retzlaff was converted to a split end by the Eagles and went on to earn all-pro honors and play in five all-star pro bowl games. His best season was 1965, when he caught 66 passes for 1,190 yards and scored 10 touchdowns.

State Derby Horses Vie Saturday

ALBANY (AP) — The 85 nominees for Golden Gate Field's big California Derby are all eligible for Saturday's six-furlong, $15,000-added Eastbay Handicap. A large field is expected.

In midweek, the $15,000 California Oaks for sophomore fillies in a flat mile race will be revived. The last time this race was run was in 1959 at the old Tanforan Track in San Bruno.

Among those pointing for the Wednesday race are Native Honey, Forgiving, Indovina, Ellen Gruder, Lady Gourmet and Renova. The field for the Saturday handicap has not been announced.

After six days of the spring season, Jerry Lambert tops the jockey standings with eight victories. He rode Native Diver to the mount's 31st stakes victory Saturday in the $16,250 San Francisco Mile.

Native Diver ran the distance in 1:35 1-5 to edge out Perris by a head. The winner paid $3.20, $2.80 and $2.40. Native Diver was running with the top weight of his career, 133 pounds, in the handicap event.

Edwards. "We'd hoped to shoot better and didn't anticipate losing the ball as many times on turnovers."

Pacific had 10 turnovers to UCLA's nine.

UCLA's Lucius Allen and Mike Warren, who scored 13 and 12 points, joined Alcindor, Fox and David Lattin of Texas Western on the all-tournament team. Alcindor, who scored 29 against Wyoming Friday despite sitting out 12 minutes in the 109-60 runaway, was named the most outstanding player.

Lattin scored 34 points for Texas Western, officially called the University of Texas at El Paso. He was held to 13 Friday night when Pacific defeated Texas Western 72-63.

Texas Western finished the season at 22-6 to Wyoming's 15-14.

Playoff Time In NBA

By U P INTERNATIONAL

Eight teams are planning for the playoffs and the other two for a coin flip in the National Basketball Association.

The 81-game regular season that eliminates only two clubs from the playoffs —the last place clubs (Detroit and Baltimore) in each division —ended yesterday and the playoffs will start tomorrow.

It'll be Cincinnati at Philadelphia, New York at Boston, Los Angeles at San Francisco and Chicago at St. Louis in the opening games of the playoffs.

Meanwhile, Detroit and Baltimore will flip a coin to decide which team gets first choice in the upcoming draft. Last year the Pistons lost the flip to New York and had to "settle" for Dave Bing —now they hope to win it and grab Jimmy Walker to give them a terrific guard combo.

Philadelphia edged Baltimore, 132-129, Boston whipped New York 124-112, Chicago topped Los Angeles 122-109 and San Francisco topped Detroit, 135-127 in the final day of activity.

The 76ers victory enabled them to complete the most successful season in pro basketball history as Wilt Chamberlain scored 37 points and pulled down 30 rebounds. The 76ers finished with an incredible 68-13 record for an .480 percentage.

Boston, finishing second to the 76ers during the regular season for the second straight year, topped New York for the 19th straight time over the past two years.

Sam Jones scored 29 for the Celtics.

Chicago completed the best year for an expansion team in sports history as it beat Los Angeles behind Bob Boozer's 24 point total. Chicago won 33 games and made the playoffs while most experts figured they'd be lucky to win 15.

Raiders Play A Good Brand Of Basketball

For football players they're not bad basketball players.

The Oakland Raiders All-Stars, sparked with a big boom by 6-5 Roger Hagberg, rallied in the last quarter to down Mill Valley Boys Club, 83-79, at College of Marin yesterday in a benefit game for the Mill Valley Boys Club.

Hagberg, ripped in 43 points and got lots of help on top of it from the Buffalo Bill duo of Art Powell and Tom Flores, with 20 and 11 points respectively.

Steve Anderson has 21 points while Brad Busch had 20 and Jay Johnson 19 for Mill Valley. Kansas City Chief end Reg Carolan added nine points.

Mill Valley led most of the game, grabbing a 22-14 first-period lead. The Raiders tied it up, 42-42, at the half but Mill Valley waltzed into the final period with a 67-54 lead. And they saw it twitter away in the final stanza on a 27-12 Oakland blitz.

In the preliminary eighth grade game, Mount Carmel topped Edna McGuire, 33-24. The halftime game of fourth graders ended in a 4-4 deadlock.

Seal Playoff Bid Looking Better With 4-1 Victory

OAKLAND (AP) — The California Seals beat the Vancouver Canucks 4-1 yesterday afternoon, their third Western Hockey League victory at home and their second straight over the Canucks.

The win gave the Seals a four point edge over Los Angeles and Victoria for fourth place playoff position in the league.

The Seals scored first on a shot by Pete Panagabko at 16:46. The Canucks tied it when Brian Hextall intercepted a wild pass and went in unassisted.

The clubs played evenly in the second period without a score.

But the Seals exploded for three goals in the final 20 minutes to wrap up the game with goals by Ed Hoekstra, Danny Belisle and George Swarbrick.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS STAR

Cager May Be Early Pro

NEW YORK (AP) — The gleam in Walt Frazier's eye is as bright as his basketball future when Southern Illinois' 6-foot-3 sparkplug talks about his 12-pound protege.

"My son will be four weeks old tomorrow," Frazier said after pacing the Salukis to the National Invitation Tournament championship last Saturday. "He weighed eight pounds, nine ounces when he was born — but the last time I checked he was up to 12 pounds.

"He might be a football player. I'll just let him make his own decision."

Whatever course Walt Frazier III chooses to follow in time to come, he figures prominently in Walt Frazier II's plans for the immediate future.

The Southern Illinois star, who earned the NIT's Most Valuable Player Award with 21 points, 11 rebounds and five assists in the Salukis' 71-56 conquest of Marquette for the title, must decide soon whether to play next season as a collegian or a professional.

Frazier, a junior, is eligible for next month's National Basketball Association draft because his college class graduates this year. The Atlanta native sat out the 1965-66 season because of scholastic difficulties. But he has come back to lead the Salukis to their finest season ever (24-2) and gain Little All-America honors.

"I don't know yet what I'll do," he said. "I want to finish school, but I need money now that I've got a family. My ambition is to be a pro."

"He could make it as a pro right now," said Harry Gallatin, the former Southern Illinois and NBA coach who watched Frazier's scoring, rebounding and playmaking oust touted Duke and surprisingly-strong Rutgers on the way to the NIT crown.

"He's an All-America — and I mean big-time," said Duke Coach Vic Bubas. "He's one of the best 10 I've seen."

Frazier, operating with equal efficiency from either the backcourt, the corner or underneath the basket, scored 88 points in the Salukis' four-game sweep to the title and also had 52 rebounds and 19 assists.

His cool determination and drive brought SIU from 11 points behind in both the 79-70 semifinal victory over Rutgers and the Saturday finael. "He can go unnoticed out there until the going gets sticky," said a Southern Illinois aide. "Then he becomes a truly great ballplayer."

Bob Lloyd of Rutgers outscored Fraizer in NIT play, setting a four-game record of 129 points. So did George Stone, Marshall's 6-foot-7 outside hotshot. But Frazier was a solid choice for the MVP trophy after his all-around performance before a capacity crowd of 18,499 at Madison Square Garden.

Morehead Going Far; In Distance, That Is

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The pitchers are going further in the spring training exhibitions now, but few of them are going as far as Dave Morehead.

Morehead, a Boston right-hander who has won only one game since he threw a no-hitter against the Cleveland Indians Sept. 16, 1965, has been optioned to Toronto of the International League.

He was bothered with arm trouble most of last season and had a 1-2 record. He was bombed for 10 runs in 2 1-3 innings by the New York Mets last Thursday in his only exhibition appearance this season.

"We had to send him where he can get a chance to pitch," Boston Manager Dick Williams said yesterday in Winter Haven, Fla. "When he shows us that he's okay, we'll call him back."

But while Williams was disappointed with Morehead's performance, he got some good news from another quarter — slugger Tony Coniglairo is on his way back.

"Tony should be swinging a bat in a week and playing in two weeks," Red Sox physician Dr. Thomas Tierney said after examining Conigliaro in Boston.

Conigliaro suffered a hairline fracture of the shoulder when hit by a pitch in batting practice Saturday. He was flown to Boston for an examination, and returned to the team yesterday.

He didn't make it back in time for the game, but the Red Sox still pulled out a 7-6 decision over Detroit.

In the other Florida exhibitions, the New York Yankees beat the Mets 1-0 in Fort Lauderdale, St. Louis took the Chicago White Sox 7-5 at St. Petersburg, Houston nipped Pittsburgh 2-1 in 10 innings at Fort Myers, Cincinnati blanked Atlanta 4-0 in six innings at West Palm Beach, Los Angeles topped Baltimore 8-6 at Miami, and Philadelphia shut out Washington 4-0 at Clearwater.

Cleveland blasted California 8-2 at Tucson, Ariz., and San Francisco topped the Chicago Cubs 8-5 at Phoenix, Ariz. Kansas City edged Minnesota 5-4 in 10 innings in Caracas, Venezuela.

More Winners Than Losers In Market

NEW YORK (AP) — A few more stocks were up than down as the stock market closed today. Trading was fairly active.

Volume for the first four hours was 6.33 million shares compared with 7.17 million Friday.

RCA and other color television set makers were weak on news that RCA was cutting back production of the sets and laying off 2,900 workers.

RCA dropped about 2 points, Zenith about 1½ and Magnavox almost a point.

Although labor contract bargaining sessions don't begin until July, worry about a possible strike prevaded Wall Street. General Motors lost more than a point, Chrysler a point, Ford and American Motors fractions.

IBM dropped about 3 points, International Telephone and Jones & Laughlin around 2.

Down a point or so were Chrysler, General Motors, Anaconda, Du Pont and General Electric.

Gulf & Western Industries paced the list on volume and lost more than a point.

Also very active, Parke, Davis rose about 2, U.S. Industries, Florida Power and Outboard Marine a point or so.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange. Trading was active.

Overcharges In Phone Calls

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The California Public Utilities Commission today in a brief filed in Washington, D.C., told the Federal Communications Commission that American Telephone & Telegraph Company overcharged customers $459 million last year for California interstate telephone calls.

The Utilities Commission (PUC) recommended reduction of AT&T revenues by that amount and said Bell System still would earn 7 per cent on its rate base without the money. AT&T has requested an 8 per cent rate of return.

Vietnam's northern and southern capitals—Hanoi and Saigon—lie almost as far apart as Boston, Mass., and Charleston, S.C.

Infrared emissions from Jupiter indicate the planet radiates four times as much energy as it gets from the sun.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Growth Of Earnings Can Be Increased By Trading

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "I am 50 years old, single, and wish to build income for retirement during the next 12 years. I have $2,000 in E bonds, $5,000 in savings, Peoples Gas Light and Coke, Columbia Gas, Ford and Pepsi-Cola General Bottlers. What changes do you suggest?" H. R.

A. I commend you for avoiding speculation and buying stocks of reasonably good quality. Your holdings are suitable for income and moderate appreciation, but they are not in all instances best suited for long-term growth, which should be your objective.

I suggest that you hold Peoples Gas which serves Chicago and some of its suburbs. This company has a long and consistent record of rising earnings and dividends. I believe it will ultimately work out well for you. I advise you to switch your other stock holdings into areas which appear to have greater potential for enhancing your capital at retirement. As replacements, I suggest General Telephone and Electronics, Warner-Lambert and Green Giant.

Q. "We are a young family with two small children. It is possible that my company may transfer me to another area at any time. Do you think we should buy a home with a small down payment and invest the bulk of our $18,000 savings in growth stocks, or buy a house outright? Our town has 3,000 population." N. S.

A. I think that for a young couple you've done extremely well to acquire a substantial nest egg — to say nothing of two small children. I wonder if it is necessary in your circumstances to buy a house at all, which in a small town might be difficult to resell without loss. Even if you could get out even, you would probably have to pay a reasonable commission — which could make your tenure rather costly if you were transferred within a year or two. I suggest you rent a place, if possible, invest half your savings in growth stocks and leave the balance in the bank.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Interest Payments Usually Deductible

By PETER JAMES WIKEL, CPA

Interest paid is deductible if you are legally liable for the debt. You cannot deduct interest you pay for another if you were not legally liable to pay.

Interest is deductible in several places on your tax return.

1. Interest on personal things like your home, automobile, etc., is deductible only if you itemize your deductions on page 3, part IV, of your tax return.

2. Interest on property you rent to others is deductible on Schedule B, Form 1040, page 1, part II - Rent and Royalty Income.

3. Interest paid in connection with your trade or business is deductible on Schedule C, Form 1040, page 1, line 21.

Wikel

The interest is deductible depending on what you use the loan money for, not on the property which secures the loan. For instance, if you borrow money on your home and use it to improve a piece of rental property you own, you can deduct the interest on the Rental Schedule. If you are self-employed and your business borrows money which you use for personal purposes, the interest is not deductible as a business expense on Schedule C, but only as a page 2 deduction if you itemize.

When you buy property or educational services on the installment plan, or use a deferred payment plan of an educational institution for educational services which are provided for a student and the interest is separately stated, you can deduct the interest in the year paid, no matter what the rate. If the extra charges for time buying are only identifieda s "carrying charges" and the interest cannot be determined, you can only deduct the lesser of 6 per cent of the average monthly unpaid balance of your account or the amount of the carrying charges allocable to the year.

To find your average unpaid balance, add the balance of your account at the end of each month in the year and divide by 12. 6 per cent of this figure is your interest.

To figure the carrying charges allocable to the year, divide the total carrying charges on the contract by the number of payments to be made. This gives you a carrying charge per payment. Then multiply this by the number of payments you made in the year. This gives you your allocable carrying charges for the year.

You can deduct only the smaller of the interest or the carrying charges.

New Telephone Building Begun In San Rafael

Foundations have been started for a two-story plus basement addition to Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.'s communications equipment building at 220 Shaver Street, San Rafael.

The addition will add 12,500 square feet to house long-distance switching equipment.

"This project," said Troy E. Lewis, PT&T's San Rafael manager, "will benefit all Bay Area telephone users by augmenting long-distance equipment already in use throughout this growing region."

He said the over-all $1.6 million project is scheduled for completion in late summer of 1968.

THIS IS National Poison Prevention Week and the Marin County Pharmaceutical Association is urging these precautions to combat the toll of 500,000 Americans who are expected to be accidentally poisoned this year: Make sure all medicines are out of the reach of children. Lock up household cleansing agents and store away garden chemicals. Do not leave chemicals and poisonous materials in unmarked bottles.

Mall Plans For Tiburon Outlined

Plans to make a pedestrian mall of Tiburon's Main Street were set bubbling again Saturday when the Tiburon city manager outlined to the Main Street Merchants Association the pluses, minuses and how-tos of creating a mall.

The association's executive committee wants to meet this week with the Tiburon Chamber of Commerce directors and any other interested parties, association president Thomas J. Belton said.

City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose said the only major physical problem in closing Main Street to vehicles would be routing traffic off Corinthian Island. He said an extension could be built between Juanita and Alcatraz avenues which would be an improvement over the present route for traffic leaving the island.

Main Street, small, narrow and picturesque, is well suited to conversion to a mall, Rose said. Traffic moves with difficulty on the street and a mall would unify the two sides by removing the traffic barrier, he said.

Belton said the merchants are strongly in favor of the mall. Aim of this week's joint meeting will be to draft a request for the city council to create it.

Ford Attacks Social Security

SANTA BARBARA (UPI) — House Minority Leader Gerald R. Ford, R-Mich., used the weekend convention of the California College Republicans to criticize President Johnson's handling of Social Security.

During a Saturday luncheon speech, Ford said the President "has a very ambitious plan that is inequitable to young people."

Ford told the students, "If you start paying social security taxes when you become 21 years old and pay in for 44 years of work at today's tax levels, you will have contributed $33,496 into the fund.

"If you live the expected 13 years after retiring at age 65," he added, "You will collect just $19,704 in benefits.

Negroes Plan Rights Funds

NEW YORK (AP) — Forty-seven of the nation's wealthiest and most prominent Negroes have agreed to try to raise a million dollars a year to provide legal aid in civil rights cases involving both Negroes and whites.

The group was founded Saturday at the Harvard Club in New York, Jack Greenberg, head of the NAACP legal defense fund. said last night in a telephone interview from Washington.

Plans call for recruiting 1,000 Negro men and women to pledge $1,000 annually to the fund.

The fund raisers organized themselves as the National Negro Business and Professional Committee for the Legal Defense Fund, Greenberg said.

Social Security Against Cards To Cash Checks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Social Security Administration wishes America's trusting merchants would stop accepting Social Security cards as identification for check cashing purposes.

That little card, Social Security Commissioner Robert M. Ball said today, is not a guarantee of its bearer's identity. Millions of dollars worth of bad checks are cashed each year by persons presenting bogus Social Security cards, he said.

Among the institutions refusing to accept them as positive identification, Ball said, is the Social Security Administration. When a person makes a claim for Social Security benefits, he said, some other verifiable form of identification is demanded.

Employee Unions Slap At Reagan

SAN JOSE (UPI)—Gov. Ronald Reagan's administration has been charged with "reactionary, destructive policies" by a conference of state employee unions for cutting back more than 2,600 Department of Mental Hygiene positions.

In a resolution passed Saturday, representatives of state employee unions affiliated with the American Federation of State, County and Municipal employes, AFL-CIO, called for "all organized labor to oppose and protest this retrogressive program of the governor by every means available."

Nurses and psychiatric technicians at the San Jose conference insisted the personnel cuts meant that the chronically ill patients only will be able to receive custodial care, rather than any treatment or therapy.

Civil Service Sets Trainee Examinations

The Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, Naval Weapons Station, Concord, plans to hold examinations for trainees in mathematics, metallurgy, chemistry, physics and civil, mechanical, electrical and electronics engineering.

Forms may be obtained from J. J. WcWhorter, U.S. Post Office, Civil Service Examiner, San Rafael.

U.S. Pressing For Recess Of Disarmament Meeting

GENEVA (AP) — The United States is pressing for an immediate recess of the 17-nation disarmament conference only four weeks after the start of the current session, an informed source reported today.

According to an informant, the Soviet Union, which is cochairman of the conference with the United States, has thus far not agreed. The nonaligned members of the conference have just been informed of the American proposal, the source said, and have not yet reacted.

The Russians are reported to have told the United States they will go along with the wish of the majority. Officially, the United States argues that since the conference normally takes a brief Easter recess, it will not be worth resuming discussions for several weeks before the traditional spring recess. According to the source, the United States would like the conference to reassemble in Geneva in early May.

Terra Linda High Hit By Burglars

Burglars, apparently after student records, broke into Terra Linda High School at 320 Nova Albion Way, San Rafael, Saturday night and scattered contents of desks and file cabinets around the main office.

Police found the office door pried open and the copying machine running. Entry to the school was through a cafeteria door.

Cabbie Halts Fare On Bridge

A cab-driver stopped his fare from jumping off the Golden Gate Bridge Friday.

Stanley James Campbell, a San Francisco cabbie who lives at 19 Bernard Street, Mill Valley, told California Highway Patrol he picked up Mrs. Marilyn Lee Babian, 24, of San Francisco in downtown San Francisco. She told him to drive toward Sausalito.

But when he stopped at the toll lanes about 6:30 p.m., she jumped out and ran for the bridge. Campbell alerted the toll-taker, then pursued his fare to the end of the bridge, where he jumped out of his cab and grabbed her before she could jump.

Patrol officer Richard A. Chelemedo, who questioned the woman, said she appeared disturbed over domestic problems.

Suitcase Stolen

Jean B. Totaro of 31 Princess Avenue, Sausalito, complained to Marin sheriff's deputies Saturday that her suitcase containing an assortment of clothing was stolen from outside her room as she was checking into the Hi-Ho Motel, 707A Redwood Highway, Alto. She placed the loss at $75.

Judge Denies A New Trial For Baker

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Dist. Court Judge Oliver Gasch denied today a new trial for Bobby Baker, former secretary to Senate Democrats who was convicted Jan. 29 on charges of income tax evasion, theft and conspiracy.

In seeking a new trial, his attorneys raised questions about the selection of the jury. They contended that the foreman, James Buchanan, concealed his status as a reserve officer for the Metropolitan Police of the District of Columbia.

In his decision, Gasch noted that Buchanan's service was "completely voluntary and without compensation."

Gasch said Buchanan served as a reserve officer only on specific occasion and did not intentionally conceal any material facts.

Baker's attorneys also contended that prospective jurors were questioned without Baker and his attorneys being present. They contended also that additional jurors were summoned in an unauthorized manner.

But Judge Gasch said both the jury questioning and summoning were in accordance with the law.

Court Ruling In Favor Of Experiments

TRENTON, N.J. (AP) — In a case stemming from cancer experiments on chickens, the State Supreme Court ruled 6-0 today that high school students may experiment on live animals for educational purposes.

The Supreme Court affirmed a ruling by Essex County Court Judge Charles S. Barrett, who had held that the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals has no right to prosecute institutions authorized by the State Health Department to conduct animal experimentation.

The New Jersey SPCA filed the suit against the East Orange Board of Education. It charged that experiments conducted in 1964 by Barry Fugere, an honor student at East Orange High School, violated state law which bars needless cruelty to animals.

In Fugere's experiments, two of the four chickens injected with a cancer virus died after developing tumors.

Battery Stolen

Joseph L. Flores, 2 Terrace Avenue, Kentfield, Apt. 3, told Tiburon sheriff's deputies the battery was stolen from his car while it was parked at the merchants parking lot on Tiburon Boulevard between 8:30 and 9: p.m. Saturday.

Heed These Warnings For Highway Survival

Marin has opened the year 1967 with a bang. Highway fatalities this year are running far ahead of schedule.

Safety efforts by highway engineers and designers, a beefed-up highway patrol, and constant warnings by the news media have failed to cut down substantially on the highway toll.

However, the campaign to save lives on our freeways cannot be given up as a lost cause.

The California State Automobile Assn. has come up with more tips on how to increase your chances of surviving the vacation trip this summer.

If your motor stalls, guide your car off the traveled portion of the road. If you have to get out of your car when it is parked, don't get out on the traffic side.

Equip your car with travel essentials such as flashlight, jack, tools, chemical fire extinguisher, first-aid kit, and a trouble light.

Get children securely seated, and see that they stay put.

Guard against highway hypnosis by keeping eyes roving to avoid a fixed straight-ahead stare. Skip the tranquilizers and stay-awake pills; they can be deadly because they may either dull or overactivate your senses.

Stop the car and take a rest at least every two hours.

Eat lightly to avoid overstuffing and drowsiness.

Be extra careful at night. Slow down at least 10 miles an hour below your daytime speed.

Always signal before changing lanes to pass, and allow plenty of room for this maneuver.

Keep pace with traffic. The driver who goes faster or slower than the normal speed of traffic causes congestion and increases the hazard.

Drive sensibly on freeway access roads and use to good advantage the speed-changing lanes entering and leaving the freeway. Remember to enter and leave at a speed in tune with the traffic. Don't enter from a standing start.

To these admonitions, Capt. Theodore Parnow of the California Highway Patrol would add another important warning—slippery pavement.

The captain attributes much of the increase in the Marin death toll this year to the increase in rainfall. Patrolmen are amazed at the number of drivers who ignore the slippery condition of the highway during rain. They continue to breeze along at dry-weather speed.

We cannot emphazize too strongly the Captain's warning: Slow down and exercise extra caution when it's raining!

Chemicals Should Help, Not Hurt

This is National Poison Prevention Week, and William Bacon, president of Marin Pharmaceutical Assn., asks all of us to join in its observance by helping reduce preventable accidents.

Make sure medicines, cleansing agents, and garden chemicals are out of a child's reach. Do not leave chemicals or poisonous materials in unmarked bottles.

Almost a half million Americans are accidentally poisoned each year, and every accident could have been avoided with proper care.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Veysey Bill Could Answer Agriculture Labor Problems

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The state legislature this year will have the opportunity of developing an entirely new concept of state participation in agricultural labor disputes.

Assemblyman Victor V. Veysey, R-Brawley, who comes from one of California's leading agricultural areas, and one which has been affected in the past by arguments between agricultural employers and workers, has introduced AB 1163, which authorizes the state Board of Agriculture to make investigations, conduct hearings, and make recommendations to the governor concerning agricultural and other labor disputes affecting the public interest.

THE BILL further establishes an agricultural conciliation service, to come under the supervision of the Department of General Services, authorizes assignment of a conciliator from the service to investigate and mediate labor disputes provided any bonafide party requests such intervention, and on recommendation of the state Board of Agriculture to proffer conciliation services to both parties when a work stoppage is threatened and neither party requests intervention.

Further, the bill authorizes arbitration on such terms as all parties may agree upon, and provides that conciliators shall endeavor to settle disputes concerning the wages, hours or other conditions of employment.

The conciliators also could settle questions involving representation by such means as the parties to the dispute may agree upon, including but not limited to conciliation, mediation, or arbitration.

THE VEYSEY measure covers a wide range of activity, which could be of major assistance in taking care of some of the agricultural disputes which during the past few years have threatened certain segments of California production.

The strikes in the main have been the result of attempts on the part of organizers who have been attempting to establish an agricultural workers union.

Farm workers unions are nothing new in California history, but, so far, attempts to set one up as a permanent and responsible organization in the state's labor picture have been futile.

SIMILAR attempts in other states likewise have not worked out as expected, according to some labor leaders here who have been involved with organization work.

Primary roadblock to an agricultural workers union is the mobility of farm workers, and the fact that they are not consistent in maintaining membership through the payment of dues, which are necessary to run the union.

ON THE OTHER HAND, workers need some medium whereby their requests can be made known. This type of medium exists in California today only sporadically.

The employer also at times needs the means of dealing with workers to avoid costly strikes fomented by organizers, thereby preventing crops from being wasted.

The Veysey bill would appear to have at least some of the answers to this problem.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Handy Facts On Those Poisons

Editor, Independent-Journal:

During this week the Marin County Pharmaceutical Association will be busy informing the public about National Poison Prevention Week. Over half a million Americans, mostly children, will be accidentally poisoned this year. That's about one a minute. . . .

What makes this information particularly appalling is that almost all accidental poisonings among children are preventable.

Eight basic steps of poison prevention are:

1. Keep all drugs, poisonous substances, and household chemicals out of the reach of children.
2. Do not store nonedible products on shelves used for storing food.
3. Do not transfer poisonous substances to unlabeled containers.
4. Never re-use containers of chemical substances.
5. Do not leave discarded medicines where children or pets might get at them.
6. Never tell children you are giving them candy when you are actually giving them medicine.
7. Read labels before using chemical products.
8. Never give or take medicines in the dark.

Standards Are Key Questions

Editor, Independent-Journal:

A recent letter to the Independent-Journal, called "An Open Mind For Hirings," by R. Greenblat of Fairfax, does not call for an answer but, "the man who says nothing consents," and Mr. Greenblat's opinion could possibly cause a lessening of confidence on the part of residents in Marin County, and particularly Corte Madera, in regard to volunteer fire departments and the selection of paid firemen.

The article in question would have your readers conclude Corte Madera recently conducted an open test solely for the benefit of one or two members of the Corte Madera Volunteer Fire Department. The fact is that a man living in San Rafael (formerly of Stockton) was selected. Also, the opinion that the test wasted taxpayers money and the time of those tested is not fact . . .

Mr. Greenblat's statement that Corte Madera should limit the test to members of the Corte Madera Volunteer Fire Department, although said with criticism, is nevertheless sound because the fact is that the volunteers are already trained to operate all emergency equipment, are quite familiar with the city and have served the people of Corte Madera voluntarily. They have proven, not by the solution of an algebraic problem or the definition of a four-syllable word, but literally under fire that they are capable in their efforts to protect the lives and property of their neighbors. This, in fact, is a true test; nevertheless, established standards must be met but let no one be persuaded that those standards were at any time ignored at the expense and welfare of Corte Maderans.

Saigon Hospital In Need Of Help

Editor, Independent-Journal:

My name is Jerry Ball. I am employed in San Francisco by S & C Ford and I reside in Greenbrae. I was sent to Saigon by my company to establish a local office for my company.

After being in Saigon for approximately two weeks I decided that I needed some medical advice . . . I was told that the only facility available to civilian Americans was the Seventh-day Adventist Hospital. I proceeded to this "hospital" and was appalled at what I saw. This is a converted house that is staffed by two American doctors and one American nurse, together with many Vietnamese so-called "student nurses" who have absolutely no formal training other than what they can learn here. By American standards, this "hospital" is equipped to handle no more than 20 patients but is housing approximately two hundred, all Vietnamese. A feeble attempt is made at cleanliness, but due to the high cost of soap and disinfectants, much is left to be desired. Flies and roaches abound . . . They have been out of intravenous penicillin for over two months and have no means to obtain same from the States. The strongest oral pain killer available in this "hospital" is aspirin . . .

I am not a crusader, nor did I come here with this intention in mind, but I feel that something must be done to help these people. Our government is spending approximately $1,000,000 per hour in Vietnam on the war effort. Surely some small portion can be directed to help this type of institution. Certainly the health and welfare of the Vietnamese civilians is an important factor, perhaps as important as defeating the Viet Cong.

Unfortunately, dollar contributions cannot be sent through the mails due to currency restrictions; but certainly some of our large drug manufacturers could donate supplies to a worthy organization such as this. I would be interested in any comments from you and will be here a short time longer at the Caravelle Hotel in Saigon.

What About The Student Shifts?

Editor, Independent Journal:

As interested citizens and taxpayers of the Sausalito School District, we are concerned about our public school system and program.

We understand there have been somewhere in the neighborhood of one hundred and fifty (150) or more Sauusalito children withdrawn from our school system and sent elsewhere for their schooling since the opening of school in September.

We consider this a trend and wonder why?

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

JEROME KERN, who wrote some of the most beautiful melodies of our time ("Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," "Who," "And When I Tell Them," and "Just the Way You Look Tonight") was, with justification, a complete autocrat backstage. Woe betide any lyricist or songbird who tried to tamper with his tempo, or change a single note! "It's easy to intimidate people," admitted Kern. "When they're trying to make you change anything, all you have to do is look them straight in the eye and demand, 'WHY?' That almost always stops them dead in their tracks."

LBJ's Talk In Tennessee Total Vietnam Committment

WASHINGTON—If there was any doubt anywhere here or in Saigon or in Moscow or in the mind of Ho Chi Minh that the United States is totally and irreversibly committed to defeating the aggression against South Vietnam, it is now removed.

It is removed with finality by the commitments which President Johnson made before the Tennessee legislature in an address which was the fullest and most effective exposition of what is at stake in the Vietnam war to come from the White House.

IN MY JUDGMENT there has never been any real reason to believe that the government would be so persuaded by its critics, so pressured by foreign opinion, or so hurt on the battlefield that it would seek to find a way to quit "to save face" by a disguised appeasement.

But these words which the President spoke to the world this week are conclusive:

"We shall stay the course . . . I wish it were within my power to assure that all in Hanoi could hear one simple message — America is committed to the defense of South Vietnam until an honorable peace can be negotiated."

I AM CONVINCED that this commitment reflects the reluctant but preponderant assent of the American people, and that even if the going gets harder this public support will not crumble.

It reflects the reluctant but preponderant assent of the Congress, and despite the Fulbrights and the Morses, this support will endure.

It reflects the deep, sober, long-pondered conviction of the President that in riskfully resisting aggression at its start in Vietnam the United States is averting worse war under worse conditions in the future.

If any decision by any President was ever more divorced from politics or any partisan consideration, it is President Johnson's decision to commit large American forces to the successful defense of South Vietnam.

HE IS NOT GOING to step back. He is not going to waver. He is not going to be influenced by any low popularity rating in the opinion polls. Mr. Johnson sees it as his responsibility to protect the safety of the nation and he is prepared to discharge this responsibility even if it risks his re-election.

The opponents of the decision to stay the course have always sought to blur the argument that it is vital to the peace of the world to resist aggression in Asia. They suggest that, while the free world made a mistake in not resisting the aggression in Europe which brought on World War II, it would be no mistake to do the same in Asia.

It is well that the President is now meeting this false contention head-on. He says, and I think rightly, that the prospect of a really peaceful world can only be achieved by a concrete demonstration that aggression across international frontiers is no longer an acceptable means of political change.

AND WHAT WOULD BE the consequences if we let this new aggression succeed? Mr. Johnson does not overstate it when he replies to this question in these words: "If we faltered, the forces of chaos would scent victory and decades of strife and aggression would stretch endlessly before us."

Of course, there is reluctance in the mind of the President and in the minds of the American people. No President and no nation can relish the pain and burden which Vietnam imposes.

But the United States cannot live in safety while aggression pushes the world to the brink of chaos.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Mid-April Hanoi Offensive Seen

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — In preparation for his strategy meetings in Guam this past weekend, President Johnson was warned to expect two new offensives against the administration's expanding war efforts.

Both attacks — a North Vietnam military offensive and intensified anti-war demonstrations in the U.S. — will be launched almost simultaneously in mid-April.

Timing of these drives, while the President attends the summit meeting in Latin America, is believed to be more by design than coincidence.

AT A WHITE House planning session for his trip, the President was told by his military advisers that a two-pronged military offensive by Hanoi is expected in the central and northern areas of South Vietnam when the rainy season begins next month.

More than 35,000 North Vietnam troops are poised in the Red sanctuary in Cambodia prepared to strike across the border into the 2nd Corps area with the support of heavy artillery and rockets.

This Red offensive, which could develop into the largest ground battle of the war, is expected to be supported by a second North Vietnam drive across the demilitarized zone into the First Corps area of northern South Vietnam.

A BUILDUP of from 25,000 to 30,000 enemy troops north of the demilitarized area has taken place since January, despite stepped up U.S. bombing raids and attacks by heavy artillery and naval guns.

The latest intelligence from the U.S. military command in Saigon pinpoints April 8 to 15 as the jumping-off time for the North Vietnam offensive.

This is the same period picked by the Spring Mobilization Movement and the Student Anti-Vietnam Committee for draft demonstrations throughout the U.S.

Government informants, who sat in on the planning sessions of these groups in Cleveland last month, revealed that Rev. James Bevel, the principal organizer, expects a half million at the two wind-up rallies in New York and San Francisco on April 15.

Student demonstrators, who will launch the anti-Vietnam war rallies a week earlier on college campuses, will be brought to both cities in hundreds of buses and trains. There the demonstrators will join with peace, civil rights and Communist groups to demand a halt to U. S. bombing of North Vietnam.

THE OFFENSIVES IN both the U. S. and Vietnam are being timed to take full advantage of the propaganda expected from Bertrand Russell's war crimes trial scheduled to get underway in Paris on March 27.

This international kangaroo court is rigged to convict President Johnson and his top aides of war crimes in Vietnam.

So well orchestrated is this anti-U. S. propaganda attack that student and other anti-Vietnam war groups in the U.S., Europe and Latin America already have their signs and leaflets printed hailing the conviction of U.S. authorities by the pro-Soviet Russell group.

Administration insiders say these Vietnam developments, although disturbing to the President, have only reinforced his conviction that he is on the right track in Vietnam.

They say also that the President for the first time is seriously considering permitting air attacks against North Vietnam troop concentrations and supply routes in Cambodia.

Employees Of County Have Learned Their Lessons Well

Good county employees know how to sit up and speak when ordered, lie down and play dead and do other tricks on command of the board of supervisors.

Last Tuesday's meeting of the board of supervisors was a fine display of how highly these talents have been developed.

THE FIRST DISCUSSION of the afternoon concerned abatement of a Forest Knolls store that was gutted by fire 13 long months ago and has been and eyesore ever since.

The owner, rather than tidy up the property, has been trying to sell it and a real estate agent allowed there might be a buyer in about 30 days. The board then voted 4-1 for a 30-day delay, giving as the main reason the lack of adequate information on condition of the building presented by the county staff.

The supervisors said this even after seeing pictures of the building taken by the Department of Public Works, and the board was reminded that they actually ordered abatement of the building already last August.

BUT TUESDAY, 13 months after the fire, all but Supervisor Peter H. Behr declared they did not know enough about the building to order abatement.

You can be sure that no one in county employ asked what information the board had acted upon in August when it first ordered abatement. County employees are too well trained for that.

Later in the day, Supervisor Thomas T. Storer surprised fellow supervisors by saying he had asked preparation of an emergency ordinance that would prevent destruction of Indian mounds in the county and that he was going to present it for adoption.

THIS DREW sharp criticism from Supervisors John F. McInnis and Ernest N. Kettenhofen who attacked Storer for putting up an ordinance fellow supervisors had neither seen nor been warned of. Chairman Storer called an abrupt recess to cut off the attack.

What happened when the board reconvened? An attorney from the county counsel's office apologized to supervisors for preparing the ordinance.

You might wonder how much credit that attorney would have received had the ordinance met with the full pleasure of the board.

Still later last Tuesday, supervisors corrected an "error" evidently compiled by several members of the county staff over the boundaries of agricultural reserves. Land in a reserve can get a big break on property taxes over land that is outside the reserve.

THE CORRECTION voted by supervisors Tuesday included a change in the minutes of the March 1, 1966, minutes and put all of the Silveira home ranch in the reserve, subtracting $1.1 million possible property appraisal from the assessor's tax roll for next fiscal year.

Was there any argument from the county employees who made the "error"?

That is a silly question.

Just Think, Meredith May Have Lost High Office Bid

WASHINGTON—James Meredith's decision not to run against Adam Clayton Powell for the Harlem congressional seat was a disappointment to Republicans everywhere.

There was more at stake than just a congressional seat. A reliable Republican source told me: "The Harlem election was a trial balloon to see if Meredith could pull in enough votes to make him a serious contender for the Presidential nomination. If Meredith did well against Powell, we were going to build him up for the big job. As a matter of fact, we were all set to start promoting a James Meredith-Ronald Reagan ticket for 1968."

"HOW WELL WOULD Meredith have had to do against Powell?"

"He would have had to beat Powell by at least 3-to-1. The day Meredith quit, the polls showed that he was trailing Powell slightly. But many of us felt he would pick up steam in the last two weeks."

"Why do you think there were so many people in Harlem who were opposed to Meredith running against Powell?"

"I think they heard about our presidential plans for him. Many people said Meredith was just going to use the congressional race as a stepping stone to higher office and they resented it. One lady told me, 'When I elect a congressman, I want a congressman, not a Presidential candidate.'"

"DID MEREDITH KNOW you were considering him for higher office?"

"No, we decided not to tell him. It might have confused his campaign."

"Then you were just going to let him get elected to Congress before you revealed what you really had in mind for him?"

"That's it. We wanted to test the exposure, see how he stood up under pressure, how he came over on television. We wanted to be sure he was the right man for the job."

"But what would have happened if Meredith had said he wasn't interested in being the Republican presidential candidate?"

"WE WOULD HAVE drafted him. He couldn't refuse under the circumstances."

"How did you arrive on James Meredith?"

"We never thought of him because we didn't even know he was available. But then when he agreed to run against Powell in Harlem on the Republican ticket, someone said we were wasting him on a congressional seat when we are so desperate for a winner in the big race."

"That was good thinking," I said.

"MEREDITH HAD A LOT going for him. He was a strong campaigner, a familiar face, had a good civil rights record and he hadn't committed himself on Vietnam. With Reagan as his running mate we would keep both the conservatives and the liberals happy."

"Well, what do you think made Meredith change his mind about running for public office?"

"It's hard to say. Maybe he didn't want to get into a primary fight with Romney, or perhaps the Rockefeller people got to him first. In any case the only one who will benefit from his decision not to run is Powell. With Meredith out of the race Powell is bound to win now."

"THAT'S TOUGH LUCK," I said. "Now that Meredith is out of the running for the presidential nomination it doesn't look as though you have anybody."

"Oh, I don't know. There's always Nixon."

Novato Citizens Offered Free TB Test At Schools

The Novato Health Committee on Tuberculosis is urging city residents to go to their area schools April 2 for tuberculin skin tests.

Testing will be from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Loma Verde, Marion, Rancho and West Novato elementary schools. Hamilton Air Force Base residents are requested to go to Pacheco and Meadow Park schools.

Test results will be revealed April 5. Persons over 15 reacting unfavorably to the skin test may get a chest x-ray that day in the Novato Community House, from 3 to 9 p.m.

The testing program was launched by the 16-member committee six months ago after a rise in tuberculosis cases in Novato was noted. The Marin Tuberculosis and Health Association and pharmaceutical groups are assisting.

Market Plan Draws A Blank

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union has refused to lift its objection to Austrian association with the European Common Market, Austrian sources said today after Chancellor Josef Klaus had a final meeting with Premier Alexei N. Kosygin.

Klaus also had an unscheduled 30 - minute meeting with Leonid I. Brezhnev, general secretary of the Soviet Communist party which runs this country.

Klaus goes home Tuesday after a week's visit, during which he has discussed Austria's desire to associate itself with the Common Market.

The Soviet government contends that Austrian neutrality, required by Austria's postwar independence treaty, would be compromised by association with the Common Market.

Mural Of Corte Madera's History Will Be Unveiled

A mural depicting the history of Corte Madera will be officially unveiled tonight in Town Hall at a meeting of the Town Council.

Painting of the mural, which cost $750, is an off-shoot of the town's 50th anniversary celebration last year. Corte Madera artist Kenneth Potter was commissioned by the council last May to do the work.

The eight by eight-and-a-half-foot canvas pictures significant persons and events in the town's history. Illustrated are the early boundaries of the town, the old Corte Madera School, Frank Morrison Pixley, early resident on a 160-acre estate; Benjamin Scouler, the first mayor; Peter Donahue, founder of the San Francisco and North Pacific Railroad; the railroad station and an early hotel, and a scene showing the cutting and shipping of redwoods.

The canvas is done in india ink and acrylic paint, with washes of golden ochre and sepia.

The unveiling will be at 7:30 p.m.

School Bids To Be Opened In Fairfax

Construction bids for White Hill School, to be opened at 4 p.m. tomorrow at the district office, will be presented tomorrow night to the Fairfax School District Board.

Construction is to start March 29 with completion in time for October 1 classes.

The board, meeting at 7:45 p.m., will also hear a progress report on additional site development work for White Hill, ordered two weeks ago.

Several matters relating to the 1967-68 budget will be taken up. Superintendent H. Reginald Hammond will present more budget figures in answer to the board's request to see if cuts can be made to allow hiring more teachers.

Staffing for 1967-68 is also to be discussed. The disposition of two double-classroom portable buildings will also be taken up. Hammond is to have figures on terms of lease-purchase of the units.

Airport, Park Money On Supervisors' List

Marin County Supervisors tomorrow will consider airport funding, park purchases, formation of an Upper Lucas Valley District for fire protection and will open bids on the Community Mental Health Center.

The meeting will begin at 9 a.m. at the Civic Center.

Discussion of an additional allocation of $62,992 in county funds for improvement of the county airport at Novato will be discussed at 9:30 a.m.

Slated for 2 p.m. is discussion of the purchase of the 18-acre Angelo Carrozzi property adjacent to Muir Woods National Monument. The county is being asked to contribute $10,625 toward the $85,000 purchase.

At 3 p.m. the board will hold a public hearing on the proposed formation of a county service area for Upper Lucas Valley. The service area, once formed, could contract with the Marinwood Community Services District for structural fire protection.

Bid opening on the community mental health center is set for 4 p.m. It will be the second call for bids, the first being rejected several weeks ago when just one contractor made an offer.

Nuclear Fuel Line Reported Blown Up

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — An Arab commando organization claimed today it blew up a fuel line supplying the Israeli nuclear reactor at Dimona during a raid last week in which commandos remained 80 hours undetected inside Israel.

The tuition proposal, supported by a 51-to-25 vote, called for adequate student loans and scholarships.

Sidbeck Is Given Life; Crime Detail Revealed

Table Leg Used In Beating

By ROSS DAVIS

Robert Dean Sidbeck, 18, was sentenced to life in state prison today in Marin Superior Court for the bludgeoning murders of a North Marin dairy farm couple.

The handcuffed youth, pale from months in county jail since his October arrest, displayed no emotion when Judge Joseph G. Wilson pronounced judgment.

His mother, Alma Irene Sidbeck, was seated in the courtroom, but neither looked at the other during the court proceeding. She remained in her seat when Sidbeck was led back to jail.

OWN JUDGMENT

In giving Sidbeck life imprisonment instead of the death penalty for the Aug. 29-30 slayings of Mr. and Mrs. Everett F. Zimmerman, Judge Wilson noted that Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales, Deputy Probation Officer Thomas B. Estes and Public Defender Jerome Durham, who represents Sidbeck, all recommended prison.

"It is, however, necessary that I arrive at my own independent judgment," he said. He declared that the Zimmermans, friends and former employers of Sidbeck, had displayed "qualities of kindness and concern (to Sidbeck), and this makes the crime itself all the more shocking."

He said his decision was based mainly on Sidbeck's age and his lack of any previous criminal record.

PROBATION REPORT

Judge Wilson mentioned usual concern over the possibility that any person sentenced to life imprisonment is eligible for parole after seven years, but said, "I cannot take this into consideration" in pronouncing judgment.

A lengthy probation report by Estes made public for the first time that the murder weapon was a table leg, and that Sidbeck contends he killed the couple in their bedroom only after they threatened to gain court custody of his brother and two younger sisters.

Sidbeck claimed that prior to enlisting in the Marine Corps, he

$275,000 Bond Is Sought For New School Buildings

Voters in Bolinas-Stinson School District will go to the polls tomorrow to decide the fate of a $275,000 bond measure proposed to finance district building needs for 10 years.

Polls at Bolinas and Stinson Beach schools will be open from 1 to 7 p.m. the district has 498 registered voters, Principal Keith Oveson reported.

The measure would add about 35 cents to the tax rate initially, Trustee Arthur E. Carpenter said, but the increase would decline to 12 cents by the end of the 20-year payment period. This year's tax rate was $1.20 per $100 assessed valuation.

Trustees hired San Francisco architect William M. Gillis in January to design improvements and additions to school buildings.

Trustees set the bond election after three classrooms were declared unsafe under the state Field Act. The board fears that unification of southern Marin school districts may leave the district "last in line" for new construction unless it has the funds available before unification, Carpenter said.

"Additional classrooms are urgently needed now," according to the argument submitted in favor of the measure. Signed by Mrs. Roberta Patterson and Capt. Dave Edwards, co-chairmen of the bond election committee, the argument noted there had been a 52 per cent increase in school attendance since 1963, and there was a projected growth of 86 per cent by 1980.

The measure, they argued, will provide "a school installation that will be adequate for a long time and the cost will be shared by future residents."

The measure, they said, would make possible purchase of four acres at Bolinas School, six new classrooms at Bolinas, repair of the old Bolinas building and more efficient teaching, administration, maintenance and operation of a single school site after Stinson Beach School is phased out.

No argument was submitted against the measure.

Isolation In Prison Stabbing

A 21-year-old San Quentin inmate was locked in an isolation cell at the prison today pending further investigation into the fatal stabbing of a fellow prisoner.

Herman D. Brown was chief suspect in the murder of Bill Gene Cook, 29, with a prison-made knife during a fight Saturday, said Associate Warden Homer J. Hastings.

Cook had been released from his cell in the south block with other prisoners for the afternoon meal when he was attacked at 2:35 p.m. He died in the prison hospital of chest wounds about half an hour later.

The victim was serving a six months to life term for first degree robbery in Sacramento County and a six months to five years term for destroying prison property in Monterey County. He had been at San Quentin since July 20, 1962.

Brown suffered minor stab wounds in the fight and was treated at the prison hospital. He had been at San Quentin since April 28, 1965, on a six months to 10 years sentence for assault with a deadly weapon in San Joaquin County.

Bizzare Weekend Of LSD 'Trips'

Two men who claimed they were on LSD "trips" gave Larkspur police a bizarre weekend.

One ran naked through the streets, his progress reported to police by a series of telephone calls from amazed residents.

The other battled mightily to escape from the police car after he was picked up.

Police arrested Rodney Davenport, 23, of San Francisco, yesterday at 5:30 p.m. when they found him standing naked at Magnolia and Onyx avenues, after a series of phone calls reported his progress through town.

Gary R. Orchard, 23, of 23 Midway Road, Larkspur, was arrested at 11:45 p.m. Saturday when police found him in an incoherent state at Garden Way and Heather Way.

Stanley C. Kerk of 223 Magnolia Avenue called police at 4:50 p.m. yesterday to report that a man had climbed a wall into his yard, told him "I am going to kill you," then hit him on the jaw, knocking off his glasses. Kerk said the man then jumped a fence and fled.

A few minutes later, Ingrid D. Diaz of 10 La Rosa Way called police to report that a man wearing only slacks had been kneeling, apparently praying, on the tennis courts of Larkspur-Corte Madera School, and that he had grabbed a young girl and held her up in his arms. Mrs. Diaz said she

Keith R. Goldsmith, 23-year-old son of U.S. Commissioner Richard S. Goldsmith of Mill Valley, was arrested on narcotics charges Saturday night that resulted from a warrant signed by his own father.

Young Goldsmith, who is known as Kit and lives at the family home at 21 Birch Avenue, Mill Valley, was one of eight persons — two from Sausalito — arrested in a raid on a San Francisco apartment by state narcotics agents.

They bore a federal warrant issued by Commissioner Goldsmith, sharging sale of LSD.

Goldsmith was arrested in the apartment of Darrow K. Erlin, 22, on Los Palmos Drive in San Francisco when state narcotics agents burst in and arrested everyone there.

Agents said they found LSD and other drugs in the apartment.

Besides Erlin and Goldsmith, also arrested were: Erlin's wife, Eloise, 21; Catlain H. Cisco, 25; Dona L. Humt, 25; of Sausalito; Robert B. Babon, 26, who lives with the Erlins; Donald A. Fredriksson, 40, of Sausalito and Roderick W. Miller, 24, of San Francisco.

Commissioner Goldsmith said today he was attending a wedding reception at midnight Saturday when his son called from jail.

His son told him he had been studying for his final examinations at Stanford University when a man he knew only as "Shawn" telephoned. The two had discussed lighting previously and Shawn offered to give young Goldsmith some literature on lighting, he said.

(Kid Goldsmith travelled to Europe in 1963 with a San Francisco theater group as a behind-the-scenes man on lighting.)

When young Goldsmith went to "Shawn's" apartment the narcotics agents arrived and arrested everyone, he told his father.

Time Holds Up Stiffer Auto Safety

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Federal auto safety officials said today that a lack of time, staff and technology resulted in modification of safety standards for 1968 cars.

Defending the efforts of the new traffic safety agency, they also revealed that auto makers had notified them of safety recall campaigns involving more than a million late model cars.

Dr. William Haddon Jr., administrator of the agency, and Lowell K. Bridwell, acting under secretary of commerce, outlined their problems in testimony to the Senate Commerce Committee.

TOP ENGINEER

The hearing was called after Haddon's former top engineering advisor, William I. Stieglitz resigned in protest earlier this year. Stieglitz charged that Haddon bowed to industry objections in watering down the standards.

Both Haddon and Bridwell denied they received any undue pressure from the auto industry. They contended that the agency did the best job possible and promised that future standards would be far superior to existing ones.

TECHNICAL INFORMATION

They said scientific and technical information was needed to permit the agency to set stringent standards.

"With only 8 borrowed engineers we couldn't go much beyond existing standards," Haddon said.

Bidwell said the agency also was strenthening its check n industry recall campaigns involving cars with potential safety hazards. Of defect warnings involving more than one million cars, Bridwell said 88,000 autos were made by foreign manufacturers.

Johnson Sidestepping Escalation In Talks With South Vietnamese

NIMITZ HILL, Guam (UPI) —President Johnson today held daylong conferences with South Vietnamese leaders who pressed for escalating the war against the Communists. Aides said Johnson avoided that topic and stuck to his plan of discussing chances of an "honorable settlement" of the Southeast Asian conflict.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk said South Vietnamese Premier Nguyen Cao Ky raised a number of military questions in the second of the lunch, afternoon and evening sessions. Rusk said the questions were not answered and the meeting stuck to Johnson's course of reviewing pacification programs and efforts to set peace negotiations in motion.

Johnson emphasized the peaceful purposes of the Guam meeting and the allies ended convinced the war has reached a turning point favorable to them.

But Ky raised his questions on escalation on the theory the North Vietnamese must be hit much harder before their Communist leaders will be willing to talk peace.

Ky clearly wanted heavier blows against Hanoi to convince his enemies, the Communists, cause is hopeless.

"Only then will Hanoi be ready to negotiate," he said

Rusk, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam, agreed that matters on tactics and specific future military moves such as increasing armed manpower did not figure in today's discussions.

Ky and other Saigon leaders were scheduled to return home tomorrow morning. Johnson planned to continue his talks with U.S. officials during part of tomorrow, leaving Guam late in the day.

On his arrival here Johnson said he would discuss military progress and future plans with the South Vietnamese.

"We will review our diplomatic initiatives and we will try to estimate the chances of bringing peace to Vietnam through honorable settlement."

As LBJ arrived, Hanoi said it would "reply with guns" to any new American move. Red China warned it would make "the highest national sacrifice" for North Vietnam and said the Guam meeting spelled "doomsday" for Johnson's administration.

The American and Vietnamese officials set up shop at the concrete two-story Navy headquarters on Nimitz Hill, named for Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, Pacific Fleet Commander in World War II.

Johnson praised the fact that South Vietnam has hammered out a new constitution providing for civilian rule and national elections. Ky brought a copy of the document with him.

Reds Pound Marine Camp With Heavy Mortar Output

SAIGON (UPI)—Communist troops opened a heavy mortar and rocket assault tonight on U.S. Marines below the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) in one of a series of Red offenses coinciding with President Johnson's Guam conference. The Marines fought back in an artillery duel that lit up the skies for several hours.

In another Communist attack a heavily outnumbered armored unit of the U.S. 9th Infantry Division covered itself with glory earlier today by smashing an attack by a Viet Cong regiment that drove to 15 yards of the American positions. The newly arrived "green" Americans killed 224 Communists and lost 5 men dead and 34 wounded. Another 9th Infantry unit ran the enemy death toll to 279.

With the war quickening in tempo, the Communists opened up tonight with 82 millimeter mortar fire near Gio Linh, where big U.S. howitzers—the 175 millimeter Long Toms of World War II—have been firing across the border into the southern part of North Vietnam. Then the Reds blended in their new, Chinese-made 102 millimeter rockets and turned the night a hellish red with explosions.

Early reports indicated the Americans suffered "very light" casualties despite the ferocity of the attack. There were no estimates of Communist dead.

Within the first hour more than 60 rounds of Communist fire had thundered into the American position just south of the DMZ and only a few miles from the South China seacoast.

The Americans struck back within minutes. Artillery and mortar rounds slammed into Communist positions, touching off several explosions. Some of the enemy positions appeared to be in the offlimits DMZ itself.

Jet planes roared in with bombing and strafing attacks carried out by the light of flares and were joined by C47 "dragonships" which licked the air with streaks of red from their rapidfiring Gatling guns.

Evidently the main Communist targets were the U.S. 175 millimeter howitzers which can send high explosive shells 20 miles across the zone into the North. They have been attacked frequently but have not been put out of action.

The air war increased in intensity and American planes bombed the big Thai Nguyen steel plant 36 miles north of Hanoi for the second time in two days, then returned and attacked the Viet Tri thermal power plant 29 miles northwest of Hanoi.

An American spokesman reported three more planes were shot down during the past three days with a loss of one pilot killed and three men missing. The Communists also destroyed or damaged 16 helicopters transporting troops to positions near the Cambodian border.

The three planes shot down brought to 653 the number of U.S. planes reported lost during the war—489 over North Vietnam and 164 over the South. Their total value is estimated between $1.4 billion and $1.9 billion.

Lodge To Be Troubleshooter

GUAM (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge is getting a new diplomatic post as ambassador at large.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk told newsmen today that President Johnson will nominate the outgoing ambassador to South Vietnam for what amounts to an assignment as a diplomatic troubleshooter.

Lodge thus will change places with Ambassador at Large Ellsworth Bunker, Lodge's successor in Saigon.

BIMINI, Bahamas (AP)—Adam Clayton Powell delivered his "victory speech" on Palm Sunday but not to his huge congregation at Harlem's Abyssinian Baptist Church.

Instead of a pulpit, Powell spoke from the white coral steps of the Bimini Hotel. The message was brotherly love.

Some 72 hours before he delivered the sermon, Powell announced he had "reluctantly" decided against returning to Harlem for Palm Sunday. He said he was staying on the island because he feared his possible arrest in New York would bring violence and rioting.

At the Harlem church about 10 members of a black nationalist group who call themselves "Mau Mau" stalked out when the associate pastor, David N. Licorish, warned of "extremist elements in our midst."

The Mau Mau members had distributed leaflets at the door proclaiming their readiness to "prevent Adam Clayton Powell's arrest."

Anti-Maoists Kill Farmers, Paper Says

HONG KONG (AP) — More than 200 farmers in Wei An, in Fukien Province, were killed when pro-Mao Tse-tung troops opened fire on anti-Maoists, the anti-Communist New Life Evening Post reported today.

Quoting arrivals from Foochow, the capital of Fukien, the paper said the anti-Maoist farmers stormed a commune in Wei An to steal grain.

In protest against "the Communist troop brutality," the paper said, farmers in Wei An refused to go to the fields for spring planting.

The newspaper report could not be confirmed by other sources here.

The Hong Kong Star reported a Communist gunboat had captured 40 anti-Maoists trying to flee from Canton to Hong Kong in a boat. The English language newspaper said the information came from wall posters in Canton.

The pro-Mao New China News Agencu claimed widespread support for a Maoist order for the Chinese army to intervene in China's industry.

The order was issued Sunday, accompanied by hints it was designed to oust anti-Maoists entrenched in the nation's major industries. The army was ordered earlier to take a similar role on farms to help sow the spring crop.

Manchester Declines JFK Report Offer From Warren

COMBINED AP & UPI

NEW YORK — Author William Manchester says he refused an invitation by chief Justice Earl Warren to declare that the findings of the Warren Commisison on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy were acceptable to the Kennedys because he felt 'it would be improper."

Manchester, writing in the goes on newsstands tomorrow, issue of Look magazine which gives his account of the story behind the controversy surrounding his book, "The Death of a President."

"Unknown to the press," Manchester writes, "the chief justice had given me security clearance and a desk in the commission's VFW Building offices. There, I had immediate access to all testimony, documents, exhibits and depositions.

"Rather cannily, I thought, the chief justice had also invited me to read a first draft of the report and declare, as a friend of the family, that its findings were acceptable to the Kennedys in every respect.

"Although I had cooperated with him in other ways, I demurred, explainign that I felt it would be improper. I was, after all, a private citizen, and my own inquiry had far to go.

"Unlike Mr. Mark Lane, I also declined an invitation to testify, giving the same reason. I refused to rush to judgment in 1964. More to the point, however, I was working a new and entirely different line."

Lane is the author of "Rush to Judgment," a book critical of the Warren Commission report.

Manchester has stated that he agrees with the main conclusion of the Warren Commission that Lee Harvey Oswald assassinated President Kennedy without accomplices.

In the same article, Manchester says that Mrs. John F. Kennedy at first believed the book, "The Death of a President," would be disregarded by the American public, bound in black and set aside to collect dust on dark library shelves.

She had little inkling the book she commissioned to tell the story of her husband's assassination and the turmoil of governmental change would create an international furor. When the tumult erupted, author William Manchester said "unbelievable charges were made, unforgiveable words spoken and treasured friendships ruptured."

He also accused the former First Lady of inciting Sen. Robert F. Kennedy into a "tigerlike" rage to a point where he demanded the project be abandoned. This in spite of the fact, Manchester said, that both Mrs. Kennedy and the senator had given him written assurances they would not try to censor the manuscript.

Manchester said Mrs. Kennedy "blazed high as a bonfire" before the recent court battle over deletions she demanded from the text. And the author said that was early as mid-1964, he found it "almost impossible to establish any satisfactory professional contact" with either the widow or the senator.

But Manchester retained his admiration and praise of Mrs. Kennedy.

Long after the controversy surrounding the book is forgotten, Manchester said, history would recall that "in our hour of disgrace and confusion, Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy, who had lost more than any of us, held us all together, remained true to the leader we had lost, and, in kindling that Arlington flame, rekindled our national pride."

Tougher Wedding Law In Russia

MOSCOW (AP) — To combat a rising divorce rate, the Soviet government is experimenting with making it tougher to get married.

The six-month period was tried out in one wedding palace in Vilnius, the magazine said, and 146 couples decided not to get married after all.

Meet Ollie Stafford
He sells insurance
He reads 2,616 words per minute
He is not skimming

"Last June, my back was against the wall," says Ollie.

"As a general agent selling insurance, I had to read and act upon a stack of detailed correspondence a foot high every Monday morning, keep up with 150 pages of technical bulletins on tax and law every week—and still spend eight hours a day in the field. I was swamped by my reading."

Now, Ollie breezes through his business reading in an hour a day, reads eight to ten news magazines from cover to cover every week, and has found time to take two professional courses in insurance underwriting—each equivalent to a full semester of college work.

There is nothing miraculous about this change in Ollie's reading ability. He is not a naturally fast reader or an unusually gifted person. Ollie was one of 20,000 Bay Area students of the Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics Institute.

When Ollie enrolled in Reading Dynamics last June, he was reading difficult material at 292 words per minute as measured by the nationally recognized Nelson-Denny standardized reading test. At the end of the eight-week course, the test showed that he could read 2,616 wpm on difficult material—over eight times faster than his starting speed! On novels and other light reading, his rate was far higher.

No Skimming

"More important than speed," says Ollie, "is that my comprehension of the written material is better than ever before. Not only do I finish my business reading in one eighth the time it used to take, I understand and remember much more, even on the most detailed technical material. The Reading Dynamics method is not a skimming technique."

Increased Enjoyment, Too

"My new reading ability means that I can catch up on my pleasure reading, too. Now, I read an average novel every noon in about thirty minutes—and I really enjoy the stories. I become so involved that I feel that I am almost there, witnessing the action."

Our Guarantee To You

Ollie Stafford was one of our better students. You may not learn to read quite as fast as Ollie (and then again you might!), but the Reading Dynamics Institute guarantees that you will at least triple your reading efficiency during the eight-week course—or receive a full tuition refund. Reading efficiency combines rate and comprehension, not speed alone.

Discovered By A Utah Schoolteacher

Evelyn Wood first observed dynamic reading 18 years ago when a university professor read her term paper at an amazing 6,000 words a minute.

Mrs. Wood's curiosity caused her to look for other exceptional readers, and over the next few years, she found 50 people who could read faster than 1,500 words a minute, with fine comprehension, outstanding recall, and great reading satisfaction. She was now sure it was possible to read faster than anyone had thought, but the question of how was not yet answered. It took eight years of toil and research, working with "natural" fast readers before she developed a technique whereby average people learn to read 3 to 10 times faster.

The first Reading Dynamics Institute was opened in Washington, D.C. in September, 1959. Since that time institutes have been opened in 67 cities throughout the country, and over 250,000 people have now taken the course.

Come To Our Free Demonstration

You will see a documented film that includes actual interviews with Washington Senators who have taken the course.

You will see a Reading Dynamics graduate read at amazing speeds from a book he has never seen before and then tell in detail what he has read.

You will learn how we can help you to faster reading, with improved comprehension, greater recall.

Five Eagles Take Flights In Jet Planes

By FRANK FARRARA

Five former fighter pilots, who flew propeller-driven aircraft for Britain in the early days of World War II, got a supersonic ride yesterday from Hamilton Air Force Base.

They were members of the American Eagle squadrons who flew with the British Royal Air Force during the Battle of Britain and later were transferred to the U. S. Army Air Corps.

As a fitting close to a weekend reunion, five stalwarts went aloft as passengers in F-101s piloted by members of the 84th Fighter Interceptor Squadron, the operational fighter unit at the base.

Among them was Nathaniel Marans of 2312 Spanish Trail Road, Tiburon, who flew with Capt. Mike Williams, a veteran of 100 missions in North Vietnam.

A little greyer and a little heavier than they were in their flying days, the Eagles squeezed into parachute rigging, got fitted for helmets and oxygen masks, and were checked out on a flight simulator before taking off.

Then they zoomed down the runway at speeds unheard of in their flying days and soared out of sight.

Maj. Gen. Carroll W. McColpin, a former Eagle Squadron commander and now head of the Fourth Air Force, was host to the reunion.

Jury Selection Continues Today

PEORIA, Ill. (UPI) —The fifth week of the trial of Richard Speck on charges of killing eight nurses began today with four jurors and two alternates needed to complete the panel.

Five men and three women have been seated as jurors and sequestered at Peoria's Hotel Pere Marquette.

Ripon Society Weighs Reagan's Ambitions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The suspicion is dawning on some moderate Republicans that conservative Gov. Ronald Reagan of California may be more than a favorite son candidate for the 1968 GOP presidential nomination.

Latest to acknowledge this is the Ripon Society, a mostly privately financed organization of young Republicans who class themselves as liberals.

'SERIOUS BID'

The Ripon group says in its current "Forum" publication that "signs of a serious presidential bid by California Gov. Ronald Reagan are multiplying quickly." It said he may become the favorite son of several Western states, in addition to entering presidential primaries.

Suggesting that Reagan might inherit Southern support if former Vice President Richard M. Nixon fails to make the nomination grade, the "Forum" added: "It is not unthinkable that a convention with more Southern delegates than the one which nominated Barry Goldwater would give its endorsement to the even more charismatic Reagan."

Reagan has said he will be a favorite son candidate in California but won't campaign outside the state. He will not, however, ask for removal of his name in states where there are free-for-all primaries, he has said.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower said when he met Reagan in Palm Springs, recently that the California governor is qualified for the nation's top job.

'I ADMIRE MOST'

"There are a number of men who would make fine presidents in our party," Eisenhower said. "Gov. Reagan is one of the men I admire most in the world."

Eisenhower went on to say that he and Reagan had discussed Vietnam. The governor has called for an all-out military effort.

Eisenhower's comment was: "I believe in winning wars or settling them as soon as we can on an honorable basis."

Bureacratic Error Leaves Faces Red

STUART, Fla. (AP) — The joy with which officials broke ground for a $48,000 Martin County Courthouse addition turned to chagrin recently when they found the county did not own the land.

"This," said County Engineer Fred L. Bell in a masterpiece of understatement, "sabotages the whole project from the ground floor up."

Hippies Join The Chalk-In

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Hippies from San Francisco's Haight - Ashbury District sprawled on the sidewalks yesterday at the city's invitation to a "chalk-in."

The Recreation and Park Department supplied the chalk, in colors, and invited hundreds of hippies to make a "carpet of color" out of the paved panhandle to Golden Gate Park. Each artist was assigned a four-foot square area.

One colorful design called for "flower power." Slogans were popular. A huge one-eyed bird in one panel carried a pink flower in its beak and said, "Understanding Stops Action." An abstract panel suggested, "Go Navy, Join Now."

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Powell's Pulpit–Steps Of Hotel

BIMINI, Bahamas (AP)—Adam Clayton Powell delivered his "victory speech" on Palm Sunday but not to his huge congregation at Harlem's Abyssinian Baptist Church.

Powell

Instead of a pulpit, Powell spoke from the white coral steps of the Bimini Hotel. The message was brotherly love.

Some 72 hours before he delivered the sermon, Powell announced he had "reluctantly" decided against returning to Harlem for Palm Sunday. He said he was staying on the island because he feared his possible arrest in New York would bring violence and rioting.

At the Harlem church about 10 members of a black nationalist group who call themselves "Mau Mau" stalked out when the associate pastor, David N. Licorish, warned of "extremist elements in our midst."

The Mau Mau members had distributed leaflets at the door proclaiming their readiness to "prevent Adam Clayton Powell's arrest."

Vote Deaths

DJIBOUTI, French Somaliland (AP)—At least three Africans were killed today as French troops and armored cars shot their way into Djibouti's Somali quarter to smash a demonstration protesting yesterday's vote to keep this territory linked to France.

Police reported leaders of the anti-French, Pro-independence Party Movement were arrested. A party spokesman said those arrested included the party's president, Moussa Idris, and 12 members of the territorial assembly.

Call Unlikely

NEW YORK (AP)—The director of the New York City Selective Service System said today that although actor George Hamilton had been reclassified 1A it is "very unlikely" he would be called for active service because of his age, 27.

Folk Music In

Girls Retract Saint's Message

SANTANDER, Spain (AP) — After a series of meetings with Roman Catholic Church officials, four teen-age farm girls have retracted their story that they talked regularly with the Virgin Mary and the archangel St. Michael.

Conchita Gonzalez, who spoke for the girls, told about 1,000 persons last June 18 she had received an important message from St. Michael. Then she led the crowd into a wooded area and had a 10-minute ecstasy during which, she said later, she saw and talked with the archangel.

Anti-Maoists Kill Farmers, Paper Says

HONG KONG (AP) — More than 200 farmers in Wei An, in Fukien Province, were killed when pro-Mao Tse-tung troops opened fire on anti-Maoists, the anti-Communist New Life Evening Post reported today.

Quoting arrivals from Foochow, the capital of Fukien, the paper said the anti-Maoist farmers stormed a commune in Wei An to steal grain.

In protest against "the Communist troop brutality," the paper said, farmers in Wei An refused to go to the fields for spring planting.

The newspaper report could not be confirmed by other sources here.

The Hong Kong Star reported a Communist gunboat had captured 40 anti-Maoists trying to flee from Canton to Hong Kong in a boat. The English language newspaper said the information came from wall posters in Canton.

The pro-Mao New China News Agencu claimed widespread support for a Maoist order for the Chinese army to intervene in China's industry.

The order was issued Sunday, accompanied by hints it was designed to oust anti-Maoists entrenched in the nation's major industries. The army was ordered earlier to take a similar role on farms to help sow the spring crop.

Manchester Declines JFK Report Offer From Warren

COMBINED AP & UPI

NEW YORK — Author William Manchester says he refused an invitation by chief Justice Earl Warren to declare that the findings of the Warren Commisison on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy were acceptable to the Kennedys because he felt 'it would be improper."

Manchester, writing in the goes on newsstands tomorrow, issue of Look magazine which gives his account of the story behind the controversy surrounding his book, "The Death of a President."

"Unknown to the press," Manchester writes, "the chief justice had given me security clearance and a desk in the commission's VFW Building offices. There, I had immediate access to all testimony, documents, exhibits and depositions.

"Rather cannily, I thought, the chief justice had also invited me to read a first draft of the report and declare, as a friend of the family, that its findings were acceptable to the Kennedys in every respect.

"Although I had cooperated with him in other ways, I demurred, explainign that I felt it would be improper. I was, after all, a private citizen, and my own inquiry had far to go.

"Unlike Mr. Mark Lane, I also declined an invitation to testify, giving the same reason. I refused to rush to judgment in 1964. More to the point, however, I was working a new and entirely different line."

Lane is the author of "Rush to Judgment," a book critical of the Warren Commission report.

Manchester has stated that he agrees with the main conclusion of the Warren Commission that Lee Harvey Oswald assassinated President Kennedy without accomplices.

In the same article, Manchester says that Mrs. John F. Kennedy at first believed the book, "The Death of a President," would be disregarded by the American public, bound in black and set aside to collect dust on dark library shelves.

She had little inkling the book she commissioned to tell the story of her husband's assassination and the turmoil of governmental change would create an international furor. When the tumult erupted, author William Manchester said "unbelievable charges were made, unforgiveable words spoken and treasured friendships ruptured."

He also accused the former First Lady of inciting Sen. Robert F. Kennedy into a "tigerlike" rage to a point where he demanded the project be abandoned. This in spite of the fact, Manchester said, that both Mrs. Kennedy and the senator had given him written assurances they would not try to censor the manuscript.

Manchester said Mrs. Kennedy "blazed high as a bonfire" before the recent court battle over deletions she demanded from the text. And the author said that was early as mid-1964, he found it "almost impossible to establish any satisfactory professional contact" with either the widow or the senator.

But Manchester retained his admiration and praise of Mrs. Kennedy.

Long after the controversy surrounding the book is forgotten, Manchester said, history would recall that "in our hour of disgrace and confusion, Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy, who had lost more than any of us, held us all together, remained true to the leader we had lost, and, in kindling that Arlington flame, rekindled our national pride."

Tougher Wedding Law In Russia

MOSCOW (AP) — To combat a rising divorce rate, the Soviet government is experimenting with making it tougher to get married.

The magazine Nedelya — Week — said the two-week waiting period between the application for marriage papers and the wedding will be extended to six months in the cities of Vilnius and Minsk.

The six-month period was tried out in one wedding palace in Vilnius, the magazine said, and 146 couples decided not to get married after all.

Meet Ollie Stafford
He sells insurance
He reads 2,616 words per minute
He is not skimming

"Last June, my back was against the wall," says Ollie.

"As a general agent. selling insurance, I had to read and act upon a stack of detailed correspondence a foot high every Monday morning, keep up with 150 pages of technical bulletins on tax and law every week—and still spend eight hours a day in the field. I was swamped by my reading."

Now, Ollie breezes through his business reading in an hour a day, reads eight to ten news magazines from cover to cover every week, and has found time to take two professional courses in insurance underwriting—each equivalent to a full semester of college work.

There is nothing miraculous about this change in Ollie's reading ability. He is not a naturally fast reader or an unusually gifted person. Ollie was one of 20,000 Bay Area students of the Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics Institute.

When Ollie enrolled in Reading Dynamics last June, he was reading difficult material at 292 words per minute as measured by the nationally recognized Nelson-Denny standardized reading test. At the end of the eight-week course, the test showed that he could read 2,616 wpm on difficult material—over eight times faster than his starting speed! On novels and other light reading, his rate was far higher.

No Skimming

"More important than speed," says Ollie, "is that my comprehension of the written material is better than ever before. Not only do I finish my business reading in one eighth the time it used to take, I understand and remember much more, even on the most detailed technical material. The Reading Dynamics method is not a skimming technique."

Increased Enjoyment, Too

"My new reading ability means that I can catch up on my pleasure reading, too. Now, I read an average novel every noon in about thirty minutes—and I really enjoy the stories. I become so involved that I feel that I am almost there, witnessing the action."

Our Guarantee To You

Ollie Stafford was one of our better students. You may not learn to read quite as fast as Ollie (and then again you might!), but the Reading Dynamics Institute guarantees that you will at least triple your reading efficiency during the eight-week course—or receive a full tuition refund. Reading efficiency combines rate and comprehension, not speed alone.

Discovered By A Utah Schoolteacher

Evelyn Wood first observed dynamic reading 18 years ago when a university professor read her term paper at an amazing 6,000 words a minute.

Mrs. Wood's curiosity caused her to look for other exceptional readers, and over the next few years, she found 50 people who could read faster than 1,500 words a minute, with fine comprehension, outstanding recall, and great reading satisfaction. She was now sure it was possible to read faster than anyone had thought, but the question of how was not yet answered. It took eight years of toil and research, working with "natural" fast readers before she developed a technique whereby average people learn to read 3 to 10 times faster.

The first Reading Dynamics Institute was opened in Washington, D.C. in September, 1959. Since that time institutes have been opened in 67 cities throughout the country, and over 250,000 people have now taken the course.

Come To Our Free Demonstration

You will see a documented film that includes actual interviews with Washington Senators who have taken the course.

You will see a Reading Dynamics graduate read at amazing speeds from a book he has never seen before and then tell in detail what he has read.

You will learn how we can help you to faster reading, with improved comprehension, greater recall.

Five Eagles Take Flights In Jet Planes

By FRANK FARRARA

Five former fighter pilots, who flew propeller-driven aircraft for Britain in the early days of World War II, got a supersonic ride yesterday from Hamilton Air Force Base.

They were members of the American Eagle squadrons who flew with the British Royal Air Force during the Battle of Britain and later were transferred to the U. S. Army Air Corps.

As a fitting close to a weekend reunion, five stalwarts went aloft as passengers in F-101s piloted by members of the 84th Fighter Interceptor Squadron, the operational fighter unit at the base.

Among them was Nathaniel Marans of 2312 Spanish Trail Road, Tiburon, who flew with Capt. Mike Williams, a veteran of 100 missions in North Vietnam.

A little greyer and a little heavier than they were in their flying days, the Eagles squeezed into parachute rigging, got fitted for helmets and oxygen masks, and were checked out on a flight simulator before taking off.

Then they zoomed down the runway at speeds unheard of in their flying days and soared out of sight.

Maj. Gen. Carroll W. McColpin, a former Eagle Squadron commander and now head of the Fourth Air Force, was host to the reunion.

Jury Selection Continues Today

PEORIA, Ill. (UPI) —The fifth week of the trial of Richard Speck on charges of killing eight nurses began today with four jurors and two alternates needed to complete the panel.

Five men and three women have been seated as jurors and sequestered at Peoria's Hotel Pere Marquette.

Ripon Society Weighs Reagan's Ambitions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The suspicion is dawning on some moderate Republicans that conservative Gov. Ronald Reagan of California may be more than a favorite son candidate for the 1968 GOP presidential nomination.

Latest to acknowledge this is the Ripon Society, a mostly privately financed organization of young Republicans who class themselves as liberals.

'SERIOUS BID'

The Ripon group says in its current "Forum" publication that "signs of a serious presidential bid by California Gov. Ronald Reagan are multiplying quickly." It said he may become the favorite son of several Western states, in addition to entering presidential primaries.

Suggesting that Reagan might inherit Southern support if former Vice President Richard M. Nixon fails to make the nomination grade, the "Forum" added: "It is not unthinkable that a convention with more Southern delegates than the one which nominated Barry Goldwater would give its endorsement to the even more charismatic Reagan."

Reagan has said he will be a favorite son candidate in California but won't campaign outside the state. He will not, however, ask for removal of his name in states where there are free-for-all primaries, he has said.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower said when he met Reagan in Palm Springs, recently that the California governor is qualified for the nation's top job.

'I ADMIRE MOST'

"There are a number of men who would make fine presidents in our party," Eisenhower said. "Gov. Reagan is one of the men I admire most in the world."

Eisenhower went on to say that he and Reagan had discussed Vietnam. The governor has called for an all-out military effort.

Eisenhower's comment was: "I believe in winning wars or settling them as soon as we can on an honorable basis."

Bureacratic Error Leaves Faces Red

STUART, Fla. (AP) — The joy with which officials broke ground for a $48,000 Martin County Courthouse addition turned to chagrin recently when they found the county did not own the land.

"This," said County Engineer Fred L. Bell in a masterpiece of understatement, "sabotages the whole project from the ground floor up."

Hippies Join The Chalk-In

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Hippies from San Francisco's Haight - Ashbury District sprawled on the sidewalks yesterday at the city's invitation to a "chalk-in."

The Recreation and Park Department supplied the chalk, in colors, and invited hundreds of hippies to make a "carpet of color" out of the paved panhandle to Golden Gate Park. Each artist was assigned a four-foot square area.

One colorful design called for "flower power." Slogans were popular. A huge one-eyed bird in one panel carried a pink flower in its beak and said, "Understanding Stops Action." An abstract panel suggested, "Go Navy, Join Now."

This Ghostly Plant Turns Black At Touch

By SCIENCE SERVICE

Gleaming with an eerie translucent whiteness in the dim twilight of northern forests, the Indian pipe is one of nature's most fascinating plants.

The ghostly white plants, which cannot be picked or even handled without turning black, are members of the Wintergreen family and can be found throughout the United States and Canada.

Lacking the green chlorophyl that most other plants use to manufacture their food, Indian pipes derive their minerals and water directly from the living cells of a fungus.

Botanists are finding that this fungus is so closely wrapped around the root system of the Indian pipe that no part of the root comes in contact with the soil.

This makes the plant either a parasite, deriving its nourishment from a living organism, or a symbiotic plant, which gives as well as receives essentials of life from another plant.

By no means is it called a saprophyte, as people used to think, since it does not derive its nutrition from the dead or dying organisms of leaves.

The white succulent plant, Monotropa uniflora, grows from a mat of entangled fibrous rootlets that exist under the forest ground. Several stems push up through the twigs and leaves to a height of three to nine inches, each stem terminating with an inverted white or pale salmon-pink flower, its cup turned downward toward earth.

This resembles the fragile long-stemmed white clay pipes smoked by the colonialists in the early 17th century. As soon as the flower is fertilized, its cup turns straight up toward the sky.

The plants begins to turn brown and finally jet black as the numerous tiny seeds develop.

Indian pipes also turn black quickly and permanently if picked or if exposed to sunlight.

was "kicked out of my house because of an argument with my father." He said he stayed with the Zimmermans, but learned they were going to petition the court for custody of the children because they felt the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sidbeck of San Anselmo, were not treating them properly.

Sidbeck said he went to the dairy farm the morning of Aug. 29, and argued with Zimmerman in the barn over the petition.

That night he returned to the farm, he said, and argued again over the petition. He went out to a bridge and waited until "one or two o'clock" in the morning, he said, then entered the Zimmermans' bedroom.

The floor creaked, he related, and he picked up a table leg in a corner near the bedroom door. He said Zimmerman raised in bed, and asked, "Who's there?"

"I grabbed the table leg and hit him as he was getting up," Sidbeck's statement confirmed. "He slumped back onto the bed, and Margaret (Mrs. Zimmerman) said 'What? What?'

"I reached over Everett and hit her three or four times," Sidbeck continued. He said he took a flashlight hanging nearby and began a search for the petition. "Everett started to mumble or something," he said, "So I went back and hit him again. Then Margaret stirred, and I hit her again, too."

He said he failed to find the petition. He took Zimmerman's car, put the table leg and a stolen bicycle he had ridden to the ranch in it and drove to San Francisco. There he abandoned the car and bike after putting the table leg in a garbage can.

Estes said Sidbeck steadfastly denied robbing the Zimmermans, although it was established that wallets of both persons were missing.

The officer said there is no evidence that the Zimmermans sought to gain custody of the Sidbeck children.

"The motivation for a crime of this magnitude and gravity remains a mystery," he reported. He said the record shows the Zimmermans to be "warm and generous people with a genuine affection and concern for children."

screamed at him and he put down the girl who was not identified.

At 5:24 p.m., John S. Jenkins of 16 Onyx Avenue called to report that a nude man had knocked at his door, then lay down screaming on his lawn. Jenkins said that as he was calling police the man was trying to steal his Volkswagen.

Police found Davenport standing naked in the Magnolia-Onyx avenues intersection, with his arms outstretched. According to the police report, Davenport was screamiing "that he was Jesus Christ" and "our salvation is at hand."

'The subject obviously had no identification," the police report noted, but he gave police his name. When they tried to cover him and put him in the patrol car, he became violent and had to be handcuffed, officers said.

As they started to put him in the car, he kicked Patrolman J. Scott Waterman in the groin and ran. Police caught him, took him to the county jail and then to Napa State Hospital fcr a 72-hour emergency committment. He told police this was his "39th acid trip and his worst one."

Police said he then unzipped his trousers and tried to get back out of the car. When he discovered he could not open the back door, he climbed into the front seat and tried to push out a window with his feet, police said.

He was then handcuffed, taken to the county jail, and then to Napa State Hospital, also on a 72-hour emergency committment.

NESTING TIME

Buzzards, Swallows Return

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, (AP) — The swallows are back at Mission San Jaun Capistrano for their 176th summer.

The birds arrived yesterday from their winter quarters in Argentina on the traditional day, St. Joseph Day, a Roman Catholic religious holiday.

Only once in 177 years did the swallows not appear, mission fathers say. About 60 years ago, they were two days late because of bad weather over the West Coast.

The swallows usually begin their flight back to their nesting quarters on Oct. 23.

HINCKLEY, Ohio (UPI) —No one knows if the buzzards first came to watch the people or if it was the other way around.

Anyway, the buzzards returned yesterday for the 150th year, to their summer home in the cliffs and caverns of old Whipp's Lodges near here.

The people were just as tenacious.

Between 20,000 and 30,000 drove aroud the area yesterday looking for the birds, according to Donald F. Maatz, president of the Hinckley Chamber of Commerce.

"Some came from New York, Illinois, and even California to look," he said.

Some 2,300 stayed long enough to partake of a pancake dinner in Hinckley. Maatz even gave up his prize recipe for feeding buzzard watchers.

"You take 1,300 pounds of sausage, 550 pounds of pancake flour, 70 gallons of syrup, 80 pounds of butter, 6,000 cups of coffee.

Phoenix Crew Given Warnings On Laws

HONG KONG (AP) — Seven American pacifists were officially warned today that they would be breaking U.S. laws if they sailed their yacht into North Vietnam's port of Haiphong with cargo of medical supplies.

Dr. Earle Reynolds, 59, owner of the yacht Phoenix and spokesman for the group, replied that the pacifist group would attempt the trip anyway "for humanitarian reasons."

Also sailing on the yacht is Philip Drath of San Rafael.

The warning, issued by U.S. consulate officials, also informed the group that their plan would take them into a hazardous area which they would enter at "your own responsibility and your own risk."

The Phoenix, Reynolds told newsmen, would carry about $10,000 worth of medical supplies contributed by American quakers to North Vietnamese victims of American bombing.

A U.S. consulate general official warned Reynolds and the others that:

Their passports were not valid for travel to or through North Vietnam or Communist China and that "penalties existed" for use of their passports in violation of that invalidity.

It is unlawful for any U.S. national to "engage in any unlicensed transactions with North Vietnam, including furnishing of any goods or services."

It is unlawful for any United States-documented ship to sail to North Vietnam or to take on cargo destined for North Vietnam.

In his reply to the warning, Reynolds said that a portion of the U.S. taxes paid by members of the group had been used to purchase bombs being dropped on North Vietnam by American war planes.

"Therefore," he said, "we consider it a humanitarian duty to deliver medical supplies for the aid of victims on those bombs."

Reynolds told newsmen the Phoenix expected to leave in mid-week for Haiphong. He said the voyage would take four or five days.

It's Rest, Relaxation For Conspiracy Figure

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Clay L. Shaw, destined for trial on a charge of conspiring to assassinate President John F. Kennedy, rested in a hospital bed today.

Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison, who contends that a conspiracy in NEW ORLEANS—145 graf 2 New Orleans lead to the murder of President Kennedy in Dallas, indicated he would file a bill of information this week.

The bill is but a technical step in the legal procedure toward bringing Shaw to trial.

No trial date has been set for Shaw, 54, a decorated World War II Army major and retired business leader. Shaw entered Southern Baptist Hospital here Saturday. His attorneys said it was solely "for rest and relaxation."

Garrison's case against Shaw came out last week in the preliminary hearing, when a dope addict and an insurance salesman placed Shaw with Lee Harvey Oswald weeks before the president's death.

Perry Russo, 25, a Baton Rouge insurance salesman, testified he attended a party at which he says he heard Shaw, who was introduced to him as "Clem Bertrand," plot with Oswald and David W. Ferrie to slay Kennedy.

Vernon Bundy Jr., 29, a stocky, paroled drug addict, told the court he was preparing a shot of heroin when he saw Shaw meet Oswald at the Lake Pontchartrain seawall and pass over "what looked like a wad of money."

MILK DUMPING PROTEST TO LOW PRICES

A Pennsylvania dairy farmer and his three sons dump out 155 gallons of milk in support of a 25-state drive to hold back milk from markets in an effort to drive up prices. This morning, as holding action entered its fifth day, officials halted trucks carrying milk to Detroit after an anonymous telephone call warned of possible poisoning. In other areas, milk trucks moved to market in armed convoys for protection against violence from sympathizers of the National Farmers Organization, leader of the protest. (AP Wirephoto)

Judge Grants Execution Stay For Murderer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Convicted murderer Edmund Earl Reeves, 28, scheduled to die March 28 in the San Quentin gas chamber, was granted a stay of execution today by U.S. District Judge William T. Sweigert.

Judge Sweigert set May 1 for a hearing on Reeves' claim that he was denied a fair trial and was not adequately represented by his court-appointed attorney, James Meeks.

"An evidentiary hearing is not only justified, but required," Judge Sweigert said.

Reeves was convicted of the 1965 slaying of an oil field worker in Bakersfield.

The judge said that Reeves' story of the slaying was never presented to the court, except as a statement by his own attorney. Reeves had pleaded innocent by reason of insanity.

Judge Sweigert said that on Aug. 17, 1965 after Reeves had been placed on San Quentin's Death Row, he gave a written statement for purposes of his appeal in which he said he was jumped by the man he fatally shot and fired his gun because he feared for his life.

The only evidence considered by the trial judge at the sentencing hearing was the grand jury transcript of Paul Pugh's statement of the shooting. Pugh was a companion of the slain man.

Mrs. Paul C. Vogelheim, 150 Woodbine Drive, reported to police at 3:14 p.m. that her son, Tommy, had been missing for more than two hours.

Finally, at about 4:30 p.m., Tommy was seen from a tree by Doug Rice, 10, of 401 Hilary Drive, Tiburon. Doug was visiting the Vogelheims with his parents when Tommy was missed shortly after lunch.

"Everyone very, very happy," bewildered Tommy was found.

Fire Destroys Concord School

CONCORD (AP) — Fire destroyed the Pine Hollow Elementary School shortly after midnight. The fire department estimated loss at $100,000.

The school, built less than five years ago, was on the outskirts of Concord.

Clocks in the school had stopped at 12:20 a.m. As the fire trucks pulled up, a third of the roof collapsed.

Trio Injured In Collision Of Two Autos

Three persons were injured in a two-car collision on Highway 101, about one-half mile north of the Terra Linda overpass, at 12:30 a.m. yesterday.

California Highway Patrol officers reported that a car driven by Thomas Alan Lenhart, 29 of 103 First Street, San Rafael, traveling at high speed, hit the rear of a northbound car driven by Judith Genevieve Porter, 36, of 212 Hillside Drive, Fairfax.

Lenhart suffered a cut chin and possible concussion. He was in good condition today in Marin General Hospital.

Cynthia Johnson, 37, of 79 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael, who was riding with Lenhart, suffered facial cuts and was in fair condidion today in Marin General Hospital. Officers reported that she is the owner of the car Lenhart was driving.

Claude Beaver, 36, of Burge's Apartments, Ignacio, a passenger in the Porter car, was treated at the same hospital for cuts of the neck and scalp.

Rasnick Trial Set; No Venue Change

OAKLAND (UPI) —A change of venue was denied today for Ben Rasnick, Oakland, accused of the murder of Painters Union official Lloyd Green of Hayward.

Superior Judge Redmond C. Staats issued the denial and ordered Rasnick to face trial as scheduled April 3.

The jurist also ordered the district attorney's office to allow defense attorney Edward L. Merrill access to all evidence to prepare for the trial.

Merrill had asked for the change of venue on grounds a fair and impartial trial would be difficult in Alameda County because of prejudice caused by "inflammatory publicity in local newspapers."

Green was killed last year shortly after union leader Dow Wilson, San Francisco, was slain in gangland fashion. Rasnick, a regional union official, was charged with masterminding both slayings.

A jury failed to reach a verdict in Rasnick's trial in the Wilson slaying and he will face a retrial after the Green trial.

Clothing Taken

Clothing hanging on a rack over the rear seat of his vehicle, parked in front of 65 Fairfax Street, San Rafael, was stolen Saturday, owner Donald J. Staples of Mar Vista, Los Angeles County, told police. He estimated the loss at $285.

The vice president will go to Bonn, the West German capital, to attend the March 28-31 conference of American ambassadors stationed in Western European countries.

He also will meet with top officials of the West German government, including Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger, sources said.

Kerr To Decide Soon On Offer

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Dr. Clark Kerr says he will decide "in the reasonably near future" on whether to accept a reported $30,000 a year professorship at the University of California's Berkeley campus.

Kerr, fired as president of the university last January, was honored at a private dinner last night by student leaders from U.C.'s nine campuses. The rousing welcome from the students brought tears to his eyes.

"I have some wonderful offers from around the country," he said. "People have been very generous. At the same time, I'm devoted to the University of California."

Ruby's Pistol Is Offered To Archives

DETROIT, Mich. (UPI)—Jack Ruby's heirs have agreed to give the pistol with which he killed Lee Harvey Oswald to the National Archives in Washington, it was announced today.

Earl Ruby, brother of Jack and newly-named executor of the will, said the National Archives also would be offered the suit and hat Ruby wore when he shot Oswald, killer of President John F. Kennedy.

Alan Adelson, attorney for the estate, said Ruby's three brothers and three sisters had agreed to use Ruby's first will, written in 1950, and drop two later ones including one dictated from his death bed.

The latter will included a statement that Ruby acted alone in killing Oswald, did not know him and was not part of any conspiracy. Adelson said the first will was chosen instead because the latter two were of doubtful legal validity.

Adelson said Ruby's pistol, a snub-nosed colt revolver, "is worth maybe $50,000 to a collector." But he said the family had agreed to give it to the National Archives. Earl Ruby confirmed this.

Embarcadero Center Backed By Neighbor

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Developers of the proposed Embarcadero Center had the "green light" from their major neighbor today to proceed with construction.

After a weekend meeting with officials of the Golden Gateway Center they issued a joint statement which said:

"While all differences are not resolved the Golden Gateway partners felt that the advantages of getting the Embarcadero Center built outweighed the disadvantages presented by certain of its features."

One of the main differences was proposed amendments to the city's Redevelopment Plan that would lift the height restrictions of the Embarcadero Center's buildings and also permit building setback variances.

The Golden Gateway was restricted to 25 stories. However, the joint statement said Golden Gateway agreed to consent to amendments allowing Embarcadero Center buidlings to go as high as 60 stories.

The Embarcadero Center is headed by David Rockefeller and is envisioned as a "Rockefeller Plaza West."

Hoffa Aide Wins Eavesdropping Test

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Supreme Court today tossed out the conviction of a top Detroit aide to Teamster President James R. Hoffa because of admitted government eavesdropping.

With two justice dissenting, the Court held that eavesdropping tainted the trial of Charles (Chucky) O'Brien who was found guilty of charges of unlawfully removing merchandise from a bonded warehouse.

The majority ruling held that the Justice Department must either grant O'Brien a new trial or set him free. It was one of a number of cases in which the government has conceded eavesdropping on defendants in criminal cases.

OTHER ACTION

In other actions, the court:

Refused to consider an appeal by convicted draft evader David H. Mitchell III of Brooklyn who claimed he should have been allowed to try to show the United States was waging aggressive war in Vietnam. Justice William O. Douglas thought the case should have been heard.

Granted a hearing to Dennis M. Whitney, sentenced to death in Florida for a robbery-murder. Whitney's attorneys claimed that his controversial confession to six murders in Florida and Arizona were made in a television interview, prejudicing his trial.

Ruled that state prosecutors may not be compelled at preliminary hearings to give the name of a tipster who had led police to make an arrest.

O'BRIEN RULING

The ruling on the O'Brien case came two weeks after the Court turned down last-ditch appeals by Hoffa before he was sent to federal penitentiary to begin serving an eight year term for jury tampering.

Justices John M. Harlan and Potter Stewart dissented. They said it would be sufficient for a Detroit federal court to hold a hearing as to "the circumstances and effects" of the eavesdropping activities.

O'Brien and Thomas Parisi, a Detroit plumber, were convicted together. Parisi drew 18 months in jail and O'Brien a year and a day. They appealed when the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals affirmed the convictions on Aug. 30, 1966.

The Justice Department told the Supreme Court that neither man was the direct subject of electronic surveillance but that the FBI did install a microphone "by trespass" in a commercial establishment owned by an acquaintance of O'Brien. The acquaintance, the Department said, was "believed to be engaged in organized criminal activity."

Worshipful master of Free and Accepted Masons, Marin Lodge 191, is Joseph V. McGinley.

Escalation Of War Seen

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— A leading critic of U.S. Viet Nam policy predicts that President Johnson will escalate the conflict in hopes of amilitary victory before the 1968 national elections.

Hans J. Morgenthau, University of Chicago scholar, told a day-long seminar on Red China Saturday that President Johnson would probably lose the election "if the war continues at its present pace."

"Any respectable Republican candidate could campaign successfully on the statement that Johnson is incapable of winning the war or getting us out of it," said Morgenthau.

Hershey Sees No Trouble Installing Draft Lottery

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey said today a lottery system could be installed "with the greatest rapidity" into the Selective Service system for drafting 19-year-olds first.

Hershey, Selective Service director, testified at a Senate hearing that he anticipated no difficulties carrying out President Johnson's recommendations for revising draft rules. He noted that Johnson must first issue an executive order.

Appearing at the opening of draft hearings by a Senate Labor subcommittee, Hershey mentioned one possibility for incorporating a "random choice" selection—a lottery—into the system.

Under the concept he suggested, birth dates of 19-year-olds would be drawn, then names would be drawn alphabetically to provide priority within birth dates.

With respect to a lottery system, Hershey said, "There is nothing in the technique that will delay, materially, getting started." "When the quarterback calls the plays, that's the way I play it," said Hershey, in a clear reference to Johnson's planned changes in the system.

As to the concept of drafting the youngest eligibles first—19-year-olds before 25-year-olds—Hershey noted that it has been endorsed by the president, a presidential commission and a panel which made a draft study for the House Armed Services Committee.

At last, a sports car for grown-ups—the Mercedes-Benz 230SL

At $6262, the Mercedes-Benz 230SL ranks among the world's great sports cars. Motor magazine describes roadholding as "uncanny." Yet the 230SL doesn't thunder, rattle, ride like an ox-cart or look like a rocket ship. It's a civilized two-seater built for normal adults, not acrobats. Read how the 230SL delivers all the pleasures of sports car driving—and none of the privations.

MANY driving enthusiasts feel the urge to own a sports car—but don't like to suffer their usual hardships and handicaps. A solution is at hand: the Mercedes-Benz 230SL. "In place of colossal maximum speed and breathtaking acceleration, the magic of this car lies instead in its refinement, comfort and superb road behavior," reports Autocar.

You can have your cake and eat it, too. The 230SL is supremely livable. And it runs rings around much of its sports car competition.

"There must be a limit, but on a dry road we never found it"
—Motor road test

The 230SL vaults from zero to 60 mph in 10 seconds. It reaches its peak only at 125 mph. But its most startling trait is its leech-like roadability.

Even a quick inspection shows why. The car stands a mere yard and a half high. Yet it straddles the road with a track five feet wide. Tires seem to bulge out from the body sides. Note: These aren't ordinary tires, but radial-ply design, specifically tailored to the car's speed, weight and handling traits.

All four wheels are linked to a fully independent suspension system, first proved on a world-championship Mercedes-Benz racing machine. This skillful engineering has eliminated any trace of a harsh "sports car ride" —as Autocar discovered: "When being really hurtled along, the 230SL sits down on the road beautifully, sweeping over bumps and undulations with the minimum of vertical movement and no sensation at all of wheels pattering up and down." No bone-jarring jolts; this is a civilized sports car—and with a wheelbase of less than 8 feet, an agile one. The 230SL nips and darts through dense city traffic like a whippet in a herd of buffalo.

No frazzled nerves

On the open road, the 230SL replaces the raucous bellow of most sports cars with a soothing hum. You can actually converse with your passenger in normal tones.

The major reason: a 6-cylinder, single overhead camshaft engine, with fuel injection replacing carburetors and hours of patient handwork to ensure running smoothness.

For example, pistons are machined to tolerances of .019 of a millimeter. Every engine is bench-tested for over an hour.

Superb stopping power

However vigorously you drive it, the 230SL cannot outrun its magnificent brakes. Up front are 9.9-inch disc brakes. Finned, 9.05-inch turbo-cooled drums act on the rear wheels. A gentle power assist transmits pedal pressure to these brakes—softly enough to avoid sudden lurching stops, strongly enough to deliver instant response.

A reassuring fact: Road & Track magazine has been testing all kinds of cars for almost 20 years. The 230SL holds the record for fast stopping times.

Strong and silent type

Many sports cars are intended as playthings—and built accordingly. The 230SL is meant to endure for years without showing its age.

Heavy gauge steel body panels are welded into a single, solid structure that can't rattle because it uses no nuts and bolts. After hand filing and buffing, this body is submerged in a 52-ton primer vat where every crevice gets a protective coating. After the primer coat is baked on, 24 pounds of permanent undercoating seals the underside. Engine, drive train and suspension are rubber cushioned to quell vibration. No wonder the car pounds over brutal surfaces without tremors, rattles or jolts.

In fact, the 230SL thrives on rough going. Competition driver Eugen Boehringer underscored the point. He slammed his 230SL over some of Europe's worst back roads in the Liége-Sofia-Liége Rally and he won.

Bring your wife

Take your wife on a test drive in the 230SL. She'll be hard put to find drawbacks.

For example, your passenger enjoys more forward legroom than in a Rolls-Royce. Seats are firmly upholstered, contoured chairs—not skimpy "buckets." You are sealed against wind gusts and cold with roll-up side windows and one of the tightest-fitting convertible tops ever devised.

Dual heater and ventilation controls let you select whatever interior climate you want, while your passenger does the same.

The 230SL even quashes that ancient complaint about sports car trunk space. A carpeted alcove behind the seats holds large parcels or small children. The trunk carries 12 cubic feet of luggage.

Note: Power steering and a 4-speed, automatic transmission are two of the few extra-cost options offered for the 230SL. Autocar sums them up succinctly: "We have never tried a more successful power steering, and the automatic transmission is also among the best in our experience."

Three cars in one

You can choose from three 230SL models: the soft-top Roadster, at $6262*; the hardtop Coupe, at $6420*; and the Roadster/Coupe, which gives you both tops, at $6665*.

"The detachable hardtop is so beautifully engineered that it doesn't look as though it should come off at all," comments Motor.

Other Mercedes-Benz motor cars: from $25,785 to $4,189*

Grand Mercedes 600	$25.785
300SE Coupe	11.916
250SE Convertible	10,004
250S Sedan	5,861
230S Sedan	5,018
230 Sedan	4,386
200 Diesel Sedan	4,418
200 Sedan	4,189

*West Coast port of entry, exclusive of options, state and local taxes if any.

A safe sports car

The 230SL's foremost safety feature is its incredible maneuverability. You can drive away from danger. But if trouble should occur, you are also well protected.

The car body itself is a patented safety feature. On violent impact, front and rear sections are designed to collapse to absorb shock. Inside, even the steering wheel hub is designed for safety. It is padded, not pointed. Lethal projections are absent. Door handles are recessed, control knobs are made of pliable materials, and the rearview mirror is spring mounted to snap off if struck.

The final proof

A small number of 230SL models are now available for immediate delivery. Come in soon and take a thorough test drive in the 230SL—the sports car for grown-ups.

Mercedes-Benz 230SL Roadster cockpit is designed for normal adults, not acrobats. Comfort is so complete that driver and passenger have separate heater and ventilation controls.

Optional steel hardtop turns the 230SL into a snug, closed car.

Remember when you used to pay $33.00 to fly to Los Angeles?

Well, PSA changed all that. Now it's $11.43.

It's true. PSA pioneered low air fares. And what did it get us? Well, lots of passengers for one thing. Oh yes, and some competition from other airlines who were forced to lower their fares from time to time.

So what do we want—a medal? No, but it might be nice if you bought a ticket sometime. Especially since we still have the lowest air fares.

For Finishing

When re-varnishing furniture, beware of dust, lint, and cold or humid air. These four culprits can sabotage a finishing job. Choose a warm, dry, well ventilated work area. Sand the furniture surface before each coat of varnish, removing all dust with clean, lint-free clothes.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

'Told Everything' Mother May Have Sissy, Good Liar Or Diplomat Son

DEAR HELEN:

We were discussing the hazards of raising boys at our club the other day. One gal didn't make herself very popular with us by saying, "I have no problems—my son tells me everything."

Tell us, Helen, is she the world's best mother, (as she thinks), or is she getting a snow job?—SON-BURNED

DEAR SON-BURNED:

The woman who says, "My son tells me everything!" has raised either a 1) Mama's sissy-boy; 2) Good liar; or 3) Diplomat.

If number 3, he is simply omitting the items she's not quite ready for. She'll hear them bit-by-bit after he becomes a man and, man-like, starts reminiscing at family reunions.

. . .And she'll be so relieved she didn't know earlier!—H.

DEAR HELEN:

Your husband Bob and you deserve your well-known "ten lashes with your typewriter ribbon" for implying "Xmas" is a nickname.

The capital letter "X" stands for the first two letters in the name "Christ" from the Greek alphabet. It is usually coupled with "P" which is the Greek symbol of "r." The symbol "XP" is a very common emblem in ecclesiastical art. "Xmas," is an authentic abbreviation. It has been used since the days when Christianity (Xnity) was more than a social inconvenience. — SMARTER THAN YOU

DEAR STY:

Ten lashes duly delivered. But I still say even though the Greeks had a symbol for it, "Christ" should not be abbreviated either in writing or in our daily lives!—H.

DEAR HELEN:

I don't like to interfere, but our sweet, easygoing, kind hearted daughter seems so mixed up these days. She has been going with a boy who cuts her down at every opportunity.

In the year that they've been dating, he has:

1. Told her he wouldn't take her out to dinner on prom night because she's "too fat already." (She is about five pounds over normal weight.)

2. Stood her up repeatedly, always with some flimsy excuse.

3. Been late more than he's been early.

4. Never dressed in a suit or sport jacket, except on prom night—but always takes her out in the clothes he wears at school—a little on the wild side. (He has other clothes)

5. Eaten more meals from our refrigerator than he has treated her to elsewhere. In fact, he's never taken her out to eat—the reason always You're too fat."

6. Spent practically nothing on her—and he has the money.

7. Browbeaten her until she no longer has any self-confidence.

I don't know whether she really cares for him or is afraid of him. Should I just wait, or should I be a mean, tough mother and tell him, "Get lost"? —WORRIED MOM

DEAR MOM:

You should be a sympathetic, understanding mother, and let your daughter know she can talk it out with you until she straightens out her thinking. Sometimes in our eagerness not to interfere, we don't give our children enough support when they need it. I imagine she realizes she has a lemon but isn't sure how to get rid of him. Without being bossy—tell her! —H.

Could your readers please send cards and letters to a nine-year-old girl who will be in the hospital for another two months? She risked her life to save a friend. This friend ran across a busy highway, and Diane ran after her to stop her. She got the full impact of the car. Visits via mail would make the long days go faster for Diane Szadkowski, Room 486, Hackensack Hospital, Hackensack, New Jersey.

Thanks to everyone who will write. —HER SISTER

ORATORIO REVIEW

Christ's Passion Unfolds In Color

Colorful music and apparel for yesterday afternoon's performance of the oratorio "Christ Our Brother" in Angelico Hall provided a preview of how the Domincan College Chorale will look and sound Friday on the first color television program to originate in San Francisco.

The work is to be repeated at 1 p.m. as the Good Friday program of television station KPIX, Channel 5.

BAKER DIRECTOR

Directed by Winifred Baker, the chorale of 70 young women and seven soloists was joined by seven men from Miss Baker's own chorale and baritone Byron Jones.

Adding more color to piano accompaniments by Sharon Ravani, Mary Shymanski and Jean Stewart was an extraordinary guest instrumental group composed of Gene Stewart playing trumpet and guitar, 8-year-old Teresa Baune on the recorder, with Sister Mary Edward, O. P. in charge of tympani and other percussion.

The oratorio, dedicated to most Rev. Joseph T. McGucken, Archbishop of San Francisco, was written by Jolieta Ott Smith, choir director in a Los Angeles parish, with libretto by Gerard Cunningham, the parish priest. Yesterday's Palm Sunday performance marked the Northern California premiere of the second part of the oratorio dealing with the Passion of Christ.

JAZZ IDIOMS

Unlike any oratorio we have ever heard, this one ranged from jazz-like idioms to liturgical forms, but it was otherwise electric and derivative rather than original. It managed to sound modern without any dissonance, and there was some rtuly beautiful music and easily understood text that should make it popular. Its scope, however was too broad, starting with the creation of the world and ending with the resurrection.

In the generally excellent performance there was such good diction on the part of the chorus, soloists and narrator — Dominican College English professor and poet John Savant — that every word was understood, a rare experience for this kind of music.

Taking top bocal honors was Jones, whose voice was warm and resonant and imbued with deeply felt emotion, notably in "Herod's Decree," "Last Supper," and "The Crucifixion."

Other outstanding soloists were tenor John Gibb and sopranos Elizabeth Heffernan, Jacquelin Brown and Jacqueline McDonald. Jones, Gibb and bass Eugene Ramey formed a pleasing trio in "The Wise Men."

The chorus was particularly impressive in "The Mob Scene Before Pilate: Crucify Him!," the final "Alleluia," and some ethereal vocalizing is several passages.—M. P. S.

Rafferty Sees LSD As Problem

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Dealing with LSD will be the biggest problem in California education of the near-future, says the state superintendent of public instruction.

Dr. Max Rafferty told about 1,200 public school administrators yesterday that policies must be devised to combat the hallucinatory drug. He termed the problem "dry rot in the human soul."

Rafferty spoke at the opening session of the annual convention of the California Association of Secondary School Administrators.

CONCERT REVIEW

Nadas Gives Liszt Sonata Fine Reading

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Saturday night's program presented by virtuoso pianist Istvan Nadas in Angelico Hall, San Rafael, further advanced on its road to success the cultural arts project sponsored by the Council of Music and Arts.

The second in the series of concerts which opened last month with a fine recital by Marin operatic soprano Gwen Curatilo was attended by some 650 people, many of them children.

The purpose of the Council of Music and Arts, composed of representatives of the nine Dixie District schools, is to enrich the lives of children. This is done by devoting proceeds from the concert series to support cultural experiences for children.

In its choice of artists so far the council is indeed aiming high.

Nadas, who is an internationally acclaimed pianist, did not "play down" to his audience, for his program was, for the most part, a difficult one. It was chosen, with the exception of Beethoven, from the great romatics. It was, therefore, full of spell-binding melodies and technical brilliance, in works, of emotional depth and clarity of structure without the excesses of the romatic period.

Even the opening Beethoven Sonata in E Major, Opus 109, was from his last period, containing elements of romaticism in the best sense of the word. Nadas brought out its contemplative and songful qualities.

Ability to make the most of lyricism is one of Nadas' greatest gifts. His control of all harmonic components of a theme permits a single voice melody to sound almost like a vocal solo without words. This was especially marked in the langorous, dreamlike Schubert Impromptu in G Flat Major, Opus 90, No. 3.

For Chopin, too, this ability is essential, and his fantasy in F Minor, Opus 47, was very satisfying, though in a few measures, tempo seemed a trifle rushed.

In Liszt's monumental B Minor Sonata, Nadas re-created that composer's technical sorcery in a texture of such steely power and silken gossamer lightness that we believe Liszt himself must have sounded like this.

The children, with very few exceptions, were remarkably well behaved and the audience was ecstatic.

Nixon Advised To Read Marx

MOSCOW (AP)—A Red army major in Soviet central Asia told Richard M. Nixon today that instead of traveling around inquiring into political conditions he should stay home and read Karl Marx.

"You should get a textbook of Marxism and you'll find it has everything you need to know," the major, a member of an army theater group, said in a good-natured meeting at the airport in Samarkand.

Nixon, U.S. vice president under President Dwight D. Eisenhower, flew back to Moscow today from Samarkand, the medieval capital of Asian empires.

RFK, Fulbright Oregon Drive Set

NEW YORK (UPI) — Oregon has been added to the states where drives will be launched to draft Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York as the 1968 Democratic presidential candidate and Sen. J. William Fulbright of Arkansas as his running mate.

Former Oregon Rep. Charles O. Porter, now practicing law in Eugene, Ore., and F. Austin Colcord of Eugene, a former peace corpsman, have agreed to serve as co-chairmen of Citizens for Kennedy-Fulbright. The announcement was made yesterday by Dr. Martin Shepard, a Manhattan psychiatrist who is national coordinator of the drive.

Shaw's Barbs Lost In ACT's Scissors

By KARL BARRON

SAN FRANCISCO — Hell, which George Bernard Shaw indicated in his "Man And Superman" is an infinitely preferable destination, must be resounding to his outraged howls over the American Conservatory Theater's presentation of his longest and most brilliant commentary on man — and woman.

Let me hasetn to say that William Ball's ebullient company at the Geary Theater has turned out a production with energy and sparkle. Under Jerome Kilty's direction, it seldom lags, although the acting is uneven. It is unquestionably good entertainment which holds up for three and a quarter hours, but much of the Shavian seed is plowed under in the furrows of ACTian earthines.s

I have no doubt that Kilty, Ball, whoever cut one-third of the five-hour script, did so with great reluctance, but in deference to audiences terrified at being asked to sit for such a long period. However, after welcome cuts of windy chaff in the first act, the "Don Juan In Hell" sequence is chopped to bits, with great portions of Lucifer's role deleted. This leaves us wondering at times what in Hell Don Juan is talking about.

Kilty allows most of his actors to play too broadly, so that Shaw's barbs anent the battle of the sexes — certainly not obscure in the text — are pile-driven at the audience. The civilized urbanity of the man's insight into human shortcomings, his subtle craftsmanship in dramatic construction, his almost feral interchange between male and female are shattered by the hammer blows of ACT's interpretation.

Rumblings from Shaw buffs in the first night audience indicated other dissatisfactions with which I don't agree. I enjoyed the ridiculous paced-to-music changes of Stuart Wurtzel's joyous greeting card sets, Marianna Elliott's beautiful costumes, and the smoke and magnesium flashes in Hell. I feel Shaw would agree with these theatrically effective devices.

As for the actors, Ray Reinhardt's Roebuck Ramsden, irascible, pompous, blustering through his ineptitudes with taurine abandon, is most true to Shaw.

Rene Auberjonois as Jack Tanner, the superman who carries the burden of the play, plays the first act more as Coward than Shaw, but comes through in the Don Juan sequence as a magnificently dedicated and believable character. This is especially praiseworthy since we have noted that the cuts often leave him pontificating about we know not what.

As Mendoza-Lucifer, Ken Ruta is a "devil's addition," as Shakespeare has it, but not the old boy himself. His Mendoza is a rough-hewn, amusing character; his Lucifer is also rough-hewn, lacking the suavity required of the master of the nether regions.

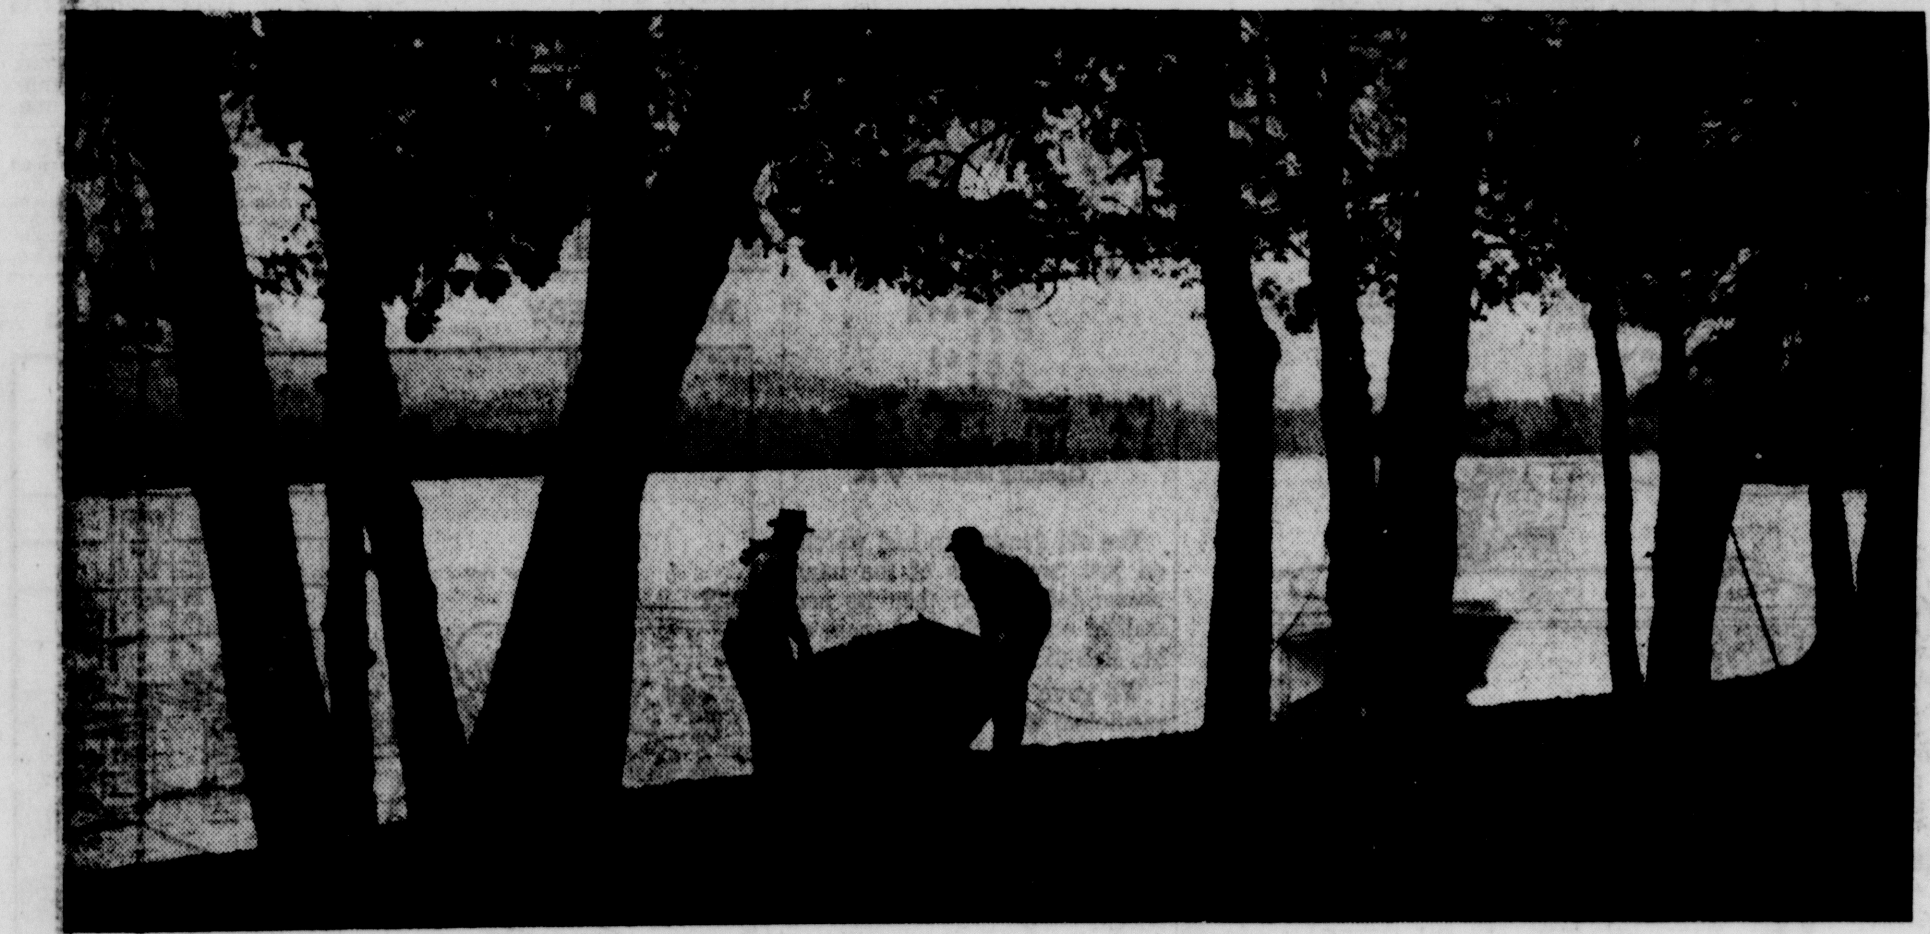
DeAnn Mears plays a strained Ann Whitefield who generates no sympathy, Paul Shenar's Octavius is a disgusting ninny for whom we can feel no compassion, and Ruth Kobart is the only Britisher in the cast speading pure midwest American. Patrick Tovatt has the makings of a good character in Hector Malone Jr., but it is still in the caricature stage.

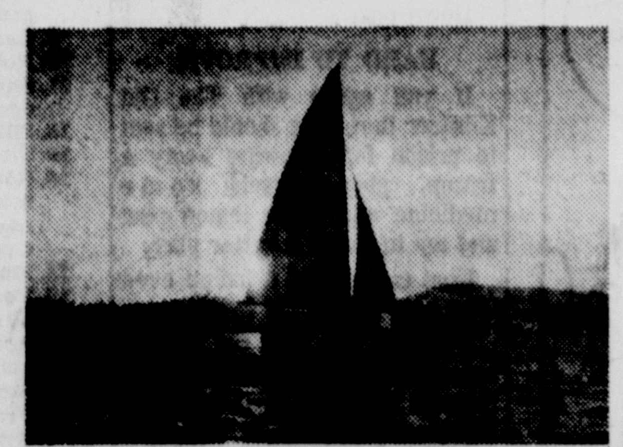
Judith Mihalyi's Violet is adorably pretty, but Shaw's description of her as "hard as nails" apparently has been taken too literally by the actress. In the minor role of Straker, James Ragan is debonairly right.

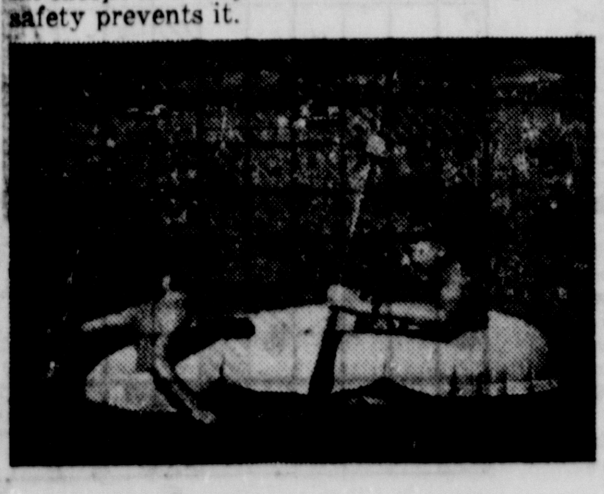
"Man And Superman" joins the ACT repertory now as the eighth of 16 scheduled productions. Half way through the list, it would indicate that Ball, the magician, must beware the fatal trap of the magic trade. He must not begin to believe that his prestidigitations can replace, rather than supplement the intent of great playwrights.

Drives Into Window

Shirley A. Thompson of 14 Channel Drive, Corte Madera, drove a small sports car into the plate glass window of the Bourbon Shop, 5641 Paradise Drive, Corte Madera, causing about $280.76 damage to the window and merchandise, Friday at 3:30 p.m., according to Corte Madera police.







PG&E's water wonderland.

More than 100 lakes for electricity...also provide recreation, irrigation, other benefits

Each year, runoff in many Northern and Central California mountain streams is captured and stored behind PG&E dams—forming scenic lakes for fishing, boating, camping and swimming.

This water turns the generators that make a lot of your PG&E electricity. Then it flows on for use by you and others in countless ways. Stored water is one of California's most precious resources.

Conservation is a PG&E Policy

From the McCloud River in the Cascades to the Kings River in the Sierra Nevada 300 miles south, PG&E's waterpower system includes more than 100 man-made lakes.

In addition to water conservation, we conserve the soil, trees, fish and wildlife on these properties—which we make available for your use and enjoyment. Our properties are open to all except in a very few instances where public safety prevents it.

Campground and Picnic Areas

In many popular recreation areas we have provided campgrounds to encourage maximum use of PG&E lands for recreation. These facilities include tables, benches, stoves, refuse containers and restrooms. They're set up in areas that we care for like parks. And you're invited to use them.

To guide you to these campgrounds and picnic areas, we have published a free booklet with a map and descriptions of facilities at each location. It's called "Your 1967 Guide to PG&E Campgrounds and Picnic Areas." Ask any PG&E office for a copy.

PG&E Fishing Reports

Our releases of stored water for power generation help maintain stream flows throughout the summer. Many good fishing streams would be dry in summer and fall except for upstream storage for power generation.

Each week during trout season, our local hydro system employees provide a reliable report on stream conditions on dozens of watersheds as a free service to weekend anglers. This report is made available through more than 230 newspapers, radio and TV stations, outdoor publications and many sporting goods stores in Northern and Central California.

Biggest Family Bargain

Providing you with recreation facilities is a pleasant sideline to our main job of supplying you with high quality gas and electric service at the lowest possible rates.

You're probably using more appliances and conveniences than ever before, so your bill may be higher. But there have been five reductions in PG&E gas and electric rates since 1963, so PG&E energy is still the biggest bargain in your family budget.

Opening lead — ◇ A

The old gentleman had watched just two tricks of the hand shown today, and then he had walked out of the card room of his club to state his complaint.

We gave him something medicinal with a twist of lemon peel and he told us about the hand.

WHAT HAPPENED

West opened with the ace of diamonds and continued with the queen.

Declarer ruffed in dummy with the ace of spades, and East made the play that sent The Old Kibitzer out of the room talking to himself.

East threw away a trump!

Declarer led the jack of spades from dummy and continued with the 10 of spades, finessing through the queen and picking up all of the trumps.

Unfortunately for South, the clubs broke horribly and he eventually lost another trick.

Down one.

HARD TO IMPROVE

If you agree with The Old Kibitzer that East should be sent to prison for throwing away a trump, get yourself some medicine and some lemon peel and try to make a better play.

East cannot get a trump even if he saves all of his trumps.

Declarer will lead the jack of spades and then the 10 of spades through the queen and will capture four trumps just as easily as three.

If East discards a heart, dummy's nine of hearts will eventually be good for declarer's 12th trick.

And if East discards a club, declarer can eventually ruff one of dummy's clubs and take his 12th trick with the other low club.

East's unusual discard at the second trick allows him to defeat the contract by keeping as many hearts and clubs as the dummy at all times.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one club, and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ K 918 7 2
♥ 7 3
♦ 8 6 4 3
♣ 7 4

ANSWER: Pass.

Some experts strain a little harder to respond to an opening bid of one club than to any other opening bid, but it is very dangerous to respond with only 3 points in high cards and no particular distributional strength.

The best way to stay out of trouble when you have a really ghastly hand is to pass.

ALMANAC

Today is Monday, March 20, the 79th day of 1967 with 286 to follow.

The moon is between the first and full stage. The morning star is Mars. The evening stars are Jupiter and Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1852, Harriet Beecher Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was printed in book form. It eventually appeared in more than 20 languages.

In 1942, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Commander in Chief of Allied Forces in the Pacific, issued his famous "I shall return" statement. He returned to take the Philippines.

In 1951, Argentine dictator Juan Peron seized control of the opposition newspaper "La Prensa."

In 1963, a volcano on the island of Bali began erupting. The death toll rose to over 1,000.

A Thought for the Day — Scottish poet Robert Burns once said: "God knows, I'm not the thing I should be . . . not even am I the thing I could be."

Aid To India Going Down The Rathole

ROME (AP) — Half the food produced in India is wasted by rats, rot, birds and insects, the U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization reports. It estimates the world average loss of food to pests is at least 20 per cent. The wastage is greatest in regions of Asia, Africa and Latin America where hunger already is the worst.

Even at 20 per cent the loss means this: where there should be enough food for five persons to eat, one will starve. Or, if the available food is divided equally, all five will be undernourished.

When the loss reaches 50 per cent the results become starkly tragic.

The estimate of India's loss was given to the FAO regional conference for the Far East by the Indian government.

Thunder, a pistol shot, even the crack of a whip can cause vibrations that will trigger a snow avalanche.

India Parliament Held Aiding In Defection

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The United States was accused in the Indian Parliament today of trying to influence India's national election last month, of attempting to undermine a local youth organization and of aiding the defection of Stalin's daughter Svetlana to the West.

Foreign Minister M.C. Chagla quieted the shouting opposition members temporarily with a promise to give a detailed statement tomorrow on Miss Stalina's flight from New Delhi to Rome March 7 after she sought asylum at the U.S. Embassy.

But he and Finance Minister Morarji Desai were then subjected to a series of questions about the activities of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency in use of the U.S. Embassy's huge rupee fund, acquired through the sale of food grains to India.

George Fernandes, a Socialist who defeated pro-American S.K. Patil in the Bombay parliamentary race, referred to disclosures in the U. S. press that CIA funds had been given to various U. S. and international organizations. One of the groups named was the International Youth Center in New Delhi.

Cut Chin Suffered In Cycle Accident

Judith Anne Leist, 22, of San Francisco, suffered a cut chin when she was thrown from her motorcycle on Shoreline Highway, two miles north of Bolinas, at 4:55 p.m. Sautrday.

California Highway Patrol officers reported that she failed to negotiate a curve. She was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Students Learn Science By Doing

By PAT PERRY

Pioneering a new approach to the teaching of physical science, Terra Linda High School has joined a few high schools in the nation in introducing a novel physical science course for freshmen.

The new approach, announced educators, "attempts to produce an attitude of inquiry; not an acceptance of teacher authority."

What is the new approach in this revolutionary science course?

It's letting ninth graders do experiments themselves; and if that sounds strangely like the general science classes of the last generation, remember that, fanfares and federal grants notwithstanding, educational theories are proving eomewhat cyclical.

Taught by Barney Keener, sixty freshmen take a physical science class daily, devoting most of the 45-minute period to laboratory experiments.

EQUIPMENT—A simple set-up of pegboard on a base to which equipment is clipped forms the basis for all experiments in Terra Linda High School's new physical science class. David Davis (left) and Randy Cole work on wood distillation.

Equipment is simple, inexpensive and compact, based on a sheet of peg board supported by a heavy base on which smaller pieces of apparatus are held by bolted clips.

"The emphasis is on letting the students find out for themselves," explained Keener. "We'll start an experiment with a purpose, but don't even let them know what the purpose is, and certainly not the expected results."

Students have to discover things for themselves, he said. "We tell them as little as we can, give no warnings. For instance, if they're going to drop a rock into a test tube of water we don't caution that water might spill; they'll find that out immediately."

Basic aim of the course (a project of the Physical Science Study Committee of Educational Service, Inc., working with Massachusetts Institute of Technology) is to provide a sound foundation for physics, chemistry and biology courses students will take in high school, and also to give a good terminal course to those who will never take another science course.

"They're getting the feeling of what science is," predicted Keener, "and we expect more will be taking advanced science courses simply because they so enjoyed this one."

Terra Linda High School students are enthusiastic about the new course, which began three weeks ago.

"I think it's great, a lot more exciting than a regular old course," said Mike Kramer, 14. "There's more to it than listening to teachers and just doing busy work."

Last week, working independently, students found the density of chunks of obsidian with test tubes of water and simple equal-arm balances using inexpensive bead weights.

"It's easier to understand; you learn as you do the experiments," said Ed Laufer, almost 15. "You don't have to study for tests. You already know."

Terra Lindan Fires At Prowler

A Terra Linda man fired at a prowler in the rear yard of his home early yesterday, but the shots missed and the culprit escaped.

Returning to his home at 140 Oleander Drive about 2:15 a.m., Louis A. Segale told Marin sheriff's deputies, he noticed a man climbing a rear fence into his yard. Segale said he got his gun, a .380 caliber automatic, and stepped into the yard, confronting the thief.

He fired several times at the prowler, he related, but the culprit leaped over the fence and disappeared.

Annual Bird Count Turns Up 185 Species

If you've never even heard of a 20 knots, or Cassin's finch, or least bittern, you may or may not be surprised to learn that they're all, in their rarity, flitting around Tomales Bay.

Marin Audubon Society's annual bird count turned up 185 species last week, coming in fourth in the nation-wide count. Cocoa, Fla., and San Diego tied for first, each with 206 species counted. Freeport, Tex., was third with 190 species.

There's obviously a feathered feud rampant. Lynn Stafford, a member of Marin Audubon Society and the count's co-leader, said: "Cocoa is where competitors say the counters carry rare birds around in their pockets and release them on count day."

More than 100 bird watchers counted birds in a circle roughly 15 miles in diameter centering at Marshall in West Marin, and counting birds from dawn to dusk.

Two common teal were spotted, and described, rather mysteriously, as "a very unusual vagrant from Europe."

Among other unusual birds were a least bittern, a rare summer visitor to Marin; Cassin's finch, a rare winter visitor, and Nuttall's woodpecker and 20 knots (a shorebird), both rare at any time.

More than 700 similar bird population censuses were taken throughout the nation last week.

Community Attitudes Tabulation Planned

Final tabulation of the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce community attitudes survey will probably start by the end of this week, according to Jack A. Witcomb, chairman of that committee.

The 1,500 questionnaires which were returned to the Jaycees were given to various members of the organization for tabulation. These were due back yesterday, but not all of them were ready, Whitecomb said.

Auto Stereo Reported Stolen

Theft of a $175 auto stereo was reported yesterday to Mill Valley police by William H. Baker, 49 Roque Moraes Drive. The stereo was stolen yesterday while his car was parked next to the "Welcome to Mill Valley" sign on East Blithedale Avenue.

Robert S. Roelfsen, 1518 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, reported Saturday to Mill Valley police that a bottle was thrown through the rear window of his car while it was parked on Molino Avenue near Old Mill Park.

William G. Feeney, 29 Bernard Street, Mill Valley, yesterday told police that he had recovered a home-made trailer stolen Nov. 6 from his home. He found it parked on Cascade Drive, he said.

Wine Taken

A 14-year-old Mill Valley boy was cited Saturday by police for shoplifting a 69-cent bottle of wine from Mill Valley Pharmacy, 418 Miller Avenue. He was released to the custody of his parents, police reported.

Numbering System Is Endorsed

The Marin County Planning Commission apparently resolved the debate over house numbers in Tamalpais and Homestead valleys today by generally endorsing the system desired by the Tamalpais Valley Fire Department.

The fire department, seeking a means of finding a home in a hurry, asked numbering by areas, with 100 covering a specific section, 200 another section and so on.

The planning commission said there could be exceptions for short streets, satisfying some who have protested a change.

The county ordinance on house numbers left room for considerable confusion, and the planning staff reported existing numbers were closer to the system wanted by the fire department than to the ordinance requirements.

In unanimously voting in favor of the fire department's plan, the commission directed that notification be required in future house number changes, with public hearings held.

Oregon is the Beaver State.

Lower Residential Density Favored In Tam Valley

The Marin County Planning Commission today voted in favor of lower residential density and reduction of commercial zoning around the intersection of Shoreline Highway and Pinehill Road in Tamalpais Valley.

The much-debated change will now go to the board of supervisors for further hearing.

The planning staff recommended changes in the area of about 12 blocks to bring zoning more in line with the 1959 Tamalpais Valley Master Plan and existing uses.

Some undeveloped apartment zones around the periphery would be changed to single family, while the multiple zone, allowing an apartment unit for every 1,000 square feet of ground space, would be changed to one unit for every 1,500 square feet.

Attorney Joseph E. Sheeks, representing Fred and Mary Bitz, with apartment zoning on Woodside Avenue and Sunset Way, argued that land values were being cut by the change and the planning staff was using "the old I'm here now so let's pull up the gangplank attitude."

The planning staff suggested that the Bitz property and some others next to single-family zone should be given even a lower density of one unit for every 3,500 square feet.

Mary Howell, with land on Pinehill Road, said this would cut the value of her land in half.

The planning department's recommendation, approved by the commission today, will also change the commercial zoning on the north side of Shoreline Highway to multiple residential.

Harry Johnson, owner of some of this property, said he would try to rush through a development before the zoning could take effect. He asked a three-year moratorium in any zone change so he could proceed in a more orderly manner with a development that would be nonconforming when the zoning took effect.

It was the third time the zone change had been debated before the commission. In addition the planning department held a noisy session with property owners and members of the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club last Monday night.

Disorderly Charges Faced By Couple

San Rafael police, called four times to a noisy party in an apartment at 1825 Lincoln Avenue early yesterday, arrested a man and his wife on disorderly charges.

Peter L. Regan, 28, of Apt. 115 at the Lincoln Avenue address, also was booked on a charge of assaulting the landlord, L. M. Malcolm. Regan and his wife, Barbara, 26, both cursed at Malcolm, police said.

Cyclist Hurt In Accident

A 36-year-old San Rafael man suffered a fractured leg yesterday when the motorcycle he was riding rammed a parked car on Front Street near Harbor Street, San Rafael.

John W. Grupe Jr. of 78 Novato Street was reported in good condition today in Marin General Hospital.

Grupe told police he was trying to brake the machine when it struck a parked car belonging to Pat Curran of 317 C Street, San Rafael.

DEEP STEAM Wall to Wall Carpet Cleaning

This unique new process cleans deep and yet treats the finest carpet with loving care . . .

DEEP STEAM removes soil from both the pile of the carpet and the carpet backing. Since no brushes or scrubbing action are used, there is no distortion of the carpet pile. The powerful extraction action of the DEEP STEAM process lifts matted pile to "like new" appearance. The need of frequent professional cleaning is reduced because deeply embedded soil is removed and leaves no residue in the carpet fibers to collect dirt.

OLD

The old equipment with brushes, using liquid detergent or powder, scrubs the soil DEEPER into the fabric . . . and even with the help of a vacuum fails to remove soil or residue. The detergent or powder left in the fabric soon attracts more soil and it is not long before the soil works back to the surface. Soon your carpets appear more soiled than before!

THIS DEEP STEAM PROCESS IS GUARANTEED TO BE COMPLETELY SAFE ON ALL FABRICS UNDER ALL CONDITIONS!

The advantages of DEEP STEAM CLEANING are obvious!

What Do You Call A Perfect Home?

Must it have 4 bedrooms with least 3 baths upstairs? And a powder room off the entry hall — with a very formal dining room, and a breakfast room, and a really outstanding family-game room opening to a formal pool? Should the living room be huge with high ceilings, with a den tucked away for warmth & privacy — and should the style be something stunning and different yet with a motif strongly suggestive of the traditional? And should the site be heavily wooded with along, formal driveway leading to an absolutely private site which is level and drenched with sun, with an immense view, priced under $175,000?? Naturally! We have one listed for . . .

Deepstar Dives Aiding Science

By SCIENCE SERVICE

WASHINGTON — The San Pedro Basin is a 270-square-mile area of Pacific Ocean bottom that lies between Santa Catalina Island and the sunny southern California mainland.

Its largely level floor lies about 3,000 feet beneath the pleasure boats and sport fishermen that ply the surface of the San Pedro channel. Steep escarpments, rising from the floor to the north and south, mark the edges of the island and mainland. To the east and west, gentler rises complete the valley's isolation from the open sea floor.

Into this quiet oceanic backwater, on Dec. 4, 1966, came three Navy researchers in the tiny submarine Deepstar. They were there to measure heat flow through the ocean bottom and collect deep-sea water samples.

As they dropped through the water, they took pictures of the ocean life outside the portholes — but only down to 2,500 feet. From there on they found no life at all.

On the bottom, just north of Catalina Island, they found a layer of fine brown flocculent material. It covered the normal ocean sediments about a centimeter deep as far as they could see.

As they cruised along, occasional dead squid and fish came into view, lying in the brown material. Worm tubes dotted the basin floor, but not one worm appeared anywhere. Nothing moved outside the three-man sub.

On a second dive, a half mile away, the bottom 500 feet of water again proved to be an underwater dead sea.

Chemical analysis of the near-bottom water samples showed why. Less than one-tenth of a milliliter of oxygen was dissolved in each liter . . . too little to support any kind of life.

That is because of the very poor water circulation within the basin, believes Dr. Eugene C. LaFond, heed of the Navy Electronics Laboratory's Environmental Division and one of the crew on the dive.

Observations from the Deepstar showed a current speed of only one-half centimeter per second — insufficient even to stir up the aparently decomposed material on the bottom.

Dr. LaFond points out that he dived in the San Pedro Basin on only one day of the year. At other times, he suggests, ocean currents may sweep through the area, flushing it out.

An ominous challenge to his explanation has been voiced by Dr. Bruce W. Halstead, a marine biotoxicologist and director of the World Life Reserach Institute.

"I think a lot of this is due to contamination," Dr. Halstead asserts. " . . . chemical agents have been dumped in there by government and industry.

"I do know a whole list of cyanides that have been dumped," he says.

"I can't believe these fish unconsciously swam into an anaerobic area and died. I believe it (their death) is due to toxic agents.

"Our government knows about San Pedro Basin," he says, "and is pushing hard to do something." The problem is that no one apparently knows for sure what effects any particular contaminant may have on ocean life — or on the people who get their food from the sea.

It is perfectly possible, Dr. Halstead points out, that a contaminant, dumped into the sea in relatively small amounts, might affect the marine food chain enough to make normal food fish temporarily poisonous to humans.

Just such a poison killed a number of Japanese living around Minamata Bay in southwestern Kyushu between 1953 and 1960, he notes. The strange disease, which damaged the brains of those not killed outright, was finally traced to shellfish growing in the bay. The shellfish though apparently healthy, had absorbed mercury compounds dumped in the bay by a factory, concentrating the deadly compounds in their bodies.

"I think this points up a very deadly example of what can happen in contamination of the marine environment," Dr. Halstead warns.

It is not, however, the most likely explanation of the lifeless waters of the San Pedro Basin, according to Dr. LaFond.

More information on the San Pedro Basin may become available this fall, however, when he returns for more dives in the Deepstar. Dives will also be made in the adjoining Santa Monica and Santa Barbara Basins.

Chamber Asks Aid To Jobless

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The California state Chamber of Commerce has called upon its more than 6,000 business, agricultural and industrial firms to attempt to find new jobs for state employees who will be leaving government service through the plan to cut 3,000 to 4,000 positions from several agencies.

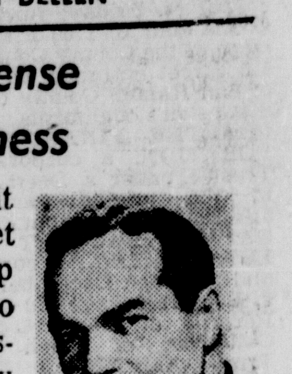
Gov. Ronald Reagan's staff announced the cuts last week, most of them from the department of mental hygiene. Philip N. Battaglia, executive secretary, said the caseload in the hospitals had declined from 33,000 to 20,000 in several years and many employees were unneeded.

Dr. Arnold O. Beckman, state chamber president, said business should "do everything possible to help in the situation which has been brought about by a business-like action by state government to eliminate unnecessary costs."

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Children Have Sixth Sense When It Comes To Illness



VAN DELLEN

Children have a sixth sense when it comes to illness. They remain quiet when sick but never hesitate to get up when they feel better. It is difficult to keep them in bed and parents are disturbed when the tyke fails to follow doctor's orders.

The 7-year-old daughter of a British physician had her appendix out and wanted to go home on the fourth day after the operation. The surgeon refused permission on the basis that bed rest was needed for proper healing of the scar. On the same evening, Dr. Hugh Jolly entered the ward and found his daughter had just won first place for bouncing up highest off the bed.

DR. JOLLY decided to investigate the need for enforced bed rest after his child's experience but failed to find scientific evidence for this practice. He then analyzed the surgical records of 734 children treated as day-patients who were not confined to bed against their wishes. Many had a hernia repaired and the parents were told to bring them back to the hospital on the fifth day after surgery. There were no complications and three-quarters of the youngsters had removed their own sutures.

He then studied two groups of children with respiratory infections. There was no difference in the duration of fever or of the illness between those kept in bed and those allowed to be up. The same results were obtained in tykes with rheumatic fever provided early ambulation was carefully supervised.

IN SOME conditions bed rest is essential. A boy with a certain type of transitory arthritis of the hip is an example. In contrast, parents should not interfere when the child feels ill enough to go to bed. The youngster who remains in bed when he could be up is the exception to the rule.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the Independent-Journal.)

STOMACH IN REVERSE

K. P. A. writes: What causes my stomach to back up on me at night?

REPLY

If your stomach goes into reverse early in the evening you can blame something you ate or a poorly functioning gall bladder. Distress in the early hours of the morning, when the stomach is empty, suggests ulcer. If discomfort is related to change in posture only, a diaphragmatic hernia may be responsible. May I suggest X-rays?

CARBON MONOXIDE

G. F. E. writes: How does carbon monoxide poisoning damage the brain?

REPLY

Carbon monoxide replaces oxygen in the blood. Because the brain is extremely sensitive to lack of oxygen, it suffers most. Dizziness, headaches, and loss of consciousness are the early manifestations. Prolonged exposure to carbon monoxide may cause permanent damage.

EMPHYSEMA

W. G. writes: Does asthma cause emphysema?

REPLY

Asthma is one of several causes of emphysema, a condition in which the air sacs in the lungs enlarge due to bronchial obstruction. The abnormality is common in various chronic lung disorders and now and then develops in the elderly as part of the wear and tear process.

SLOW TALKER

Mrs. G. A. writes: If a child has not begun talking by 18 months, does this mean he is backward?

REPLY

As a rule, speech comes by the 16th month. If the child cannot talk by the 30th month, the condition ought to be investigated.

Scientists Produce Violin Royal Family

By SCIENCE SERVICE

NEW YORK—The notion that scientists are taking on the violin — as they might some bug or physical particle — might produce aesthetic shudders among some music lovers. But just such a match has now taken the queen of instruments and produced an entire royal family in its place, ranging from a tiny 16-inch treble violin to a huge contrabass seven-footer.

So what else is new? Didn't those scientists ever hear of the viola, or the cello, or the string bass?

The difference, says Mrs. Carleen Maley Hutchins, a former science teacher and developer of the new family, is that all the new instruments have the same dynamics, "expressive qualities" and overall power that are characteristic of the violin itself.

In addition, the new string family has eight members, instead of four. By contrast, each member of the traditional family has its own characteristic sound — and overtones — apart from the difference in range.

Mrs. Hutchins didn't do all this by herself. Her chief colleague was the late Prof. Frederick A. Saunders, former chairman of the Harvard physics department and past president of the Acoustical Society of America, who three decades ago first located the position of the main body resonance and main cavity resonance in several fine violins.

The main body resonance is the lowest fundamental resonance of the wood structure of the violin; the cavity resonance is that of the air inside it.

Once this was known, it took almost a quarter of a century to learn how to place these resonances where they were wanted in the instrument while still maintaining the tone quality of the violin.

In the course of all this research, Prof. Saunders and Mrs. Hutchins came to the "sobering conclusion" that despite all their fancy techniques and odd-looking experimental models, the best sounding violins still came from conventional construction methods, developed by trial and error by early violin makers centuries ago.

Finally, composer Henry Brant and cellist Sterling Hunkins suggested the eight-violin family, designed to cover the entire pitch range of written music. Eight years later, reports Mrs. Hutchins in Physics Today (Feb.), the idea bore fruit, when all eight instruments were used in a concert at Harvard, dedicated to Prof. Saunders.

"For the first time," she writes, "we have a whole family of instruments made according to a consistent acoustical theory. Beyond a doubt they are musically successful."

Heroin Haul Made By Police

NORTH LAS VEGAS (UPI)—Officers from three law enforcement agencies arrested an alleged heroin pusher, 11 suspected users and confiscated $300 worth of heroin yesterday at a North Las Vegas motel.

The suspected seller was identified as Melvin Tellis, 30, of Las Vegas, who investigators said had been sought for two years.

Officers entered the room with a search warrant and arrested Tellis and three other suspects. Eight other persons who later came to the motel, allegedly for narcotics, also were taken into custody.

Firemen Free Trapped Boy

A nine-year-old San Rafael boy was playing under a foot bridge leading to Glenwood School Saturday afternoon when his leg was caught between two large water pipes.

The boy, Dan W. Chesnuts of 7 Rollingwood Drive, was unable to extricate himself.

Police, alerted by nearby residents, tried but were unable to free the boy. Firemen, using a large crowbar, got him loose quickly. He was unhurt.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Marshall McLuhan Is Rare Happening

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —NBC-TV yesterday afternoon gave us an hour of Marshall McLuhan, the communications theorist, and the first thing to say about his impact is that he is a remarkable television personality.

It is my personal opinion that if he were given a weekly half-hour of prime time to expound his explosive contemporary views, he would be a national television sensation.

AN EXPLORER

Whether one disagrees generally with his theories, or is critical of his periods of seeming illogic, is wholly beside the point. As he himself says, "I don't necessarily agree with everything I say" —which of course is part put-on but also a rather logical statement for a man who is essentially an explorer of new ideas rather than a cut-and-dried advocate of a precise piece of research.

The important thing is that McLuhan fulfills magnificently the essential purpose of an educator to stimulate the young of all ages to thought so that there is excitement and involvement in learning and in keeping one's mind open. On television, no less than in his writings, he is a one-man happening , a living proof that one man can indeed make a difference. He is altogether with it.

McLuhan appeared on the series entitled "NBC Experiment in Television," and since he is regarded as the dominant philosopher of the electronic age ("the medium is the message"), it is perhaps not surprising that he is so effective on the home tube. If his message Sunday was only medium in its persuasion ratio, his sense of wholeness regarding the electronic age was illuminating.

SPEECH PROBLEM

It matters not that he often appears to be structuring loosely what others regard as merely natural developments, or that he sometimes seems to be philosophizing what is just obvious about the past, present and future, or that his theories give the impression of being hippie-treated derivative views. The concept is all —the sense of unity and wholeness about scatter-shot modern life.

The NBC-TV program let us experience McLuhan rather than trying to clarify him, which was perhaps just as well, for if this noted theorist of communications has one problem, it is the inability to communicate precisely what he means at all times.

Thus Ernest Pintoff's guidance of the broadcast, which involved numerous attempts to pictorialize McLuhan's views in electronic and abstract forms, was ideal. For the literalism of isolated facts is secondary —in effect if not desirability —to the total experience in the television age, if one accepts the premise that the medium is indeed the message.

GLOBAL VILLAGE

"The global village is not created by the motor car —or even by the airplane. It's created by instant electronic information movement,' McLuhan said at one point in his on-camera appearance. At another point, his reference to television as a "cool" medium was part of one of his tantalizing thoughts: "Vietnam was the fisrt TV war, and you can see it isn't going down very well, it's too hot. TV is a cool medium and the war is a real hot event."

Point Reyes Plans Slow, Says Clausen

WASHINGTON — The need for orderly acquisition and development of Point Reyes National Seashore is being overshadowed by the interest in the creation of a Redwood National Park, Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-First District, Calif., declared today.

In a letter to National Park Service Director George Hartzog, Clausen said the Point Reyes project seems to have been "temporarily set aside" uncompleted.

The seashore project was authorized at $14 million in 1962 and increased to $19.35 million last year. Total cost of acquiring the 53,000 acre seashore is placed at between $44.5 million and $57 million.

"The 90th Congress must take up the issue as soon as possible and it is incumbent upon the Park Service to take the lead by furnishing its recommendations to the congress without delay," said Clausen.

Hub Trustees To Hear Report

San Anselmo School District trustees will hear a report on the findings of a citizens finance committee tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. at Red Hill Intermediate School.

John Holm of the citiziens committee will report enrollment projections, probable building and facility needs, and revenue sources.

A progress report will be given on district salary discussions, and on plans to improve the social science program. The board may consider student transportation policy.

Reagan Sees Greater State Role In Federal Programs

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Ronald Reagan returned last night from Washington where he attended a White House governors' conference.

Reagan, before leaving the nation's capital, told newsmen he believed Johnson administration officials were "looking more kindly" toward giving states greater freedom in administering federal porgrams.

The weekend White House visit was Reagan's first as governor.

The Republican chief executive also said he was convinced the U.S. position in Vietnam had been strengthened and that victory was "inevitable."

Regan said he had joined in calling for "tax sharing" between the federal and state governments but said administration officials gave "no answer" to governors who advocated it during the conference.

There was an indication, Reagan said, that federal officials were looking toward elimination of red tape to give states "more autonomy."

In urging tax sharing, Reagan said more of the available money would reach beneficiaries if programs were handled on the local level and thus subject to fewer administrative costs.

Asked whether the necessity for passing federal funds through state machinery would not add to the costs, Reagan said this would be true if "elaborate machinery" were needed. But he suggested a part of the federal tax money collected in the states be left here to eliminate the need for sending money to Washington and back again.

They posed for photographers but had nothing to say to newsmen at London Airport.

Hometown Boy Sikes Makes Good

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Dan Sikes has convinced his hometown friends that he is the city's best golfer, and now he would like to show officials of the prestige-packed Masters that he belongs in that tournament.

The 36-year-old Jacksonville lawyer bolstered his bid for an invitation to the Masters by winning the Jacksonville Open yesterday, and now ranks fourth among the contenders for two vacancies at the Augusta, Ga., tournament.

Sikes, $20,000 richer after winning the third tournament in his seven-year career as a pro, hopes to nail down a bid with top finishes in the Pensacola, Fla., and Greensboro, N.C., tournaments.

"My putting has really been good," Sikes said after taking the Jacksonville title by a stroke over 38-year-old Bill Collins, club pro at Purchase, N.Y.

"I've never putted better, although I have played better," Sikes said. One of his most spectacular putts nailed down the championship on his home Deerwood course in the final round.

"When I made that 40-foot birdie putt on the 16th hole I knew I had won," Sikes said. That gave him a three-stroke edge and he cautiously coasted in, three-putting the last two holes which he bogeyed.

"I couldn't have cared less," Sikes said. "My mind was a million miles away atfer that putt on the 16th. I knew I couldn't lose, and all I wanted to do was get it over."

Sikes, whose finishing 73 gave him a 72-hole total of 279, said he was a little surprised that he finished on top because he had led all the way.

"That's the toughest way there is to win a tournament, " the former University of Florida golf star said. "You usually feel like a blithering idiot trying to stay on top that long."

Collins and Kansas City rookie Jim Colbert also were elated after the tournament.

Collins, 38-year-old ex-Marine trying to make a comeback on the tour, won $12,000 for his second-place 280 after a closing 67, five-under par.

"That's the most I ever won," said Collins, whose previous best payoff was $9,000 for winning the 1962 Buick Open.

Colbert, in only his second season on the tour, collected $6,250 for his third-place tie at 281 with Gay Brewer Jr. That was more than he had ever won before.

Colbert shot a finishing 69, with Brewer closing with a 72. Chuck Courtney and Gob Goalby tied for fifth at 282 and won $4,050 each. Courtney, who pulled within a stroke of Sikes on the 12th hole, faded to a 72, matched by Goalby.

Julius Boros took seventh at 283 after his 70, and his $3,400 payoff boosted his 1967 PGA winnings to $46,687, most won this year. Jack Nicklaus finished at 292, Gary Player had a 285 total and defending champion Doug Sanders finished at 286.

Big Ten Power: Coaches Resign

Independent-Journal Sports
FOURTH SECTION Mon., March 20, 1967 29

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) — Illinois' three scandal-involved coaches reluctantly resigned yesterday, 24 hours after the Big Ten issued an ultimatum that they be fired or the university face indefinite suspension from the conference.

The action by football Coach Pete Elliott, basketball Coach Harry Combes and assistant Howie Braun ended a three-month ordeal stemming from a $21,000 athletic slush fund.

Dr. David D. Henry, university president who revealed the existence of the fund to the Big Ten and fought to the end to save the jobs of the coaches, accepted the resignations.

"Under the mandate of the intercollegiate conference of faculty representatives, the case is considered closed inasmuch as the three coaches relinquished all duties with the Athletic Association as of this date," Dr. Henry said.

On Saturday, Dr. Henry lost his final round in an attempt to show cause why the coaches should not be fired. The faculty representatives told Illinois to fire the coaches by Tuesday or face indefinite suspension from the conference.

The scandal broke in December when assistant athletic director Mel Brewer, bypassed for the athletic directorship which had opened with the Dec. 1 resignation of Doug Mills, revealed to Dr. Henry the existence of the fund.

Dr. Henry took the matter to the Big Ten and the athletic directors met and decided Illinois must fire the three or show cause why its membership should not be suspended or terminated.

Illinois appealed on March 3 to the faculty representatives who came to the same decision as that of the athletic directors. Illinois' "show cause" appeal Saturday also failed and the faculty group issued its Tuesday-or-else mandate.

In accepting the resignations, Dr. Henry said: "The Board of Directors of the Athletic Association have recommended and I have approved the honoring of existing contracts with the coaches which will terminate Aug. 31, 1967. Their faculty status in the College of Physical Education part time assignments is not affected."

Elliott, 42, has been at Illinois seven years. Combes, 51, concluded his 20th season at Illinois, and Braun, 50, has been Combes' assistant for 18 years.

The three coaches issued a joint statement yesterday in which they charged the "Big Ten fired us."

"It is apparent to everyone that the Commissioner, Athletic Directors and Faculty Representatives of the Western Conference (Big Ten) have 'fired us'.

"We are therefore reluctantly stepping down from our respective coaching responsibilities at this time rather than to allow the conference to unjustly force the University of Illinois to act on an impossible situation.

"We emphatically believe that the final decision in this matter must be made by the conference rather than the University and consider the announcement of March 18, 1967, as the final decision.

"We have contemplated the future of the athletics at Illinois in the light of the various possibilities available.

"We believe that the NCAA would necessarily support any conference action which would mean at some future date, if the NCAA suspended or expelled Illinois from membership there would be nonathletic programs at Illinois.

"We do not believe that we should jeopardize Illinois or intercollegiate athletics to this extent and that Illinois should be forced to make a choice which might lead to such a result."

Super Willie Likes Our 'Tipalpais' Mountain

QUOTE UNQUOTE: "Marin County is really where I would like to live, man, but it is so far from the airport and sleep is so important to me I think I will be better off living on the peninsula. But I sure like that mountain you got over there—that Tipalpais or whatever you call it."

WILLIE MAYS

Marin realtors who'd like to lure Willie Mays to our Bounty County might advise the Giants' great captain that (1) we have helicopter service to the airport, (2) our supermarkets are well-stocked with Saxon Apple Juice and (3) on a clear day you can see Tipalpais from anywhere in the county.

TIMBER-R-R! — If that silly proposal of a Cassius Clay - Walt Chamberlain title fight in San Francisco materializes, Wilt says he would like to train in San Rafael. Well, he could spar with our redwoods. Or Tipalpais.

Shriners Will Follow 49ers

THE BIG MOVE — When the 49ers announce they'll quit Kezar and move permanently to Candlestick Park starting in the 1968 season—and they will, as I told you last year—look for the Shrine East-West Game to follow. A couple of bigwig Shriners (big fez?) told one of my agents they'll definitely move their annual classic to the Giants' ballyard when the 49ers do so.

HOW'S THAT?—Cute line in the I-J sports section last Tuesday: "Superior depth carried the Marin Swim Club . . . to a stunning team victory in the Northern California Class A swim meet at Sacramento last weekend."

When those kids learn how to swim on TOP of the water they'll be great

AND SPEAKING of such, I hope you catch the dry humor in the fact that Frank Wetmore is swimming coach at Vallejo High School.

Warmed Our Underdog Hearts

REAL TIGERS — If moral victories counted, University of Pacific Tigers would be Western Regional NCAA basketball champions today. Their gutty performance against the vastly superior UCLA Bruins Saturday night warmed the hearts of us underdog fans.

In fact, remove Lew-Lew Alcindor from the UCLA lineup and Pacific would have whipped the Bruins.

INDOOR SPORTS—Sausalito resident Don Cappa, who owns the Marina Ski Shop in San Francisco, has invented what he calls "Bar Skis."

They are a broken pair of slats designed for indoor sports who like to go to the mountains but abhor the thought of anything more strenuous than elbow bending.

According to Cappa, "When someone suggests heading for the slopes, our indoor sports merely point to their broken skis, shrug their shoulders and head for the nearest gin mill."

Giant Roster Gets Smaller

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (UPI)—The San Francisco Giants have made their first cut-down of the spring.

They Sunday sent five players to their minor league complex at Casa Grande, Ariz., yesterday for reassignment. The quintet includes infielders Alan Gallagher, Bruce Hix, and DeGold Francis; outfielder Bob Bonds; and pitcher Ken Fila.

Meanwhile, the varsity turned in its best spring showing to date yesterday with an 8-5 romp over Chicago at Phoenix. The two teams clash again today at Scottsdale.

Yesterday's score should have been much worse as the Giants built up a 7-0 lead and then coasted home. Cesar Gutierrez' big error and some hefty Cub belting off rookie Rich Robertson were the only chinks in the Giants' armor.

But varsity hurler 'Bob Bolin tossed five brilliant innings to pick up the win and relief ace Frank Linzy bailed Robertson out of a jam with a stunning two innings of hitless relief. The hitters meanwhile bombed 15 safeties with Willie Mays getting two to move his spring average to an unbelievable .519. Jay Alou got two to make his average .484; Jim Davenport collected a double and triple to wind up at .375 and Hal Lanier tripled and singled to hit .355.

About the only guy with problems is Willie McCovey. He fanned three times to watch his average dwindle to .241.

Saturday, the Giants bounced California 6-4 at Phoenix with Alou whacking four hits. Frank Johnson broke out of a slump to deliver a key single in the eighth. Ron Herbel and Joe Gibbon each gave up two runs in four innings and Bill Henry tossed a scoreless frame to grab the win.

The Giants are 6-4 for the spring.

Woolfson, Borowiak Win Doubles Title

Hayward veteran Joe Woolfson and Lafayette youngster Jeff Borowiak teamed up to win the Pacific Coast Senior-Junior Doubles Indoor Championship yesterday at the Pacific Coast Indoor Tennis Club San Rafael.

They downed Don Jacobus of Berkeley and Erik Van Dillen of San Mateo, 6-3, 6-4 in the finals.

Wildcat Hurler Fans 16

The Burch boys, former Marin Catholic pitching aces Frank and Ben, may be gone, but oh that Brian King.

The Marin Catholic southpaw stuffed Cardinal Newman's batting lineup in his back pocket Saturday with a stupendous mound performance as both the Wildcats and Redwood jumped into the semi-finals of the Healdsburg Lions Club Invitational Tournament on shutout pitching.

Marin Catholic meets Healdsburg at 8 tomorrow night while Redwood was to meet Analy at 5 tomorrow afternoon.

King mowed down 16 Newman batters on strikeouts and accounted for all but one of the outs as Marin Catholic walked to a 4-0 opening round victory in a real slugfest that saw a total of three hits marked up.

The Giants made the semifinals as Mike Terry another southpaw, hurled two-hit ball in a 4-0 Redwood win on the strength of a big three-run first inning.

In other games, Terra Linda split a doubleheader with Petaluma losing the first, 8-1, and winning the second, 4-3, on a three run seventh inning.

King was amazing. He allowed just two hits, one a bunt, for Cardinal Newman's only base runners. He picked both of them off and made two infield putouts. On the mound, he twice struck out six in a row and struck out the side three times.

The Wildcats did not exactly burn the barn down at the plate, coming up with just one hit, a two-run triple by Rich Denning in a three-run sixth inning. They got their other two runs on an assortment of walks, and wild pitches.

Wet Title To UC Santa Barbara

CITY OF COMMERCE, (AP) —University of California at Santa Barbara is the new NCAA College Division swimming and diving champion.

With 255½ points, Santa Barbara edged out University of California at Irvine, which had 246 points in the three-day competition which ended Saturday.

Two meet records were set the final night. Doug Russell of Arlington State swam the 100-yard butterfly in 51.8, bettering the former mark of 52.1.

Playoffs: Warriors Will Host Lakers

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAN FRANCISCO — The Los Angeles Lakers and San Francisco's pennant winning Warriors start National Basketball Association Western Division playoffs tomorrow in the Oakland Sports Arena.

Rick Barry threw in 39 points yesterday while leading the Warriors to a 135-127 triumph over the Detroit Pistons in the regular season's final game.

Barry, averaging 35.5 points a game, led the league with a total of 2,775. He displaced Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain as league leader for the first time since Chamberlain entered the NBA eight seasons ago.

The Warriors were tied with the Pistons, last in the division, at 120-120 with two minutes to go when forward Fred Hetzel hit two baskets and center Nate Thurmond scored on a three-point play.

San Francisco finished the year with a 44-37 mark, but were 36-24 when Nate Thurmond broke his hand six weeks ago. Thurmond had 22 points yesterday, but missed 14 games because of the injury. Thurmond still obviously is bothered by the cast on his hand.

Tom Meschery and Al Attles did not even make the final road trip because of injuries and are expected to be ready for limited duty only in the playoffs.

What would help pick up the slack for the Warriors would be if somebody else got hot. A couple of candidates emerged yesterday when Jim Kink hooped 27 and Hetzel got 19, including the key buckets at the end of the contest.

Saturday, coach Bill Sharman played his reserves most of the way at Cincinnati and the Royals waltzed 127-112.

Bruins Face Houston In NCAA Semi-Finals

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP) — The UCLA Bruins, who came out of the NSAA Western Regional basketball playoffs bruised but undefeated in 28 games this season, prepare for another physical battle Friday at Louisville.

The Bruins took the Western Regional 80-64 over the University of Pacific Saturday night.

They will play strong and tall Houston, an 83-75 winner over Southern Methodist, in the NCAA semifinals.

Texas Western, the defending NCAA champion and the only independent team in the Western tournament, edged Wyoming 69-67 for third.

Lew Alcindor, UCLA's unstoppable 7-foot-1⅜ inch All-American, scored 38 points. He had 14 rebounds, but had a rough time getting them.

He was fouled repeatedly and was knocked to the floor four times. On one occasion he came up pushing back.

"Alcindor has not been pushed around that hard this season," said UCLA Coach John Wooden. "I think I might have lost my composure, too.

"It was one of our toughest physically," Wooden said of the game. "Pacific played us real well. It has as tough a man to man defense as we've faced this season."

Pacific excited the crowd of 8,600 by tying the game 21-21 with 6:09 left in the first half on two free throws by David Fox, who led Pacific with 17 points.

A stuff by Alcindor made it 23-21 and the Bruins shot away to a 10-point lead. Pacific closed to within seven points midway through the second half but fell back after 6-7 Keith Swagerty was taken out when he drew his fourth foul.

"The pleasing thing is we always pulled away when the Tigers came close to us," said Wooden. "It's pleasing because Pacific has to be a pretty good club, with 21 straight wins and the ability to win close ones."

Pacific, winner of the West Coast Athletic Conference, finished the season with a 24-4 record.

"A team must have a bigger man than we do to defeat UCLA, said Pacific Coach Dick

Cassius Schedules Secret Workout For Title Fight

NEW YORK (AP) — Cassius Clay says he will have a secret workout today to wind up his training for his title defense against Zora Folley at Madison Square Garden Wednesday night.

According to the announcement from Clay's camp, the unbeaten champion wants another drill to further prepare for Folley's left hooks to the body.

Clay, a 5-1 favorite, needs a secret workout as much as a $ billion loan.

The 25-year-old king of the heavyweights has age, weight, height and speed going for him against the methodical, plodding, cautious 34-year-old challenger from Chandler, Ariz.

For a change the champion hasn't predicted the round he expects to end the scheduled 15-rounder. But Angelo Dundee, his astute trainer, says "it will take a few rounds for the champ to get his jabs working on Folley and then it should be over somewhere between the seventh and 11th rounds."

Folley finished his training yesterday with a two-round workout against gangling Wendell Newton and then said he was "fit and ready" to dethrone the champion.

"I feel confident I can beat him either by decision or knockout," Folley said.

He looked sluggish and may have been a bit stale after 105 rounds of boxing preparations for Clay. Newton, simulating Clay's moving, stabbing style, was able to spear Folley with left jabs.

Folley, however, landed a series of punches to the body in both rounds. He hopes to be able to slow up Clay with left hooks to the liver and rights to the head.

"If I hit him with a good right, he's liable to go," said Folley. "I've got 40 knockouts to my credit so I must be able to punch."

Clay finished his public boxing drills Saturday. He did not work yesterday.

Clay will be making his seventh title defense within a year and his ninth in all.

While he hasn't been predicting, there is a good possibility he is planning a spectacular finish. Folley shapes up as a perfect foil.

Playoff Time In NBA

By U P INTERNATIONAL

Eight teams are planning for the playoffs and the other two for a coin flip in the National Basketball Association.

The 81-game regular season that eliminates only two clubs from the playoffs —the last place clubs (Detroit and Baltimore) in each division —ended yesterday and the playoffs will start tomorrow.

It'll be Cincinnati at Philadelphia, New York at Boston, Los Angeles at San Francisco and Chicago at St. Louis in the opening games of the playoffs.

Meanwhile, Detroit and Baltimore will flip a coin to decide which team gets first choice in the upcoming draft. Last year the Pistons lost the flip to New York and had to "settle" for Dave Bing —now they hope to win it and grab Jimmy Walker to give them a terrific guard combo.

Philadelphia edged Baltimore, 132-129, Boston whipped New York 124-112, Chicago topped Los Angeles 122-109 and San Francisco topped Detroit, 135-127 in the final day of activity.

The 76ers victory enabled them to complete the most successful season in pro basketball history as Wilt Chamberlain scored 37 points and pulled down 30 rebounds. The 76ers finished with an incredible 68-13 record for an .480 percentage.

Boston, finishing second to the 76ers during the regular season for the second straight year, topped New York for the 19th straight time over the past two years.

Sam Jones scored 29 for the Celtics.

Chicago completed the best year for an expansion team in sports history as it beat Los Angeles behind Bob Boozer's 24 point total. Chicago won 33 games and made the playoffs while most experts figured they'd be lucky to win 15.

Raiders Play A Good Brand Of Basketball

For football players they're not bad basketball players.

The Oakland Raiders All-Stars, sparked with a big boom by 6-5 Roger Hagberg, rallied in the last quarter to down Mill Valley Boys Club, 83-79, at College of Marin yesterday in a benefit game for the Mill Valley Boys Club.

Hagberg, ripped in 43 points and got lots of help on top of it from the Buffalo Bill duo of Art Powell and Tom Flores, with 20 and 11 points respectively.

Steve Anderson has 21 points while Brad Busch had 20 and Jay Johnson 19 for Mill Valley. Kansas City Chief end Reg Carolan added nine points.

Mill Valley led most of the game, grabbing a 22-14 first-period lead. The Raiders tied it up, 42-42, at the half but Mill Valley waltzed into the final period with a 67-54 lead. And they saw it twitter away in the final stanza on a 27-12 Oakland blitz.

In the preliminary eighth grade game, Mount Carmel topped Edna McGuire, 33-24. The halftime game of fourth graders ended in a 4-4 deadlock.

Seal Playoff Bid Looking Better With 4-1 Victory

OAKLAND (AP) — The California Seals beat the Vancouver Canucks 4-1 yesterday afternoon, their third Western Hockey League victory at home and their second straight over the Canucks.

The win gave the Seals a four point edge over Los Angeles and Victoria for fourth place playoff position in the league.

The Seals scored first on a shot by Pete Panagabko at 16:46. The Canucks tied it when Brian Hextall intercepted a wild pass and went in unassisted.

The clubs played evenly in the second period without a score.

But the Seals exploded for three goals in the final 20 minutes to wrap up the game with goals by Ed Hoekstra, Danny Belisle and George Swarbrick.

French Skiers Have Great Time At Vail

VAIL, Colo. (AP) — The men and women skiers of France will leave here this week wreathed in victory as predicted, but they will be looking over their shoulders at the Austrians as they head for Jackson Hole, Wyo., and the Wild West Classic March 24-26.

France defeated Austria by only three points, 231-228, in the American International team races that ended here Saturday, thanks mainly to the brilliant racing of Jean-Claude Killy.

Killy picked up 60 points in the team races by winning all three events—slalom, giant slalom and downhill—and capped his performance with a victory in the Vail Trophy giant slalom race yesterday.

The Sunday race, run in heavy snow and fog over an icy, rutted course, gave Killy the maximum possible 225 points for the World Cup of Skiing, which will be awarded at Jackson Hole this week. Killy will finish more than 100 points ahead of his nearest challenger, teammate Guy Perillat.

The Women's World Cup will almost certainly go to Marielle Goitschel of France, who has 169 points. French skier Annie Famose is second with 153 points, and Nancy Greene of Canada is third with 151.

The United States, sparked by Jim Heuga and Rick Caffee, was third in the team races with 148 points.

Switzerland made a last-minute recovery by placing five racers in the first 10 positions in Saturday's men's downhill to wind up with 123 points and fourth place. Canada was last with 80 points, despite a sparkling performance by Miss Greene.

Killy, who had to ski a fantastic run to defeat Heuga in Thursday's slalom, did it again yesterday in the giant slalom.

Huega covered the one-mile, 47-gate course through blinding snow in 1:44.65, the best time of the day and about 1½ seconds ahead of the next best racer, Heini Messner of Austria.

But then Killy flew down the course to whip the Tahoe City, Calif., skier with a fantastic 1:42.83. Messner was third in 1:46.06.

Miss Greene, who had won the women's giant slalom in the team races Friday, did it again yesterday as the snow which had hampered the men races vanished suddenly, leaving brilliant sunshine for the women's race.

Miss Greene covered the mile-long, 48-gate women's course in 1:16.14, followed by Erika Schinegger of Austria in 1:16.68 and Miss Famose in 1:17.9o.

Low point for the Americans came Saturday, when Suzanne Chaffee of Rutland, Vt., took a high-speed spill in the women's downhill and dislocated at hip The injury knocked her out of competition indefinitely.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS STAR

Cager May Be Early Pro

NEW YORK (AP) — The gleam in Walt Frazier's eye is as bright as his basketball future when Southern Illinois' 6-foot-3 sparkplug talks about his 12-pound protege.

"My son will be four weeks old tomorrow," Frazier said after pacing the Salukis to the National Invitation Tournament championship last Saturday. "He weighed eight pounds, nine ounces when he was born — but the last time I checked he was up to 12 pounds.

"He might be a football player. I'll just let him make his own decision."

Whatever course Walt Frazier III chooses to follow in time to come, he figures prominently in Walt Frazier II's plans for the immediate future.

The Southern Illinois star, who earned the NIT's Most Valuable Player Award with 21 points, 11 rebounds and five assists in the Salukis' 71-56 conquest of Marquette for the title, must decide soon whether to play next season as a collegian or a professional.

Frazier, a junior, is eligible for next month's National Basketball Association draft because his college class graduates this year. The Atlanta native sat out the 1965-66 season because of scholastic difficulties. But he has come back to lead the Salukis to their finest season ever (24-2) and gain Little All-America honors.

"I don't know yet what I'll do," he said. "I want to finish school, but I need money now that I've got a family. My ambition is to be a pro."

"He could make it as a pro right now," said Harry Gallatin, the former Southern Illinois and NBA coach who watched Frazier's scoring, rebounding and playmaking oust touted Duke and surprisingly-strong Rutgers on the way to the NIT crown.

"He's an All-America — and I mean big-time," said Duke Coach Vic Bubas. "He's one of the best 10 I've seen."

Frazier, operating with equal efficiency from either the backcourt, the corner or underneath the basket, scored 88 points in the Salukis' four-game sweep to the title and also had 52 rebounds and 19 assists.

His cool determination and drive brought SIU from 11 points behind in both the 79-70 semifinal victory over Rutgers and the Saturday finael. "He can go unnoticed out there until the going gets sticky," said a Southern Illinois aide. "Then he becomes a truly great ballplayer."

Bob Lloyd of Rutgers outscored Fraizer in NIT play, setting a four-game record of 129 points. So did George Stone, Marshall's 6-foot-7 outside hotshot. But Frazier was a solid choice for the MVP trophy after his all-around performance before a capacity crowd of 18,499 at Madison Square Garden.

Morehead Going Far; In Distance, That Is

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The pitchers are going further in the spring training exhibitions now, but few of them are going as far as Dave Morehead.

Morehead, a Boston right-hander who has won only one game since he threw a no-hitter against the Cleveland Indians Sept. 16, 1965, has been optioned to Toronto of the International League.

He was bothered with arm trouble most of last season and had a 1-2 record. He was bombed for 10 runs in 2 1-3 innings by the New York Mets last Thursday in his only exhibition appearance this season.

"We had to send him where he can get a chance to pitch," Boston Manager Dick Williams said yesterday in Winter Haven. Fla. "When he shows us that he's okay, we'll call him back."

But while Williams was disappointed with Morehead's performance, he got some good news from another quarter — slugger Tony Coniglairo is on his way back.

"Tony should be swinging a bat in a week and playing in two weeks," Red Sox physician Dr. Thomas Tierney said after examining Conigliaro in Boston.

Conigliaro suffered a hairline fracture of the shoulder when hit by a pitch in batting practice Saturday. He was flown to Boston for an examination, and returned to the team yesterday.

He didn't make it back in time for the game, but the Red Sox still pulled out a 7-6 decision over Detroit.

In the other Florida exhibitions, the New York Yankees beat the Mets 1-0 in Fort Lauderdale, St. Louis took the Chicago White Sox 7-5 at St. Petersburg, Houston nipped Pittsburgh 2-1 in 10 innings at Fort Myers, Cincinnati blanked Atlanta 4-0 in six innings at West Palm Beach, Los Angeles topped Baltimore 8-6 at Miami, and Philadelphia shut out Washington 4-0 at Clearwater.

Cleveland blasted California 8-2 at Tucson, Ariz., and San Francisco topped the Chicago Cubs 8-5 at Phoenix, Ariz. Kansas City edged Minnesota 5-4 in 10 innings in Caracas, Venezuela.

Retzlaff Retires From Pro Football

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Pete Retzlaff, described by the Philadelphia Eagles as "the greatest pass receiver in the club's history," today announced his retirement after 11 National Football League seasons.

The 34-year-old Retzlaff was the Eagles' biggest bargain. He was acquired in 1956 for $100, and converted from fullback to become one of the NFL's top offensive ends—a fantastic pass receiver who seemed to have glue on his fingertips.

Retzlaff informed Joe Kuharich, Eagle general manager-coach, that he was retiring because "the added pressure of my varied business endeavors make it impossible for me to devote the time and energy so necessary to continue to patricipate on the high competitive level" of the NFL.

Retzlaff said he is retiring "with some misgiving" because he feels the Eagles have the personnel to win the Eastern Division title next season.

Kuharich said Retzlaff's departure "will create a void in the offense which will not be easy to fill."

Retzlaff is active in Philadelphia as a radio and television sports announcer.

Also, Retzlaff is one of the leading candidates under consideration by President Johnson for the national physical fitness director's job recently vacated by Stan Musial, when the former baseball star became general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Lions selected the 6 foot, 1 inch Retzlaff 22nd in the 1953 NFL draft as a fullback. He then entered the service and when he reported to the Lions three years later they were loaded with runners. Considered expendable he was dealt to Philadelphia.

Known as The Baron because of his German ancestry, Retzlaff was converted to a split end by the Eagles and went on to earn all-pro honors and play in five all-star pro bowl games. His best season was 1965, when he caught 66 passes for 1,190 yards and scored 10 touchdowns.

State Derby Horses Vie Saturday

ALBANY (AP) — The 85 nominees for Golden Gate Field's big California Derby are all eligible for Saturday's six-furlong, $15,000-added Eastbay Handicap. A large field is expected.

In midweek, the $15,000 California Oaks for sophomore fillies in a flat mile race will be revived. The last time this race was run was in 1959 at the old Tanforan Track in San Bruno.

Among those pointing for the Wednesday race are Native Honey, Forgiving, Indovina, Ellen Gruder, Lady Gourmet and Renova. The field for the Saturday handicap has not been announced.

After six days of the spring season, Jerry Lambert tops the jockey standings with eight victories. He rode Native Diver to the mount's 31st stakes victory Saturday in the $16,250 San Francisco Mile.

Native Diver ran the distance in 1:35 1-5 to edge out Perris by a head. The winner paid $3.20, $2.80 and $2.40. Native Diver was running with the top weight of his career, 133 pounds, in the handicap event.

Pacific had 10 turnovers to UCLA's nine.

UCLA's Lucius Allen and Mike Warren, who scored 13 and 12 points, joined Alcindor, Fox and David Lattin of Texas Western on the all-tournament team. Alcindor, who scored 29 against Wyoming Friday despite sitting out 12 minutes in the 109-60 runaway, was named the most outstanding player.

Lattin scored 34 points for Texas Western, officially called the University of Texas at El Paso. He was held to 13 Friday night when Pacific defeated Texas Western 72-63.

Texas Western finished the season at 22-6 to Wyoming's 15-14.

Overcharges In Phone Calls

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The California Public Utilities Commission today in a brief filed in Washington, D.C., told the Federal Communications Commission that American Telephone & Telegraph Company overcharged customers $459 million last year for California interstate telephone calls.

The Utilities Commission (PUC) recommended reduction of AT&T revenues by that amount and said Bell System still would earn 7 per cent on its rate base without the money. AT&T has requested an 8 per cent rate of return.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Growth Of Earnings Can Be Increased By Trading

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "I am 50 years old, single, and wish to build income for retirement during the next 12 years. I have $2,000 in E bonds, $5,000 in savings, Peoples Gas Light and Coke, Columbia Gas, Ford and Pepsi-Cola General Bottlers. What changes do you suggest?" H. R.

A. I commend you for avoiding speculation and buying stocks of reasonably good quality. Your holdings are suitable for income and moderate appreciation, but they are not in all instances best suited for long-term growth, which should be your objective.

I suggest that you hold Peoples Gas which serves Chicago and some of its suburbs. This company has a long and consistent record of rising earnings and dividends. I believe it will ultimately work out well for you. I advise you to switch your other stock holdings into areas which appear to have greater potential for enhancing your capital at retirement. As replacements, I suggest General Telephone and Electronics, Warner-Lambert and Green Giant.

Q. "We are a young family with two small children. It is possible that my company may transfer me to another area at any time. Do you think we should buy a home with a small down payment and invest the bulk of our $18,000 savings in growth stocks, or buy a house outright? Our town has 3,000 population." N. S.

A. I think that for a young couple you've done extremely well to acquire a substantial nest egg — to say nothing of two small children. I wonder if it is necessary in your circumstances to buy a house at all, which in a small town might be difficult to resell without loss. Even if you could get out even, you would probably have to pay a reasonable commission — which could make your tenure rather costly if you were transferred within a year or two. I suggest you rent a place, if possible, invest half your savings in growth stocks and leave the balance in the bank.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Interest Payments Usually Deductible

By PETER JAMES WIKEL, CPA

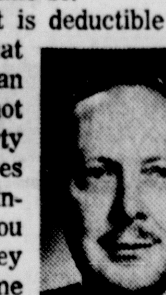
Interest paid is deductible if you are legally liable for the debt. You cannot deduct interest you pay for another if you were not legally liable to pay.

Interest is deductible in several places on your tax return.

1. Interest on personal things like your home, automobile, etc., is deductible only if you itemize your deductions on page 3, part IV, of your tax return.

2. Interest on property you rent to others is deductible on Schedule B, Form 1040, page 1, part II - Rent and Royalty Income.

3. Interest paid in connection with your trade or business is deductible on Schedule C, Form 1040, page 1, line 21.



Wikel

The interest is deductible depending on what you use the loan money for, not on the property which secures the loan. For instance, if you borrow money on your home and use it to improve a piece of rental property you own, you can deduct the interest on the Rental Schedule. If you are self-employed and your business borrows money which you use for personal purposes, the interest is not deductible as a business expense on Schedule C, but only as a page 2 deduction if you itemize.

When you buy property or educational services on the installment plan, or use a deferred payment plan of an educational institution for educational services which are provided for a student and the interest is separately stated, you can deduct the interest in the year paid, no matter what the rate. If the extra charges for time buying are only identifieda s "carrying charges" and the interest cannot be determined, you can only deduct the lesser of 6 per cent of the average monthly unpaid balance of your account or the amount of the carrying charges allocable to the year.

To find your average unpaid balance, add the balance of your account at the end of each month in the year and divide by 12. 6 per cent of this figure is your interest.

To figure the carrying charges allocable to the year, divide the total carrying charges on the contract by the number of payments to be made. This gives you a carrying charge per payment. Then multiply this by the number of payments you made in the year. This gives you your allocable carrying charges for the year.

You can deduct only the smaller of the interest or the carrying charges.

New Telephone Building Begun In San Rafael

Foundations have been started for a two-story plus basement addition to Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.'s communications equipment building at 220 Shaver Street, San Rafael.

The addition will add 12,500 square feet to house long-distance switching equipment.

"This project," said Troy E. Lewis, PT&T's San Rafael manager, "will benefit all Bay Area telephone users by augmenting long-distance equipment already in use throughout this growing region."

He said the over-all $1.6 million project is scheduled for completion in late summer of 1968.

Negroes Plan Rights Funds

NEW YORK (AP) — Forty-seven of the nation's wealthiest and most prominent Negroes have agreed to try to raise a million dollars a year to provide legal aid in civil rights cases involving both Negroes and whites.

The group was founded Saturday at the Harvard Club in New York, Jack Greenberg, head of the NAACP legal defense fund, said last night in a telephone interview from Washington.

Plans call for recruiting 1,000 Negro men and women to pledge $1,000 annually to the fund.

The fund raisers organized themselves as the National Negro Business and Professional Committee for the Legal Defense Fund, Greenberg said.

Social Security Against Cards To Cash Checks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Social Security Administration wishes America's trusting merchants would stop accepting Social Security cards as identification for check cashing purposes.

That little card, Social Security Commissioner Robert M. Ball said today, is not a guarantee of its bearer's identity. Millions of dollars worth of bad checks are cashed each year by persons presenting bogus Social Security cards, he said.

Among the institutions refusing to accept them as positive identification, Ball said, is the Social Security Administration. When a person makes a claim for Social Security benefits, he said, some other verifiable form of identification is demanded.

Employee Unions Slap At Reagan

SAN JOSE (UPI)—Gov. Ronald Reagan's administration has been charged with "reactionary, destructive policies" by a conference of state employee unions for cutting back more than 2,600 Department of Mental Hygiene positions.

In a resolution passed Saturday, representatives of state employee unions affiliated with the American Federation of State, County and Municipal employes, AFL-CIO, called for "all organized labor to oppose and protest this retrogressive program of the governor by every means available."

Nurses and psychiatric technicians at the San Jose conference insisted the personnel cuts meant that the chronically ill patients only will be able to receive custodial care, rather than any treatment or therapy.

Civil Service Sets Trainee Examinations

The Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, Naval Weapons Station, Concord, plans to hold examinations for trainees in mathematics, metallurgy, chemistry, physics and civil, mechanical, electrical and electronics engineering.

Forms may be obtained from J. J. WcWhorter, U.S. Post Office, Civil Service Examiner, San Rafael.

Mall Plans For Tiburon Outlined

Plans to make a pedestrian mall of Tiburon's Main Street were set bubbling again Saturday when the Tiburon city manager outlined to the Main Street Merchants Association the pluses, minuses and how-tos of creating a mall.

The association's executive committee wants to meet this week with the Tiburon Chamber of Commerce directors and any other interested parties, association president Thomas J. Belton said.

City Mgr. Lawrence D. Rose said the only major physical problem in closing Main Street to vehicles would be routing traffic off Corinthian Island. He said an extension could be built between Juanita and Alcatraz avenues which would be an improvement over the present route for traffic leaving the island.

Main Street, small, narrow and picturesque, is well suited to conversion to a mall, Rose said. Traffic moves with difficulty on the street and a mall would unify the two sides by removing the traffic barrier, he said.

Belton said the merchants are strongly in favor of the mall. Aim of this week's joint meeting will be to draft a request for the city council to create it.

Ford Attacks Social Security

SANTA BARBARA (UPI) — House Minority Leader Gerald R. Ford, R-Mich., used the weekend convention of the California College Republicans to criticize President Johnson's handling of Social Security.

During a Saturday luncheon speech, Ford said the President "has a very ambitious plan that is inequitable to young people."

Ford told the students, "If you start paying social security taxes when you become 21 years old and pay in for 44 years of work at today's tax levels, you will have contributed $33,496 into the fund.

"If you live the expected 13 years after retiring at age 65," he added, "You will collect just $19,704 in benefits.

U.S. Pressing For Recess Of Disarmament Meeting

GENEVA (AP) — The United States is pressing for an immediate recess of the 17-nation disarmament conference only four weeks after the start of the current session, an informed source reported today.

According to an informant, the Soviet Union, which is cochairman of the conference with the United States, has thus far not agreed. The nonaligned members of the conference have just been informed of the American proposal, the source said, and have not yet reacted.

The Russians are reported to have told the United States they will go along with the wish of the majority. Officially, the United States argues that since the conference normally takes a brief Easter recess, it will not be worth resuming discussions for several weeks before the traditional spring recess. According to the source, the United States would like the conference to reassemble in Geneva in early May.

Terra Linda High Hit By Burglars

Burglars, apparently after student records, broke into Terra Linda High School at 320 Nova Albion Way, San Rafael, Saturday night and scattered contents of desks and file cabinets around the main office.

Police found the office door pried open and the copying machine running. Entry to the school was through a cafeteria door.

Cabbie Halts Fare On Bridge

A cab-driver stopped his fare from jumping off the Golden Gate Bridge Friday.

Stanley James Campbell, a San Francisco cabbie who lives at 19 Bernard Street, Mill Valley, told California Highway Patrol he picked up Mrs. Marilyn Lee Babian, 24, of San Francisco in downtown San Francisco. She told him to drive toward Sausalito.

But when he stopped at the toll lanes about 6:30 p.m., she jumped out and ran for the bridge. Campbell alerted the toll-taker, then pursued his fare to the end of the bridge, where he jumped out of his cab and grabbed her before she could jump.

Patrol officer Richard A. Chelemedo, who questioned the woman, said she appeared disturbed over domestic problems.

Suitcase Stolen

Jean B. Totaro of 31 Princess Avenue, Sausalito, complained to Marin sheriff's deputies Saturday that her suitcase containing an assortment of clothing was stolen from outside her room as she was checking into the Hi-Ho Motel, 707A Redwood Highway, Alto. She placed the loss at $75.

Judge Denies A New Trial For Baker

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Dist. Court Judge Oliver Gasch denied today a new trial for Bobby Baker, former secretary to Senate Democrats who was convicted Jan. 29 on charges of income tax evasion, theft and conspiracy.

In seeking a new trial, his attorneys raised questions about the selection of the jury. They contended that the foreman, James Buchanan, concealed his status as a reserve officer for the Metropolitan Police of the District of Columbia.

In his decision, Gasch noted that Buchanan's service was "completely voluntary and withou. compensation."

Gasch said Buchanan served as a reserve officer only on specific occasion and did not intentionally conceal any material facts.

Baker's attorneys also contended that prospective jurors were questioned without Baker and his attorneys being present. They contended also that additional jurors were summoned in an unauthorized manner.

But Judge Gasch said both the jury questioning and summoning were in accordance with the law.

Court Ruling In Favor Of Experiments

TRENTON, N.J. (AP) — In a case stemming from cancer experiments on chickens, the State Supreme Court ruled 6-0 today that high school students may experiment on live animals for educational purposes.

The Supreme Court affirmed a ruling by Essex County Court Judge Charles S. Barrett, who had held that the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals has no right to prosecute institutions authorized by the State Health Department to conduct animal experimentation.

The New Jersey SPCA filed the suit against the East Orange Board of Education. It charged that experiments conducted in 1964 by Barry Fugere, an honor student at East Orange High School, violated state law which bars needless cruelty to animals.

In Fugere's experiments, two of the four chickens injected with a cancer virus died after developing tumors.

Battery Stolen

Joseph L. Flores, 2 Terrace Avenue, Kentfield, Apt. 3, told Tiburon sheriff's deputies the battery was stolen from his car while it was parked at the merchants parking lot on Tiburon Boulevard between 8:30 and 9: p.m. Saturday.

Heed These Warnings For Highway Survival

Marin has opened the year 1967 with a bang. Highway fatalities this year are running far ahead of schedule.

Safety efforts by highway engineers and designers, a beefed-up highway patrol, and constant warnings by the news media have failed to cut down substantially on the highway toll.

However, the campaign to save lives on our freeways cannot be given up as a lost cause.

The California State Automobile Assn. has come up with more tips on how to increase your chances of surviving the vacation trip this summer.

If your motor stalls, guide your car off the traveled portion of the road. If you have to get out of your car when it is parked, don't get out on the traffic side.

Equip your car with travel essentials such as flashlight, jack, tools, chemical fire extinguisher, first-aid kit, and a trouble light.

Get children securely seated, and see that they stay put.

Guard against highway hypnosis by keeping eyes roving to avoid a fixed straight-ahead stare. Skip the tranquilizers and stay-awake pills; they can be deadly because they may either dull or overactivate your senses.

Stop the car and take a rest at least every two hours.

Eat lightly to avoid overstuffing and drowsiness.

Be extra careful at night. Slow down at least 10 miles an hour below your daytime speed.

Always signal before changing lanes to pass, and allow plenty of room for this maneuver.

Keep pace with traffic. The driver who goes faster or slower than the normal speed of traffic causes congestion and increases the hazard.

Drive sensibly on freeway access roads and use to good advantage the speed-changing lanes entering and leaving the freeway. Remember to enter and leave at a speed in tune with the traffic. Don't enter from a standing start.

To these admonitions, Capt. Theodore Parnow of the California Highway Patrol would add another important warning—slippery pavement.

The captain attributes much of the increase in the Marin death toll this year to the increase in rainfall. Patrolmen are amazed at the number of drivers who ignore the slippery condition of the highway during rain. They continue to breeze along at dry-weather speed.

We cannot emphazize too strongly the Captain's warning: Slow down and exercise extra caution when it's raining!

Chemicals Should Help, Not Hurt

This is National Poison Prevention Week, and William Bacon, president of Marin Pharmaceutical Assn., asks all of us to join in its observance by helping reduce preventable accidents.

Make sure medicines, cleansing agents, and garden chemicals are out of a child's reach. Do not leave chemicals or poisonous materials in unmarked bottles.

Almost a half million Americans are accidentally poisoned each year, and every accident could have been avoided with proper care.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Veysey Bill Could Answer Agriculture Labor Problems

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The state legislature this year will have the opportunity of developing an entirely new concept of state participation in agricultural labor disputes.

Assemblyman Victor V. Veysey, R-Brawley, who comes from one of California's leading agricultural areas, and one which has been affected in the past by arguments between agricultural employers and workers, has introduced AB 1163, which authorizes the state Board of Agriculture to make investigations, conduct hearings, and make recommendations to the governor concerning agricultural and other labor disputes affecting the public interest.

THE BILL further establishes an agricultural conciliation service, to come under the supervision of the Department of General Services, authorizes assignment of a conciliator from the service to investigate and mediate labor disputes provided any bonafide party requests such intervention, and on recommendation of the state Board of Agriculture to proffer conciliation services to both parties when a work stoppage is threatened and neither party requests intervention.

Further, the bill authorizes arbitration on such terms as all parties may agree upon, and provides that conciliators shall endeavor to settle disputes concerning the wages, hours or other conditions of employment.

The conciliators also could settle questions involving representation by such means as the parties to the dispute may agree upon, including but not limited to conciliation, mediation, or arbitration.

THE VEYSEY measure covers a wide range of activity, which could be of major assistance in taking care of some of the agricultural disputes which during the past few years have threatened certain segments of California production.

The strikes in the main have been the result of attempts on the part of organizers who have been attempting to establish an agricultural workers union.

Farm workers unions are nothing new in California history, but, so far, attempts to set one up as a permanent and responsible organization in the state's labor picture have been futile.

SIMILAR attempts in other states likewise have not worked out as expected, according to some labor leaders here who have been involved with organization work.

Primary roadblock to an agricultural workers union is the mobility of farm workers, and the fact that they are not consistent in maintaining membership through the payment of dues, which are necessary to run the union.

ON THE OTHER HAND, workers need some medium whereby their requests can be made known. This type of medium exists in California today only sporadically.

The employer also at times needs the means of dealing with workers to avoid costly strikes fomented by organizers, thereby preventing crops from being wasted.

The Veysey bill would appear to have at least some of the answers to this problem.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Handy Facts On Those Poisons

Editor, Independent-Journal:

During this week the Marin County Pharmaceutical Association will be busy informing the public about National Poison Prevention Week. Over half a million Americans, mostly children, will be accidentally poisoned this year. That's about one a minute. . . .

What makes this information particularly appalling is that almost all accidental poisonings among children are preventable.

Eight basic steps of poison prevention are:

1. Keep all drugs, poisonous substances, and household chemicals out of the reach of children.
2. Do not store nonedible products on shelves used for storing food.
3. Do not transfer poisonous substances to unlabeled containers.
4. Never re-use containers of chemical substances.
5. Do not leave discarded medicines where children or pets might get at them.
6. Never tell children you are giving them candy when you are actually giving them medicine.
7. Read labels before using chemical products.
8. Never give or take medicines in the dark.

Marin County pharmacists will be busy distributing literature on how to "poison proof" your home and have antidote charts to place inside your medicine cabinet. A brochure on "Poisonous Plants in the Garden" is also available.

Standards Are Key Questions

Editor, Independent-Journal:

A recent letter to the Independent-Journal, called "An Open Mind For Hirings," by R. Greenblat of Fairfax, does not call for an answer but, "the man who says nothing consents," and Mr. Greenblat's opinion could possibly cause a lessening of confidence on the part of residents in Marin County, and particularly Corte Madera, in regard to volunteer fire departments and the selection of paid firemen.

The article in question would have your readers conclude Corte Madera recently conducted an open test solely for the benefit of one or two members of the Corte Madera Volunteer Fire Department. The fact is that a man living in San Rafael (formerly of Stockton) was selected. Also, the opinion that the test wasted taxpayers money and the time of those tested is not fact . . .

Mr. Greenblat's statement that Corte Madera should limit the test to members of the Corte Madera Volunteer Fire Department, although said with criticism, is nevertheless sound because the fact is that the volunteers are already trained to operate all emergency equipment, are quite familiar with the city and have served the people of Corte Madera voluntarily. They have proven, not by the solution of an algebraic problem or the definition of a four-syllable word, but literally under fire that they are capable in their efforts to protect the lives and property of their neighbors. This, in fact, is a true test; nevertheless, established standards must be met but let no one be persuaded that those standards were at any time ignored at the expense and welfare of Corte Maderans.

Saigon Hospital In Need Of Help

Editor, Independent-Journal:

My name is Jerry Ball. I am employed in San Francisco by S & C Ford and I reside in Greenbrae. I was sent to Saigon by my company to establish a local office for my company.

After being in Saigon for approximately two weeks I decided that I needed some medical advice . . . I was told that the only facility available to civilian Americans was the Seventh-day Adventist Hospital. I proceeded to this "hospital" and was appalled at what I saw. This is a converted house that is staffed by two American doctors and one American nurse, together with many Vietnamese so-called "student nurses" who have absolutely no formal training other than what they can learn here. By American standards, this "hospital" is equipped to handle no more than 20 patients but is housing approximately two hundred, all Vietnamese. A feeble attempt is made at cleanliness, but due to the high cost of soap and disinfectants, much is left to be desired. Flies and roaches abound . . . They have been out of intravenous penicillin for over two months and have no means to obtain same from the States. The strongest oral pain killer available in this "hospital" is aspirin . . .

I am not a crusader, nor did I come here with this intention in mind, but I feel that something must be done to help these people. Our government is spending approximately $1,000,000 per hour in Vietnam on the war effort. Surely some small portion can be directed to help this type of institution. Certainly the health and welfare of the Vietnamese civilians is an important factor, perhaps as important as defeating the Viet Cong.

Unfortunately, dollar contributions cannot be sent through the mails due to currency restrictions; but certainly some of our large drug manufacturers could donate supplies to a worthy organization such as this. I would be interested in any comments from you and will be here a short time longer at the Caravelle Hotel in Saigon.

What About The Student Shifts?

Editor, Independent Journal:

As interested citizens and taxpayers of the Sausalito School District, we are concerned about our public school system and program.

We understand there have been somewhere in the neighborhood of one hundred and fifty (150) or more Sauusalito children withdrawn from our school system and sent elsewhere for their schooling since the opening of school in September.

We consider this a trend and wonder why?

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

JEROME KERN, who wrote some of the most beautiful melodies of our time ("Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," "Who," "And When I Tell Them," and "Just the Way You Look Tonight") was, with justification, a complete autocrat backstage. Woe betide any lyricist or songbird who tried to tamper with his tempo, or change a single note! "It's easy to intimidate people," admitted Kern. "When they're trying to make you change anything, all you have to do is look them straight in the eye and demand, 'WHY?' That almost always stops them dead in their tracks."

FRIENDS OF the late Robert Benchley remember the day he returned from an inspection of one of Italy's most famous monasteries. "It was splendid," he reported, "but it lacked the woman's touch."

LBJ's Talk In Tennessee Total Vietnam Committment

WASHINGTON—If there was any doubt anywhere here or in Saigon or in Moscow or in the mind of Ho Chi Minh that the United States is totally and irreversibly committed to defeating the aggression against South Vietnam, it is now removed.

It is removed with finality by the commitments which President Johnson made before the Tennessee legislature in an address which was the fullest and most effective exposition of what is at stake in the Vietnam war to come from the White House.

IN MY JUDGMENT there has never been any real reason to believe that the government would be so persuaded by its critics, so pressured by foreign opinion, or so hurt on the battlefield that it would seek to find a way to quit "to save face" by a disguised appeasement.

But these words which the President spoke to the world this week are conclusive:

"We shall stay the course . . . I wish it were within my power to assure that all in Hanoi could hear one simple message — America is committed to the defense of South Vietnam until an honorable peace can be negotiated."

I AM CONVINCED that this commitment reflects the reluctant but preponderant assent of the American people, and that even if the going gets harder this public support will not crumble.

It reflects the reluctant but preponderant assent of the Congress, and despite the Fulbrights and the Morses, this support will endure.

It reflects the deep, sober, long-pondered conviction of the President that in riskfully resisting aggression at its start in Vietnam the United States is averting worse war under worse conditions in the future.

If any decision by any President was ever more divorced from politics or any partisan consideration, it is President Johnson's decision to commit large American forces to the successful defense of South Vietnam.

HE IS NOT GOING to step back. He is not going to waver. He is not going to be influenced by any low popularity rating in the opinion polls. Mr. Johnson sees it as his responsibility to protect the safety of the nation and he is prepared to discharge this responsibility even if it risks his re-election.

The opponents of the decision to stay the course have always sought to blur the argument that it is vital to the peace of the world to resist aggression in Asia. They suggest that, while the free world made a mistake in not resisting the aggression in Europe which brought on World War II, it would be no mistake to do the same in Asia.

It is well that the President is now meeting this false contention head-on. He says, and I think rightly, that the prospect of a really peaceful world can only be achieved by a concrete demonstration that aggression across international frontiers is no longer an acceptable means of political change.

AND WHAT WOULD BE the consequences if we let this new aggression succeed? Mr. Johnson does not overstate it when he replies to this question in these words: "If we faltered, the forces of chaos would scent victory and decades of strife and aggression would stretch endlessly before us."

Of course, there is reluctance in the mind of the President and in the minds of the American people. No President and no nation can relish the pain and burden which Vietnam imposes.

But the United States cannot live in safety while aggression pushes the world to the brink of chaos.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Mid-April Hanoi Offensive Seen

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — In preparation for his strategy meetings in Guam this past weekend, President Johnson was warned to expect two new offensives against the administration's expanding war efforts.

Both attacks — a North Vietnam military offensive and intensified anti-war demonstrations in the U.S. — will be launched almost simultaneously in mid-April.

Timing of these drives, while the President attends the summit meeting in Latin America, is believed to be more by design than coincidence.

AT A WHITE House planning session for his trip, the President was told by his military advisers that a two-pronged military offensive by Hanoi is expected in the central and northern areas of South Vietnam when the rainy season begins next month.

More than 35,000 North Vietnam troops are poised in the Red sanctuary in Cambodia prepared to strike across the border into the 2nd Corps area with the support of heavy artillery and rockets.

This Red offensive, which could develop into the largest ground battle of the war, is expected to be supported by a second North Vietnam drive across the demilitarized zone into the First Corps area of northern South Vietnam.

A BUILDUP of from 25,000 to 30,000 enemy troops north of the demilitarized area has taken place since January, despite stepped up U.S. bombing raids and attacks by heavy artillery and naval guns.

The latest intelligence from the U.S. military command in Saigon pinpoints April 8 to 15 as the jumping-off time for the North Vietnam offensive.

This is the same period picked by the Spring Mobilization Movement and the Student Anti-Vietnam Committee for draft demonstrations throughout the U.S.

Government informants, who sat in on the planning sessions of these groups in Cleveland last month, revealed that Rev. James Bevel, the principal organizer, expects a half million at the two wind-up rallies in New York and San Francisco on April 15.

Student demonstrators, who will launch the anti-Vietnam war rallies a week earlier on college campuses, will be brought to both cities in hundreds of buses and trains. There the demonstrators will join with peace, civil rights and Communist groups to demand a halt to U. S. bombing of North Vietnam.

THE OFFENSIVES IN both the U. S. and Vietnam are being timed to take full advantage of the propaganda expected from Bertrand Russell's war crimes trial scheduled to get underway in Paris on March 27.

This international kangaroo court is rigged to convict President Johnson and his top aides of war crimes in Vietnam.

So well orchestrated is this anti-U. S. propaganda attack that student and other anti-Vietnam war groups in the U.S., Europe and Latin America already have their signs and leaflets printed hailing the conviction of U.S. authorities by the pro-Soviet Russell group.

Administration insiders say these Vietnam developments, although disturbing to the President, have only reinforced his conviction that he is on the right track in Vietnam.

They say also that the President for the first time is seriously considering permitting air attacks against North Vietnam troop concentrations and supply routes in Cambodia.

Employees Of County Have Learned Their Lessons Well

Good county employees know how to sit up and speak when ordered, lie down and play dead and do other tricks on command of the board of supervisors.

Last Tuesday's meeting of the board of supervisors was a fine display of how highly these talents have been developed.

THE FIRST DISCUSSION of the afternoon concerned abatement of a Forest Knolls store that was gutted by fire 13 long months ago and has been and eyesore ever since.

The owner, rather than tidy up the property, has been trying to sell it and a real estate agent allowed there might be a buyer in about 30 days. The board then voted 4-1 for a 30-day delay, giving as the main reason the lack of adequate information on condition of the building presented by the county staff.

The supervisors said this even after seeing pictures of the building taken by the Department of Public Works, and the board was reminded that they actually ordered abatement of the building already last August.

BUT TUESDAY, 13 months after the fire, all but Supervisor Peter H. Behr declared they did not know enough about the building to order abatement.

You can be sure that no one in county employ asked what information the board had acted upon in August when it first ordered abatement. County employees are too well trained for that.

Later in the day, Supervisor Thomas T. Storer surprised fellow supervisors by saying he had asked preparation of an emergency ordinance that would prevent destruction of Indian mounds in the county and that he was going to present it for adoption.

THIS DREW sharp criticism from Supervisors John F. McInnis and Ernest N. Kettenhofen who attacked Storer for putting up an ordinance fellow supervisors had neither seen nor been warned of. Chairman Storer called an abrupt recess to cut off the attack.

What happened when the board reconvened? An attorney from the county counsel's office apologized to supervisors for preparing the ordinance.

You might wonder how much credit that attorney would have received had the ordinance met with the full pleasure of the board.

Still later last Tuesday, supervisors corrected an "error" evidently compiled by several members of the county staff over the boundaries of agricultural reserves. Land in a reserve can get a big break on property taxes over land that is outside the reserve.

THE CORRECTION voted by supervisors Tuesday included a change in the minutes of the March 1, 1966, minutes and put all of the Silveira home ranch in the reserve, subtracting $1.1 million possible property appraisal from the assessor's tax roll for next fiscal year.

Was there any argument from the county employees who made the "error"?

That is a silly question.

Just Think, Meredith May Have Lost High Office Bid

WASHINGTON—James Meredith's decision not to run against Adam Clayton Powell for the Harlem congressional seat was a disappointment to Republicans everywhere.

There was more at stake than just a congressional seat. A reliable Republican source told me: "The Harlem election was a trial balloon to see if Meredith could pull in enough votes to make him a serious contender for the Presidential nomination. If Meredith did well against Powell, we were going to build him up for the big job. As a matter of fact, we were all set to start promoting a James Meredith-Ronald Reagan ticket for 1968."

"HOW WELL WOULD Meredith have had to do against Powell?"

"He would have had to beat Powell by at least 3-to-1. The day Meredith quit, the polls showed that he was trailing Powell slightly. But many of us felt he would pick up steam in the last two weeks."

"Why do you think there were so many people in Harlem who were opposed to Meredith running against Powell?"

"I think they heard about our presidential plans for him. Many people said Meredith was just going to use the congressional race as a stepping stone to higher office and they resented it. One lady told me, 'When I elect a congressman, I want a congressman, not a Presidential candidate.'"

"DID MEREDITH KNOW you were considering him for higher office?"

"No, we decided not to tell him. It might have confused his campaign."

"Then you were just going to let him get elected to Congress before you revealed what you really had in mind for him?"

"That's it. We wanted to test the exposure, see how he stood up under pressure, how he came over on television. We wanted to be sure he was the right man for the job."

"But what would have happened if Meredith had said he wasn't interested in being the Republican presidential candidate?"

"WE WOULD HAVE drafted him. He couldn't refuse under the circumstances."

"How did you arrive on James Meredith?"

"We never thought of him because we didn't even know he was available. But then when he agreed to run against Powell in Harlem on the Republican ticket, someone said we were wasting him on a congressional seat when we are so desperate for a winner in the big race."

"That was good thinking," I said.

"MEREDITH HAD A LOT going for him. He was a strong campaigner, a familiar face, had a good civil rights record and he hadn't committed himself on Vietnam. With Reagan as his running mate we would keep both the conservatives and the liberals happy."

"Well, what do you think made Meredith change his mind about running for public office?"

"It's hard to say. Maybe he didn't want to get into a primary fight with Romney, or perhaps the Rockefeller people got to him first. In any case the only one who will benefit from his decision not to run is Powell. With Meredith out of the race Powell is bound to win now."

"THAT'S TOUGH LUCK," I said. "Now that Meredith is out of the running for the presidential nomination it doesn't look as though you have anybody."

"Oh, I don't know. There's always Nixon."

The Novato Health Committee on Tuberculosis is urging city residents to go to their area schools April 2 for tuberculin skin tests.

Market Plan Draws A Blank

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union has refused to lift its objection to Austrian association with the European Common Market, Austrian sources said today after Chancellor Josef Klaus had a final meeting with Premier Alexei N. Kosygin.

Klaus also had an unscheduled 30 - minute meeting with Leonid I. Brezhnev, general secretary of the Soviet Communist party which runs this country.

Klaus goes home Tuesday after a week's visit, during which he has discussed Austria's desire to associate itself with the Common Market.

The Soviet government contends that Austrian neutrality, required by Austria's postwar independence treaty, would be compromised by association with the Common Market.

Mural Of Corte Madera's History Will Be Unveiled

A mural depicting the history of Corte Madera will be officially unveiled tonight in Town Hall at a meeting of the Town Council.

Painting of the mural, which cost $750, is an off-shoot of the town's 50th anniversary celebration last year. Corte Madera artist Kenneth Potter was commissioned by the council last May to do the work.

The eight by eight-and-a-half-foot canvas pictures significant persons and events in the town's history. Illustrated are the early boundaries of the town, the old Corte Madera School, Frank Morrison Pixley, early resident on a 160-acre estate; Benjamin Scouler, the first mayor; Peter Donahue, founder of the San Francisco and North Pacific Railroad; the railroad station and an early hotel, and a scene showing the cutting and shipping of redwoods.

The canvas is done in india ink and acrylic paint, with washes of golden ochre and sepia.

The unveiling will be at 7:30 p.m.
